successful farmers of Antioch, were transacting business in the city Friday.

Mrs. Poke Hull, a prominent lady of Griffin creek, paid friends on North Central avenue a pleasant visit Saturday.

Mrs. E. D. Wilhite returned to her home in the vicinity of Antioch yesterday, much pleased with her week's social visit.

While visiting North school last week, I note among other things of interest W. J. Bryan's and Kern's pictures conspicuously hung on the walls of the fifth grade.

Miss Bessie Turpin, one of Roxy Ann district's most popular young ladies, is paying her relatives, Mrs. Thomas Turpin and Milligan, of this place, a few days' social visit.

G. W. Stacey, Antioch district's progressive road supervisor, tarried in the city Wednesday night, the guest of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Salles of North A street.

D. Wyler and sister have returned to their home on North Central avenue, after spending about three weeks very pleasantly picking up plums on J. E. Watts' fruit farm on Griffin creek.

Mr. Rastel, a Central Point capitalist, made a brief call Wednesday while in the city on business. The gentleman says he can't get lost in Medford, but his mind gets confused over her rapid growth.

Mrs. Jackson and daughters have returned to the city from their brief visit to Cottage Grove and will make their future home with Mrs. Jackson's father, Mr. Ellingsworth, of North Medford, where the children will enter the North school.

Mrs. Vertrees and son, Frank, have packed and loaded their household plunder in wagons on North Central avenue, and will start next Monday on their long, tedious journey to the Yakima country, their future home. We join in wishing them a safe journey.

(From Monday's Daily.)
J. H. Horning returned yesterday from a visit to Roseburg and Woodville, where he had been on land business.

F. E. Ridden has the framework of his residence up and will soon have it enclosed. A. S. Moyer is doing the work.

J. E. and Dee Roberts and J. P. Lindley are having a good, substantial plank sidewalk put down in front of their homes on Grant avenue.

G. A. Jackson and his son, W. B. Jackson, have torn away the wooden sidewalks in front of their residences and are having the ground graded and will put in cement walks. J. H. Atwell will put in the walks.

George P. Lindley has recently moved into his new home in the Queen Ann Addition. His is a very pretty residence, is two stories high and modern in every particular and was built at a cost of about $2300.

Mr. Calhoun, the dairyman, has moved from the Ewbank place out onto the Eagle Point road. Mr. Ewbank owns 30 acres of land in this tract and your correspondent understands he contemplates plating the tract and offering it for sale.

S. A. Nye and family have moved into the Spease residence, which Mr. Nye purchased a few months ago. This is an ideal spot for the erection of a beautiful residence, and your correspondent understands he contemplates the erection of such an one.

DEATH OF ADVENTURES.

DENVER, Oct. 10.—Mrs. Cora Belle Martine, whose daughter Arvilla was taken away from her recently in this city by the humane society and who achieved much notoriety by declaring that the girl was the child of a Pittsburgh millionaire, died of pneumonia in the Denver county hospital today.

Mrs. Martine was a daughter of Mrs. Sarah Holden of San Francisco, and claimed to be related to the Crockers. They deny the connection. A story told by Mrs. Martine that she was a nun and had been induced to leave the convent by the Pittsburgh man, who she claimed was the father of her child, has been disproved on investigation by local Catholic priests.

TAFT IN OHIO.

AKRON, O., Oct. 12.—Seventeen Ohio towns heard and saw Judge Taft today. He talked from Cincinnati to Akron, through a portion of the state conceded to have been Foraker's stronghold, with a portion of the territory Democratic. The candidate was listened to by large crowds.

In Zanesville the speech of Taft went after both Bryan and Gompers. "Bryan goes about the country saying I am the father of injunctions," declared Taft. "It is not true. I do not invent injunctions in labor disputes. But it is quite natural Bryan should make the mistake, because in a letter he wrote to the district attorney of Belmont, O., he said he had not read my decisions."

"THE CLANSMAN."

The Portland Baptist Ministers Want Play Suppressed.

PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 13.—That the play "The Clansman," advertised to be produced in this city, is a detriment to the colored people of the city and prejudicial to the best interests of the community and that it should be prohibited by the mayor and council, is the sense of the ministerial alliance of the Baptist churches of the city, as expressed in their meeting yesterday.

The motion was introduced by the Rev. B. B. Johnson, the colored preacher and pastor of Mount Olivet church, who said that wherever this play has been produced it has been attended with bad results; that it stirs up animosity toward the colored race, and leads to deeds of violence. Rev. Mr. Barr, a visiting minister, also of the colored race, spoke in support of the motion, showing that the play had been produced in Springfield, Ill., but four weeks before the bloody race riot in which many persons lost their lives.

Rev. W. T. Jordan said that the author, Tom Dixon, is a personal friend of his, and that though he believed that the events of that period covered by the play and the book, the reconstruction days in the south, could never be exaggerated, still he regretted that the book had been written and that a play had been from it. He expressed the opinion that we are far enough from those days to let them die and said that he would vote for the motion. There was no dissenting voice when the motion was put.

SOCIALIST LIE NAILED.

Story of Starving School Children is Grossly Exaggerated.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—The Socialists received an awful wallop today when city officials and charitable organizations began an investigation of the charge that 15,000 school children are on the verge of starvation in this city. This story has been seized upon as a fine line of ammunition wherewith to bombard the existing order of things. The investigation, however, shows that in a great majority of cases the children are hungry because one or both of their parents are drunkards.

The fathers, in most cases, are loafers who work only long enough to get drinking money, leaving their families to shift for themselves while they make Socialist speeches in saloons. Instead of 15,000 cases, the investigators cannot find one-eighth of that number.

In some cases the fathers are making good wages, but spending their money in paying walking delegates, buying drinks for gangs of loafers and wind up the week by beating their wives and children and breaking furniture that has not been pawned.

FOR AUTO HIRE.

Hearst Sued for Drayage During the Big Quake Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—Within five days William R. Hearst must answer the summons that he has in his possession today, issued against him in a suit for $10,000 for automobile hire. The action was brought before Judge Morgan by Sol J. Levy, who alleges that he removed valuable papers and files from the office of the Examiner during the fire of 1906. Two automobiles were used in the transportation of Examiner property and Levy considers the amount a fair compensation.

The bill was presented to the Examiner two weeks ago and payment was refused. Hearst was served with the summons after leaving the Central theater last night. He refused to discuss the matter.

WED MAXINE ELLIOTT.

Nat Goodwin Will Marry the Actress, Completing Matrimonial Jungle.

RENO, Nev., Oct. 13.—Nat Goodwin will wed Edna Goodrich, and Harry MacMillan, Miss Goodrich's former fiance, will marry Maxine Elliott, Goodwin's former wife, according to gossip here. Both men are widely known in this city because of their mining operations.

Goodwin got his divorce here but little more than a week ago, and then left for London, where Edna Goodrich is now staying.

It is known that a big strike on his Bovard property yesterday, news of which was immediately wired to him, with an urgent request for his instant return, failed to shake his determination to continue on to London.

Lumber Bargain.

We have for sale 150,000 feet of 4 and 6 inch old fashioned bevel siding at from $13.00 to $22.00 per thousand feet, surface measure, at our mill. Extra for delivering the same f. o. b. cars in any quantity at the following points: Woodville 75c; Gold Hill $1.00; Central Point $1.25; Medford $1.40; Ashland $1.70 per thousand. The cheaper grades are plenty good enough for ordinary buildings. This style of siding makes buildings look nicer and turns wind and water better than rustic.

ELKINS MAKES STATEMENT.

Denies in Vigorous Terms Engagement of Daughter and Abruzzi.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 13.—In an authoritative statement to the Associated Press today, United States Senator Elkins of West Virginia branded as untrue an alleged interview accredited to his wife to the effect that there was no engagement between Miss Katherine Elkins and Duke d'Abruzzi.

In an emphatic manner, Senator Elkins said that neither his wife nor himself could give such interview, for the simple reason that it was impossible to deny something that did not exist.

Senator Elkins talked to the Associated Press over the long-distance telephone from Elkins, W. Va., and was much exercised over the numerous wild reports, published from time to time, concerning the alleged engagement of his daughter to the Italian duke.

"There is no foundation for the many reports," he said. "Neither in Europe nor in America has any announcement of an engagement been made. There is no engagement."
