

BAD CHARACTER IS CAPTURED

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 13.—None of the intrepid pioneers who blazed a trail through the trackless forests of the great northwest ever started out on their journey into the wilderness with a greater degree of enthusiasm and determination of purpose than little 11-year-old William Meyer of 206 1/2 First street, who was taken into custody by Patrolman Addison at an early hour yesterday morning at the north end of the Union-avenue bridge.

Willie, who is desirous of emulating the example of Lewis and Clark, left home yesterday morning to penetrate the fastnesses of the Cascades and incidentally to hunt grizzlies and Indians. Having no money with which to purchase supplies, the lad annexed the family ax and two jars of pickled peaches, and setting his course by the sun, headed northward.

At 4:45 o'clock in the morning Patrolman Addison, in crossing the Union-avenue bridge, noticed a camp fire in Sullivan's gulch and climbed down the embankment to investigate. Huddled alongside the embers, fast asleep, was Master William. Near him lay his "trusty" ax, the two jars of preserves and a dead chicken.

Waking the youngster, the blue-coat took him in charge, with the intention of returning the child to his parents. Willie, however, would not tell his address, and the patrolman finally marched the boy to police headquarters. The lad refused to part with his outfit and forced to policeman to carry the fruit jars to the city prison, while he packed the chicken and ax.

William made himself perfectly at home in the station, and upon being interrogated by Captain Bailey declared he had pursued the hen on the east side and the animal dropped dead of fright.

"I was going to make a Mulligan," said the youngster when asked what he intended to do with the chicken, "but after building the fire was too sleepy."

Patrolman Harry Circle escorted the runaway to the juvenile court, and as that boy had been before that tribunal before he will undoubtedly be committed to some reform institution. Meyers, Sr., conducts the Templeton lodging-house at 206 1/2 First street.

The lad was taken through the county jail by one of the court officials, and after conversing with a number of the prisoners declared, "Gee, I guess I don't want to be a hobo."

ROOSEVELT ISSUES STATEMENT.

Declares Approaching Dinner is Not Official One.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The discussion which has arisen over the dinner President Roosevelt is to give in the White House next Tuesday to labor leaders brought forth from the executive office of the President today an official statement pointing out that the dinner is not an official one, and declining to discuss the omission of President Gompers, Vice-President O'Connell, Secretary Morrison and Treasurer Lennan of the American Federation of Labor from the guest list.

The statement follows:

"As the statement has been made that this is an official dinner, it is worth while pointing out that it is nothing of the kind. The President has on several occasions had various labor leaders, with whom he had been thrown in contact, and whose views he wished to obtain, at dinner.

"For this occasion he had asked a number of men within and without government service who are interested in different phases of the labor question to come to dinner.

"Three-fourths of these men are not members of labor organizations. Six or eight of them are connected in one capacity or another with the work of labor organizations. It would of course, be absurd to take any notice of discussion as to who should not be invited to dinner by the President."

GOOD CHANCE FOR PUPILS.

Sons of American Revolution Offer Prizes

The Oregon Society of the Sons of the American Revolution offers prizes to the pupils of the public schools of the state of Oregon for essays on subjects connected with our war for independence.

Prizes of $20 and $10 will be awarded for the first and second best essays written by high school pupils on any one of the following subjects:

"The Causes of the Revolutionary war on either one of the following subjects:

"Foreign Aid in the Revolutionary War."

"Washington's Greatness — In What Did It Consist?"

Prizes of $20, $10 and three of $5 each will be awarded for the first, second, third, fourth and fifth best essays, respectively, written by grade school pupils.

"The Battle of Saratoga."

"The Navy in the Revolutionary War."

"The Battle of Bunker Hill."

ANOTHER NEW CULT FORMED

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Plans for giving world-wide scope to the Christian psychology movement which he started a year ago along purely local lines were announced by Bishop Fallows to his congregation at St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal church.

A new international organization, patterned in many respects after the Christian Science movement, but differing radically in its attitude toward medicine, is the agency by which Bishop Fallows declares he expects to spread broadcast the teachings of psychopathy. It will be known as "The League of Right Living" with the "promotion of health and happiness" for its avowed purpose.

"Local centers," he announced, "are to be established wherever possible." The bishop will be at the head with the title of president. "What faith cure, hypnotism, Christian Science, new thought and all other cults have done only in part it will undertake confidently to accomplish," he said. "It will not devote itself merely to curing the sick or relieving the suffering. It will no less set for itself the task of discovering our unused powers and making them available."

Bishop Fallows announced the names of noted neurologists who have agreed to assist by contributing articles for study, comparable in some ways to Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy's "Science and Health." The work of the league will be carried on by "correspondence study."

Bishop Fallows said: "I believe the league is capable of vast services to education, health and religion. As stated more definitely the purposes of the league are:

"First—To educate its members in the principles and methods of right living so that they may avoid the tendency to nervous disorders and acquire a freer, fuller use of their inherent powers.

"Second—To assist both the ill and the well by suggesting methods of self help. It will particularly aim to relieve the disorders most amenable to mental and spiritual treatment, such as nervous prostration, nervous exhaustion, mental suffering, sleeplessness, some forms of hysteria, melancholia, anger, fear, etc.

"Third—To teach physicians, clergymen, teachers, nurses, parents and social workers how to apply these principles for the benefit of those under their care.

"Particularly the League of Right Living will proclaim and urge the laws of right thinking and right behavior, mental and physical."

BATTLE OF HATS.

Three Rival Types Are in Contest for Supremacy.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The woman who would be in fashion just now finds herself in a quandary, owing to the contending claims of three types of hat, each of which is declared by the milliner who acts as its sponsor to be the latest fashion in millinery.

The three types are:

1. The "Merry Widow."
2. The Plateau.
3. The Pill Box.

The Merry Widow needs no description. It is simply a full-sized matinee hat, and the largest species of headgear which can be safely worn by a woman in the habit of entering omnibuses and motor cabs. Its limits are dictated by the width and height of the doors of these vehicles. Its usual trimming consists of towering plumes or cascades of feathers, and its popularity may be measured from the fact that there is not a milliner's shop in the West End of London which does not show some examples of it.

The Plateau, as its name suggests, is flat. Made of rucked silk or velvet, it has its diminutive crown hidden by a single blossom of large size placed flat on the center of the hat. A flowing veil sometimes takes the place of the flower.

The Pill Box hat is the antithesis of this. While the Plateau is all brim and no crown, the Pill Box is all crown and no brim. The first Pill Box arrived from Paris three weeks ago. Today many milliners are making them and even the furriers have adopted the idea.

The battle of the hats will have to be fought out on the streets. A French milliner consulted declined to lay down the law.

"The sensible woman," she said, "will choose the style of hat most becoming to her. The Plateau is the only suitable hat for the picturesque woman. A little woman is lost under a wide-brimmed hat. The Pill Box is the hat for her, while her tall sister can carry one of the big hats to advantage."

PASTOR FREED ON BONDS.

Throckmorton, Tex., Is Sending an Individual to Identify Him.

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 14.—Rev. George C. Clark, alleged to be the Rev. Mr. Summers, indicted at Throckmorton, Tex., in 1904, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses and arrested at Gardiner, this county, last week, was arraigned before the local justice of the peace last evening and placed under bonds of $500, which were furnished by two Roseburg business men.

Next Wednesday was the date set for his examination, the purpose of which is to enable Governor Chamberlain to act intelligently on the requisition for the minister's extradition to Texas. This requisition is in the hands of an officer now en route from Texas to Salem. Last evening the local authorities telegraphed to Throckmorton for a person, whose identity is not revealed, to come to Roseburg and see if the accused is the man Summers. This person will arrive here this week and return to Throckmorton in time for the examination next week.

A copy of the indictment against Summers was received here from Texas today. Specifically, it accuses Summers of borrowing $100 from another individual under the pretense that he needed it to defray the expense of an operation for paralysis, when, in fact, it alleges, he was not afflicted with any such ailment. Clark has retained Attorneys F. G. Micell and W. W. Cardwell, of this city, to defend him.

HITCHCOCK WILL GO FREE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian, probably never will be tried on the two indictments now standing against him as the result of a charge preferred against him by three young girls. District Attorney Jerome announced in court today that he has no hope of convicting him, and upon his recommendation the ball of $7500 under which Hitchcock has been held was discharged.

MORGAN FINDS BULLET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—If the recovery of Postmaster Edward W. Morgan, who was shot last Monday by Eric P. Mackey continues, he will be at his desk the first week in December in time to supervise the handling of the enormous Christmas mail.

Mr. Morgan was feeling so well yesterday that he asked if the bullet

ROOSEVELT'S HUNT.

It Will Be for Science and Not a "Slaughtering" Trip.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—That President Roosevelt's Africa trip will not be a "slaughtering expedition" is reported by Major M. E. Means, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Totten, on the Sound, who goes to Washington today to confer with Mr. Roosevelt as one of the party who will go with him.

Major Means is connected with the Smithsonian institution, and will gather material for the museum during the expedition. Further details of the trip will be made public by the president next week, he said. In explaining that the trip was not for "slaughter," Major Means said that it was to be in the interest of science.

WISHED TO DIE ON GALLOWS.

LA PORTE, Ind., Nov. 14.—Abert Roubick, who testified that he had murdered Emil Kvanetsky, a Chicago jeweler, because of infatuation for his victim's wife, whom he expected to marry, was sentenced to life imprisonment by the jury, which reported today.

Roubick was disappointed. He said he had confessed, hoping the jury would sentence him to death on the gallows.

PAPER OUT WITHOUT TYPE.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 14.—The strike of the typesetters and printers on the two local Hungarian papers, the News and the Szabadsag, has produced one of the most novel publications ever issued here. The Szabadsag appeared as if it had been typewritten.

Editor E. P. Kohanyi struck upon the idea of typewriting his news. The typewritten sheets were photographed, and from the photographs, printing plates were made, just as a photograph is engraved for printing.

The engravings of the typewritten sheets were then placed together in consecutive order, and from these the papers were printed.

FOR CHRONIC DIARRHOEA.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton, of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Miles, of this place, persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by Chas Strang

MURDERED IN DEPOT.

Wealthy New Jersey Man Killed by Former Employee.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—In view of hundreds of persons in the Pennsylvania depot in Jersey City today, Walter Ammon was shot three times in the head and body and died on the way to the hospital. The man who did the shooting was quickly caught. He gave the name of Andrew McGrath, but refused to make any statement. Mr. Ammon was a member of the dairy firm of Ammon & Person.

McGrath said that he had been employed as a salesman by Ammon & Person and had been discharged. At the office of the firm it was said that the attack on Ammon was the result of trouble over business matters.

Mr. Ammon was one of the wealthiest business men of Jersey City, a director of the Commercial Trust company and of the Third National bank of New Jersey, and of the Union League club. He was a manufacturer of butterine and butter products. It was his custom to come to New York daily to transact business and he was returning from such a trip today when shot.

McGrath made a short statement to the police, in which he said that he was "satisfied to take his medicine."

BULLET GREET'S APOLOGY.

Congressman's Son Shoots Down a Traveling Man on Street.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 14.—A dispatch from Wayneville, N. C., today, announces the fatal shooting of David Vaughn, a traveling man of this city, at that place last night by James Moody, son of ex-Congressman Moody of that district. The men had some words a few days ago, and meeting on the street last night, Vaughn attempted to apologize to Moody, when the latter shot him down. Vaughn died today. He was a member of one of the most prominent families in this section.
