

LOOK

For the Grand Removal Sale

NEXT WEEK

DEUEL & KENTNER

The Medford Furniture Co. Housefurnishers and Undertakers

Day Phone 63
Night Phone, C. W. Conklin 495
Night Phone, J. H. Butler 148

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(From Tuesday's daily)

Mrs. N. S. Bennett visited Sunday with friends at Talent.

Frank Loomis left yesterday for Seattle where he will enter school.

Mrs. Wamsley died at Eagle Point Sunday night after an illness of many months.

Mrs. G. A. Hoover returned to her home at Phoenix Sunday after visiting in the city for a few days.

Mrs. James Renshaw departed yesterday for Baker City. She was accompanied as far as Portland by her mother, Mrs. J. O. Brandon.

O. N. Caskey returned Sunday to Yreka, where he is employed, after spending several days in the city visiting his parents and other friends.

O. N. Wilson last week sold his residence and six lots near the ball grounds, in Northwest Medford to T. L. Miller, Consideration $2250.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Heard and daughter, Miss Gladys, returned yesterday from Los Angeles where they have been for the past several weeks.

Edmonds Bros., who have recently opened a shoe store in the Moore block are experienced shoe men, one of the firm having had 20 years experience in that line of business in Indiana and the other has had six years.

Mrs. M. A. Langhorne, of Tacoma, Wash., stopped off Sunday while on her way to Los Angeles, for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Metz, of this city.

James Hurley, who left this place sometime ago to visit relatives in Illinois, writes that his return has been delayed because he has been caught in a quarantine for small pox.

Various commercial bodies of Oregon and Washington are planning to get out leaflets to be used as a letter enclosure, emphasizing the

Mrs. J. C. Nicholson, her son-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Webber, of Eugene, arrived in the city yesterday and will remain for an indefinite period, having come up for the benefit of Mrs. Webber's health. They were here a few weeks last season and Mrs. Webber was so much improved they concluded to this our climate again.

F. A. Bliss received a letter a few days ago from his son-in-law, E. W. Scott, who is now living at Grangeville, Idaho. He tells that the thermometer has been 20 degrees below zero and snow two feet deep. Mrs. Scott adds a postscript in which she says: "You remember how Earl used to cuss Southern Oregon; well, you ought to hear him say unkind things about Idaho."

wonderfully low colonists rates from the East—they are awaiting announcement of the Atlantic Coast and other points not yet decided by the Passenger Association of the trans-continental roads. The $25.00 fare from Missouri River points, $30.50 from St. Louis, and $33.00 from Chicago is the lowest named for three years.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

W. C. Green returned yesterday from Portland.

A. C. Howlett, of Eagle Point, was on our streets yesterday.

Mr. E. B. Moore, of Phoenix, was a business visitor to Medford yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, of Jacksonville, spent yesterday in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Anderson returned Monday from a visit to Portland.

Miss Mary Orr, who has been seriously ill for several days, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith from Eden valley, were in the city yesterday trading.

Attorney E. D. Briggs was down from Ashland yesterday attending to some business matters.

W. B. Barnes, Sheriff of Klamath county, is in the city looking after matters pertaining to his office.

Mr. Anderson, a furniture manufacturer of the east, is here visiting with his friend, T. L. Williamson.

Mrs. E. A. Reames returned yesterday from Hillsboro, where she had been visiting her mother for several days.

A musicale will be given at the First Baptist church on Tuesday evening, February 2. Program will appear later.

Dan Peterson, of Klamath county, is visiting Medford friends. He will return in a few days to his Klamath county home.

Miss Zoe Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Griffin, who has been very ill for a couple of weeks past with typhoid pneumonia, is very much improved.

Boudnot Conner, of Sams Valley, spent yesterday in town. Mr. Conner will set out this year 100 acres of apple and pear trees.

Wm. A. Hannah, of San Francisco, came in to day and went over to Jacksonville for a short visit with his father, Judge H. K. Hanna and other friends.

Mrs. W. C. Pasco, mother of Mrs. J. F. Pryor of this city, returned yesterday to her home at Aberdeen, Wash., after a six week's visit in this city.

P. S. Leonard and family returned yesterday to their home at Wenatchee, Wash., after a five weeks' visit with Clarence Wheeler and family of this city.

C. H. Anderson, traveling salesman for F. H. Hill & Co., of Chicago, stopped off yesterday for a short visit with his friend, F. J. Williamson, of this city.

W. P. Rathe, of Medford R. F. D. No. 1, was a visitor to the Morning Mail office yesterday. He reports the roads rather muddy yet, but drying out fast.

Hon. H. Von der Hellen, of Wellen, here he ordered the Weekly Mail sent to his son, Lieutenant George Von der Hellen, at Manila, P. I.

Arthur Brown, advertising manager for the Morning Mail, returned Monday evening from a two weeks' visit to his father and sister, in Denver, Colorado.

Olis and Mrs. Richards and Miss Addie Richards returned to their homes at Ashland, Neb., after spending a month in our valley visiting their friend, J. F. Wortman.

Wm. Erickson, of Butte Falls, made commutation proof on his homestead yesterday before U. S. Commissioner Canon. Anna M. Smith, of Medford, made final proof on her timber claim located on the Rogue river.

Ed Wilkinson, who has been at Portland for about a month, returned home the first of the week and glad he is to be again in Southern Oregon. He reports that business seems rather dull at Portland, owing partly to the very unpleasant weather for the past several weeks.

From Winter to Spring.

C. Latham, accompanied by his son, C. P. Latham, wife and family, of Grand Valley, Colo., arrived in the city yesterday. These people have come expecting to make their homes among us. They have had enough of the snows and cold weather of Colorado. H. C. Hutchinson, of Grand Junction, Colo., came with them. He also will locate here. They inform us that many more will follow as soon as the roads permit of travel without delays such as they met with.

New Auto Garage.

An up-to-date garage will be built at once on the corner of Eighth and G streets for the use of Snyder, the Cadillac man. The structure will be 50x100 feet in size and the entire floor space will be of cement and the entire equipment will be modern in every respect.

The lumber has just been purchased by J. C. Emerick of Ashland, who will erect the building from the Big Pines Lumber company. The contract for the cement work has been let to Peter Danhoff, the contractor.

New Officers W. O. W.

Annual installation of officers of Chrysanthemum Circle, Women of Woodcraft, No. 84, occurred last evening. The installation ceremonies were conducted by Past Guardian Clara Barkdull after routine business matters had been disposed of. The following are the new officers:

Past Guardian, Clara Barkdull; Guardian Neighbor, Catherine Wait; Advisor, Elizabeth Solis; Clerk, Prue M. Angle; Banker, Eliza Corwin; Magician, Maud Day; Attendant, Maud M. Hockenyo; Sentinel, Minnie Fitzgerald; Musician, Cella Cunningham.

Ladies Use Hammers.

A ladies feature of the social meeting of the members of the local carpenter's union held Sunday evening, was a nail driving contest by the ladies present. Mrs. O. W. Murphy won the first prize, a fountain pen; Mrs. W. Thompson, second prize, a lady's shopping bag; Mrs. Johnson, third prize, a box of chocolates. As the result of the speaking contest, Miss Mamie Seale won first prize and Miss Ethel Burphy second. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Slater-Gay Nuptials.

In the presence of about 40 friends the marriage of J. W. Slater to Mrs. E. M. Gay, took place at the Seventh Day Adventist church, January 25, 1909. The Rev. W. L. Black, officiating.

Mr. Slater is well known in Medford as an upright and genial man. Mrs. Gay is a well-respected lady from Phoenix, where she has been living with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Shaver. Their many friends wish them a happy future.

Adams-Olds Nuptials.

At McMinnville, at the home of the bride's sister, on January 21, Blake Adams and Miss Julia Olds were married. Mr. Adams is bookkeeper at the Blue Ledge mine which position he has held a long time. The bride is a well-known and popular young lady of McMinnville.

Phone Company Elects.

The Phoenix Rural Telephone company has elected officers as follows: A. C. Roberts, vice-president; G. A. Hoover, secretary; A. H. Fisher, treasurer. The board of directors is composed of the following: E. G. Coleman, Ed Anderson, James Allen, S. S. Stevens, S. G. VanDyke and the officers named above.

BORN—Sunday, January 24, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Coss, a daughter.

Merry Dance.

The Entre Nous club enjoyed a social dance at Jacksonville last night, a special train going over to accommodate the crowd. Music was furnished by Norling's Orchestra and a box lunch was served. About forty couples were present and report a jolly time.

New Residence.

S. J. Summerlin commenced yesterday the erection of a comfortable and commodious cottage on his lots on I street, between Eight and Ninth streets. This is one of the best locations in town as it looks over the park.

Teachers' Examinations.

Notice is hereby given that I will hold the regular examination of applicants for teachers' certificates at Jacksonville as follows:

For state papers: Commencing Wednesday, February 10 at 9 a. m. and continuing until Saturday, February 13, at 4 p. m. Wednesday, penmanship, history, spelling, physical geography, reading, psychology; Thursday, written arithmetic, theory of teaching, grammar, bookkeeping, physics, civil government; Friday, physiology, geography, composition, algebra, English literature, Oregon school law; Saturday, botany, plane geometry, general history.

For county papers: Commencing Wednesday, February 10, at 9 a. m. and continuing until Friday, February 12, at 4 p. m. Wednesday, penmanship, history, spelling, reading, physical geography; Thursday, written arithmetic, theory of teaching, grammar, physiology; Friday, geography, Oregon school law, civil government, English literature.

J. PERCY WELLS
County School Superintendent.

Medford Business College.

C. E. Taylor, who intends retiring from all school work, has sold his entire interest in the college to J. A. Hilbert. Mr. Hilbert until recently held the principalship of the Armstrong Business college of San Luis Obispo, Cal., and is well qualified to make the college a success and a credit to the town.

The average woman is fond of pets, but her husband is not in that class.

SPRAYING SEASON Are You Ready for It?

MULTIPLEX SPRAY HOSE

Guaranteed to 200 lbs. Pressure

The MULTIPLEX SPRAY HOSE is positively a first-class 7-PLY hose. It has a special inner tube and is made to give the best service.

Do yourself a favor. Examine the Multiplex before you buy.

Spray Nozzles and Supplies

Don't Forget the Malleable Range

Nicholson Hardware Co.
All Kinds of Hardware and Sporting Goods

MONEY IN OUR DIRT

LOOK AT THESE

4 acres under fence, new 6-room house, barn and other buildings, quarter mile from P. & E. junction. $2500.

9-room bungalow, bath and out-buildings, plumbing, lot 75 by 100. Good location, close in. $3000.

7 acres, half in fruit. A snap. $800.

30 acres, near town, all in orchard, Newtown apples. House, barn, out-buildings and wagons, implements, horses, tools, every way equipped. A snap.

200 acres, 7 miles from town. Enough timber on place to pay for cultivation. $25 per acre.

Medford Realty Co.

ROOM 10 JACKSON COUNTY BANK BUILDING