

The Medford.
Furniture Co
 Housefurnishers and Undertakers
 Day Phone 63
 Night Phone, C. W. Conkila 495
 Phone, J. H. Butler 148

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(From Sunday's Daily)

John Roth left for the mountains Saturday night to spend Sunday.

Miss Ruby Burke left for Coletine for a few days' vacation.

Miss Florence Clark of Talent was in town yesterday on business.

Ben Plymale left Saturday for a week at Newport.

Mrs. P. C. Elliott left Saturday night for Grants Pass.

Mrs. Ruth W. Mills left for Salem last night.

P. A. Hussey expects to leave tonight for San Francisco.

T. L. Taylor left last night for Seattle.

Joe Hendricks and J. A. Moore of Butte Falls left yesterday for Pockama.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Loudon and family of Brownsboro left for Ashland yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCordie and son Robert left for St. Paul by way of San Francisco yesterday.

R. E. Doane returned yesterday from a short business trip to Grants Pass.

Mrs. Fred Lesmeister left yesterday for Dayton, Ohio, to visit her sister.

Mrs. L. C. Taylor left last night for Independence, Oregon, where she will visit friends.

Mrs. W. R. Stansell went to Central Point last evening to spend today with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boyden returned yesterday to Coletine Springs, where they are camped.

O. E. Blankington of Rockland, Maine, is in Medford looking at orchard land.

Misses Fannie Haskins and Grace Lawton have returned from their visit to Seattle.

W. H. and G. D. Schoonmaker of Riceville, Iowa, arrived yesterday in Medford to purchase land.

Mrs. C. F. Cook left last night to visit her mother and sister, who live in Montana.

A. H. Fish of Denver, Colorado, is in the valley visiting his brother, T. J. Fish, of Phoenix.

Lee Phillips left yesterday to spend a week or more in the Northwest. He will visit the fair at Seattle and also Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Phelster and their daughter, Hazel, left for Redley, California, yesterday, en route for Wisconsin.

Mrs. Arthur Hotchkiss of Fort Morgan, Colorado, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. J. Stull, left for Salem last evening.

Mrs. M. L. Culver and J. C. Brandenburg, her son, left for Lebanon, Oregon, Saturday. Mrs. Culver is a daughter of Mrs. J. R. Tice.

C. H. Barron of Wisconsin, is visiting with D. J. Stull and while here will look over the valley and buy some land.

Reports from Pacific & Eastern extension in two and one-half miles graded, rails laid one and a half miles—and waiting for ties.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crawford of Gold Hill are in Medford visiting their son, Orris Crawford, and family.

Wilbur Jones will soon install an electric pumping plant on his farm on the Central Point road. Flynn Bros. will furnish the material and install it.

R. M. Hutchison of Plerson, Ia., and John Hutchison of Delmont, South Dakota, are in Medford visiting with P. D. Scott and family, and gathering information regarding the products of the valley.

Misses Nell and Laura Reames leave tonight for their home in Berkeley. They have been visiting several weeks with their brother, C. L. Reames.

Mrs. Orin Davis will leave today for Portland, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Hallan, and from there she will visit Seattle and the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Phillips and family left for Sacramento yesterday. Afterward they will visit Mr. Phillips' mother, Mrs. Hattie Phillips, of Gault, California.

Friday H. U. Lumsden, C. I. Hutchison, Treve Lumsden and Vernon Vawter returned from a fishing trip in the Applegate country. They report that fishing was fine, and they brought home a nice lot of them.

E. A. Heffer and Mr. Peachey returned yesterday from Cole's, California, after an absence of two weeks, during which time they visited their mining properties, situated on Sterling mountain, about 35 miles from Cole's station.

Mr. F. E. Berdan, who has been visiting her husband, left yesterday for Ashland.

P. D. Gangengney of Redlands, California, arrived in Medford Sunday morning.

Mrs. Sarah Burdett and her sons, Elias and Charles, left yesterday for Klamath Falls.

Sidney Cole of Portland is in Medford, paying a visit to his mother, Mrs. L. J. Cole.

C. E. Kilse of Belmont, Massachusetts, arrived here Monday to look after his investments.

Mrs. W. Armstrong of Santa Rosa, California, arrived Sunday to see the Rogue River valley.

B. S. Maby and Sam Case of Steger, Illinois, arrived Monday in Medford and are at the Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clark and children left Monday to visit friends in Yreka, California.

Mrs. T. O. Chagnon left last night for Aberdeen, Washington, where she will make her home.

H. H. Leavitt of Minneapolis, Minnesota, arrived Sunday with the view of buying property.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Norton of Portland arrived Sunday and are stopping at Hotel Moore.

Mrs. H. C. Kentner and her daughter, Bessie, returned yesterday from a vacation at Newport.

R. L. Ellis, of the commission firm of Ellis & Sons, of Albany, Or., is in Medford on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Shute of San Diego, Cal., are in Medford looking the city over with a view to locating.

Mrs. Robert Cudeny and her son, Grant, left last evening for a trip to Seattle and British Columbia.

C. M. and G. F. Hill and their nephews, Vernon and Will Vawter, leave today for Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Wiant of Marion, Ohio, arrived yesterday with the purpose of seeing the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reetz of Armon, South Dakota, are staying at the Moore while seeing the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Faucett and children returned Sunday from a month's visit with Portland friends.

Mrs. M. Townsend of Ashland, who has been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. N. W. Kime, left for home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brower of Chasely, North Dakota, are looking over the valley. They arrived Sunday.

Mrs. Nellie Arnold, who recently moved here from St. Paul, Minnesota, left last night to see the A-Y-P fair.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Whitney of Hagerman, New Mexico, arrived here Sunday. They will look over the valley.

C. F. McGeorge of Grand Rapids, Michigan, arrived in Medford Sunday and will be here for a few days longer.

Mrs. D. H. Reid, who has been visiting with Mrs. J. H. Cochran, left Monday evening for her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hooker of Elmira, New York, arrived here late Saturday night and will visit here for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Porter of Champaign, Illinois, arrived Saturday night to see the Rogue River valley orchards.

John W. Hutchison, who is here from Delmont, South Dakota, intends buying property here before he leaves for home.

Dr. J. E. Spatz of Fairfield, Nebraska, is in Medford looking after his land interests, which he acquired several months ago.

C. E. Johnson, who has been sightseeing at the Seattle fair for several weeks, returned yesterday to his home at Eagle Point.

Mrs. Mary E. Hopper, who has been visiting with Mrs. S. L. Leonard, returned to her home in Garden City, Kansas, yesterday.

Fred Whiting and Miss Lulu Whiting of Chicago, Ill., are visiting at the Riverview ranch of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Whiting, near Eagle Point.

Mrs. R. Beawick and her daughter, Sarah, of Ashland, are in Medford to sign the deeds for property which she recently sold, near Brownsboro.

Dr. and Mrs. Fitzsimmons of Ohiwa, Nebraska, are in Medford—"Just looking around." They are acquaintances of J. A. Bethell of this city.

Mrs. L. H. Davis, formerly Miss Florence Tott of this city, but now of Los Angeles, California, is visiting here and will remain for several days.

Blushing Bros. circus will be in Medford on August 28. This circus makes but four cities in Oregon—Medford, Eugene, Salem and Portland.

Miss Blanche Tanner and Miss Anna Black of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Vilas, left for home yesterday.

R. D. Van Dyke of Redlands, California, who has been investigating land values here, left for Shasta Springs. He says that he is well impressed and will return.

William Willis and family of Marjor, Arizona, arrived in the city a couple of days ago. Mr. Willis is looking for a stock or alfalfa ranch to purchase for his sons.

R. P. Newland, who is the tennis champion of singles at Oregon university, arrived in Medford yesterday and will play on several of the courts here today and tomorrow.

Miss Clara Manning left for Seattle Monday night. She will be gone a week or more and on her trip will travel over Washington as well as British Columbia and Vancouver Island.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bell of Weed, California, who have been visiting with J. B. Wright, left for home yesterday. Mr. Bell is manager of the Weed Lumber company store at Weed.

Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Williams of Allerton, Iowa, are in Medford paying a visit to C. H. Pierce and family. Mrs. Williams is a sister of Mr. Pierce. A trip to Crater Lake is planned for them while here.

Charles E. Short of Merlin, Josephine county, was in the city last night. Mr. Short was previously the owner of the entire townsite of Merlina, but this he recently sold to W. B. Sherman of Grants Pass.

Mrs. A. B. Reeves, wife of one of the Southern Pacific conductors, left for Weed, California, yesterday. The lady came here for the expressed purpose of seeing "what Medford looked like," and she liked it.

Yesterday William Winkle of Jersey City, New Jersey, purchased two acres of land on Nob Hill from Mr. Heath, for which he paid $500. Mr. Winkle expects to build on the tract and move here to make his home. This sale was made by J. W. Dressler.

The Medford Cement company has not sold out, as rumored, but has changed management. They will continue to do business as heretofore and will be able to handle work better as soon as their new machinery arrives.

Mrs. W. M. Alward and her daughter, Miss Coda, of Bozeman, Mont., arrived here Saturday to visit her son, Charles Alward, who is connected with the Southern Oregon Produce company. She is staying with her cousin, Mrs. W. S. Jones.

H. Oden of Los Angeles left for home Monday. Mr. Oden has been looking up real estate and farm locations in the Northwest and of all the places in the states of Washington or Oregon, he likes the Rogue River valley best and will purchase land here.

G. W. Reed of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, left yesterday for home, by way of Los Angeles. Mr. Reed visited the Seattle fair and afterward looked over fruit lands in Washington and Northern Oregon, and he said that he was pleased with this valley and thought it was the best of all the sections he had visited.

A. C. Allin and family returned yesterday from an automobile trip to Crater Lake. In going to the lake, he left Medford, with three grown persons and two children in the car, at 7:30 a. m. and arrived at Crater Lake the same day at 5:20 p. m. Upon returning they left the lake at 8:45 a. m. and reached Medford at 7 o'clock the same day.

Right Rev. Archbishop A. Christie, of Portland, Or., the local and two visiting priests started this morning for Crater Lake in two automobiles. The priests who accompanied the bishop were: Father Wilson of Old Point Comfort, Va.; Father J. J. Carr of New York and Father F. Van Clavenback of the Medford diocese. Before leaving they said that they expected to have a very enjoyable trip.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

J. W. Crow of Guelph, Canada, arrived yesterday.

Marvin Kunnady of Portland arrived yesterday.

A. C. Earsosohn of Palestine is a visitor in Medford.

H. T. Findlay of Table Rock was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. L. A. Drake left Tuesday night on a trip to Seattle.

E. W. Harmon of Yreka arrived last night to invest in property.

E. M. Panot of Indianapolis, Indiana, is in Medford on business.

Mrs. George Morse left Tuesday morning for her home in Phoenix.

Peter C. Dempsey of Trenton, Canada, arrived yesterday in Medford.

W. W. Charles of Tonipah, Nevada, is Medford's visitor for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McPherson left Tuesday to spend a week at Coletine.

D. W. Miller of Pobenerville, Pennsylvania, arrived yesterday in Medford.

Lloyd Baker left yesterday for Coletine, where he will camp with H. E. Boyden.

Mrs. C. H. Chamberlain and Miss Lillian Overton left yesterday for the Seattle fair.

H. W. Keating of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, arrived in Medford yesterday on business.

We rent houses. Benson Investment Co. 59-2nd 2tw

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Alford and their son, Herbert, drove up to Ashland Tuesday night.

C. E. Moyes of Fort Morgan, Colorado, arrived yesterday and will look up investments.

D. A. House of Indianapolis, Indiana, arrived in Medford yesterday to look over the valley.

Mrs. D. B. Russell, who has been enjoying a short vacation at Newport, returned yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cahur of El Dorado, Kansas, arrived in Medford last night to see the valley.

E. W. Bromley, who is in business in Chicago, left Tuesday for home by way of the Santa Fe.

Mrs. W. W. Bates returned Monday from a three weeks' visit with friends at Fort Jones, California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fitzsimmons of Ohiwa, Nebraska, left for home last night after a week's visit here.

We write fire insurance. See us before you burn. Benson Investment Co. 59-2nd 2tw

Mrs. H. L. Walter of Portland, who has been visiting Mrs. A. S. Rosenbaum, returned home last night.

F. M. Seamans of Coquille, Oregon, is staying at the Moore for a few days while he looks over the valley.

E. H. Hacher, C. W. Perkins, D. Ely and W. E. Tams of San Francisco, arrived in Medford yesterday on business.

Miss Blanche Shoemaker and Mrs. Mabel Parker of Orange, California arrived yesterday to visit with Mrs. E. Renshaw.

W. A. Chasener of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, arrived yesterday and will see what's doing in Medford and the valley.

Miss Helen Worthington of San Francisco, who has been visiting with Mrs. George Carter, left for home Tuesday.

Ladies high-top summer outing shoes; also men's and boys' summer weight elk sole shoes below price at the Wardrobe. 62-2t

G. C. Swing of Ashland has purchased H. D. True's candy and cigar store, on South Central avenue, and is now in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Burnett, who have been visiting with their son, T. Burnett, left for their home at McMinnville Tuesday night.

Mrs. C. G. Seamen of Woodville and Mrs. Charles Duffield, with her son, Ralph, left yesterday for Frankfort, Kansas, to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cater and their daughter, Gladys, of Houston, Texas, who have been visiting with L. L. Jacobs, left last night for Seattle on their trip home.

Mrs. Ella Perdue of Grants Pass and Miss Olive Turner of Gold Hill, who have been visiting with Mrs. Maude Rippey, returned to their homes yesterday.

George Griffiths, the inventor of the smudge fuel and heat pots, which are guaranteed to ward off frosts, is staying at the Moore. He arrived last night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Stow of Hills, California, who have been visiting here, left for home yesterday. Mr. Stow is one of the managers of the Hills Lumber company.

W. E. Shute left for his home in Los Angeles Tuesday morning. He has been looking over the orchards and was pleased to see how nice and fruitful the trees were.

Mrs. I. L. Hamilton and daughters, Misses Venita and Enid, and son, Master Lorenzo, accompanied by her brother, David Gibson, left for a month's vacation, camping at Coletine.

J. R. Vorhees of Boston, Massachusetts, left yesterday for home. Mr. Vorhees said that he was pleased with the valley and found that the Medford booklet was not exaggerated.

Miss Mildred Clemens, who has been visiting in the north for the past week, arrived yesterday and expects to leave about the last of the week for Pelican Bay and then on to Crater Lake.

R. F. Antle drove his auto down to Central Point Tuesday night to spend the evening with W. C. Moore. Those in the party were: Mrs. J. W. Bremer, Miss Nellie Drenner and Miss Iona Flynn.

C. A. Blake, who is connected with the Coke, Light & Gas company of Chicago, left for home yesterday. Mr. Blake was here visiting with C. B. Woolverton and while here looked over the valley. He was well impressed.

G. H. Scott of Council Bluffs, Iowa, arrived yesterday in Medford. Mr. Scott will look over orchards and city property with the view of investing. He is well pleased with his first glimpse of Medford—and he'll soon love it.

G. H. Scott of Council Bluffs, Ia., is one of the latest arrivals in the city. He just dropped off to take a little nap at the town and valley of which he has heard so much. He had only been here a few hours last night, but he had taken several looks—and they called for more—just getting interested yesterday.

We rent houses. Benson Investment Co. 59-2nd 2tw

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Alford and their son, Herbert, drove up to Ashland Tuesday night.

C. E. Moyes of Fort Morgan, Colorado, arrived yesterday and will look up investments.

D. A. House of Indianapolis, Indiana, arrived in Medford yesterday to look over the valley.

Mrs. D. B. Russell, who has been enjoying a short vacation at Newport, returned yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cahur of El Dorado, Kansas, arrived in Medford last night to see the valley.

E. W. Bromley, who is in business in Chicago, left Tuesday for home by way of the Santa Fe.

Mrs. W. W. Bates returned Monday from a three weeks' visit with friends at Fort Jones, California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fitzsimmons of Ohiwa, Nebraska, left for home last night after a week's visit here.

We write fire insurance. See us before you burn. Benson Investment Co. 59-2nd 2tw

Mrs. H. L. Walter of Portland, who has been visiting Mrs. A. S. Rosenbaum, returned home last night.

F. M. Seamans of Coquille, Oregon, is staying at the Moore for a few days while he looks over the valley.

E. H. Hacher, C. W. Perkins, D. Ely and W. E. Tams of San Francisco, arrived in Medford yesterday on business.

Miss Blanche Shoemaker and Mrs. Mabel Parker of Orange, California arrived yesterday to visit with Mrs. E. Renshaw.

W. A. Chasener of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, arrived yesterday and will see what's doing in Medford and the valley.

Miss Helen Worthington of San Francisco, who has been visiting with Mrs. George Carter, left for home Tuesday.

Ladies high-top summer outing shoes; also men's and boys' summer weight elk sole shoes below price at the Wardrobe. 62-2t

G. C. Swing of Ashland has purchased H. D. True's candy and cigar store, on South Central avenue, and is now in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Burnett, who have been visiting with their son, T. Burnett, left for their home at McMinnville Tuesday night.

Mrs. C. G. Seamen of Woodville and Mrs. Charles Duffield, with her son, Ralph, left yesterday for Frankfort, Kansas, to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cater and their daughter, Gladys, of Houston, Texas, who have been visiting with L. L. Jacobs, left last night for Seattle on their trip home.

Mrs. Ella Perdue of Grants Pass and Miss Olive Turner of Gold Hill, who have been visiting with Mrs. Maude Rippey, returned to their homes yesterday.

George Griffiths, the inventor of the smudge fuel and heat pots, which are guaranteed to ward off frosts, is staying at the Moore. He arrived last night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Stow of Hills, California, who have been visiting here, left for home yesterday. Mr. Stow is one of the managers of the Hills Lumber company.

W. E. Shute left for his home in Los Angeles Tuesday morning. He has been looking over the orchards and was pleased to see how nice and fruitful the trees were.

Mrs. I. L. Hamilton and daughters, Misses Venita and Enid, and son, Master Lorenzo, accompanied by her brother, David Gibson, left for a month's vacation, camping at Coletine.

J. R. Vorhees of Boston, Massachusetts, left yesterday for home. Mr. Vorhees said that he was pleased with the valley and found that the Medford booklet was not exaggerated.

Miss Mildred Clemens, who has been visiting in the north for the past week, arrived yesterday and expects to leave about the last of the week for Pelican Bay and then on to Crater Lake.

R. F. Antle drove his auto down to Central Point Tuesday night to spend the evening with W. C. Moore. Those in the party were: Mrs. J. W. Bremer, Miss Nellie Drenner and Miss Iona Flynn.

C. A. Blake, who is connected with the Coke, Light & Gas company of Chicago, left for home yesterday. Mr. Blake was here visiting with C. B. Woolverton and while here looked over the valley. He was well impressed.

G. H. Scott of Council Bluffs, Iowa, arrived yesterday in Medford. Mr. Scott will look over orchards and city property with the view of investing. He is well pleased with his first glimpse of Medford—and he'll soon love it.

G. H. Scott of Council Bluffs, Ia., is one of the latest arrivals in the city. He just dropped off to take a little nap at the town and valley of which he has heard so much. He had only been here a few hours last night, but he had taken several looks—and they called for more—just getting interested yesterday.

We rent houses. Benson Investment Co. 59-2nd 2tw

Summer Rates East

During the Season 1909

VIA THE

Southern Pacific Co.

FROM

MEDFORD

To OMAHA and Return .....$69.90
 To KANSAS CITY and Return .....$69.90
 To ST. LOUIS and Return .....$77.40
 To CHICAGO and Return .....$82.40

and to other principal cities in the east, middle west and south.
 Correspondingly low fares.

TO Denver and Return .....$64.90

Going transit limit 10 days from date of sale, final return limit October 31st.

These tickets present some very attractive features in the way of stopover privileges, and choice of routes; thereby enabling passengers to make side trips to many interesting points enroute.

Routing on the return trip through California may be had at a slight advance over the rates quoted.

Full particulars, sleeping car reservations and tickets will be furnished by any Southern Pacific local agent, or

WM. McMURRAY, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.

Genuine Twenty Dollar Gold Pieces

for Ten Dollars

Would Not Be a Better Bargain Than I Offer

Fifteen Lots and a 5-room House for $2750—$1550 cash.

These are the only lots for sale at the P. & E. Junction. You cannot buy any other lots there for twice that price.

There is no question but what the P. & E. R. R. will reach the timber before very long. When it does, there will be one, maybe several, large factories built there. This is the only location for a store and boarding houses which will be necessary when the factories are built.

Just think what they will be worth if Hill buys the P. & E., as is reported. This is a chance that comes but once in a lifetime for a man with small capital.

See EASTMAN - at P. & E. Junction

Paints, Brushes, Wallpaper, Glass

VARNISHES, STAINS and WALL TINTS

GET OUR PRICES ON THESE GOODS

M. J. METCALF

318 E. Main St. Medford, Ore.

TINSHOP REMOVED

Tin and Sheet Iron Work on hand or made to order

J. A. SMITH

113 North G Street

CHARLES WARBURTON WANTED.

His Sister Writes From England Trying to Find His Whereabouts.

Chief of Police Shearer yesterday received a letter from a place called Darwen, Lancashire, England, asking if there was any one here who knew a man named Charles Warburton. The letter was from his sister, who stated that they had not seen her brother for 40 years, and the last they had heard of him he was out somewhere in this country.

FIRE AT EVERETT.

EVERETT, Wash., Aug. 2.—Fire this afternoon gutted the Snohomish county courthouse and destroyed four frame buildings. The loss will amount to $100,000.

The Crime of Idleness

Idleness means trouble for any one. It is the same way with a lazy liver. It causes constipation, headache, slow complexion, jaundice, pimples and blotches, loss of appetite, nervousness, Dr. King's New Life Pills soon banish liver troubles and build up your health. 25c at Chas. Strong's.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED TALESMEN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 2.—The first juror for the second trial of Calhoun on charge of bribery was temporarily passed today. Fifteen hundred talesmen were summoned by the court since the trial commenced two weeks ago. Thomas Gainsford, a master plumber, was the first man accepted, subject to a peremptory challenge.

All holders of Oregon Valley Land contracts call on or address W. C. Gardner, 1119 Eleventh street, at once for information that's worth money to you. Don't fail.

31-2t-p