

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(From Thursday's Daily)

W. H. Norton left for San Francisco yesterday.

Mrs. Effie Wise of Phoenix left for home yesterday.

Wallace Wilson, alias "Fat," left for Ashland Wednesday.

Mrs. A. M. Kendall left Wednesday afternoon for Ashland.

G. F. Dyer left for Klamath Falls yesterday in his automobile.

F. W. Wait left yesterday for a few days' business stay at Glendale.

B. H. Warren of Jackson, Alabama, started yesterday for his home.

Sister Angela of Mary and Sister Mary Laureline left last night for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Portjode of Merlin, Oregon, arrived Tuesday night to see the valley.

C. P. Richards of Berkeley, California, arrived here Wednesday night on business.

J. D. Chamboro arrived in Medford Wednesday from his home in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

E. F. Taylor of Eugene is visiting Medford for a few days. He arrived Tuesday evening.

Attorney C. L. Reames returned yesterday from Salem, where he has been on business.

G. A. Benedict of North Yakima arrived in Medford Tuesday to take pointers on orchards.

F. M. Granger of Ontario, California, arrived in Medford for a brief visit Tuesday evening.

Gus Samuels and family returned yesterday from their three weeks' outing at Butte Falls.

The Mail is looked to by Eastern homeseekers for information about the Rogue River valley.

Albert J. Mendell came here yesterday from Coos Bay, Oregon. He will stay a few days.

The Mail offers the best opportunity for landowners to reach prospective Eastern investors.

Mrs. Mamie Hennessy and Miss Nell Hennessy arrived here yesterday from Kansas City, Kansas.

W. O. Cochran of New York City stopped over for a few days' visit. He arrived Wednesday night.

E. H. Hacker and D. Eby of Fresno, California, are in Medford—just prospecting for orchard land.

Thomas Franklin of Vancouver, British Columbia, came in yesterday to spend a week touring the valley.

H. E. Fleming of Mandan, North Dakota, came yesterday to look over the orchards of the Rogue River valley.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Wiant of Marietta, Ohio, returned home Wednesday after a brief but pleasant visit here.

Mrs. Charles Prim of Jacksonville left for Seattle last evening. She was accompanied by Miss Mollie Britt.

Misses Marie and Lettie Stauffe and Miss Clara Allen, three pretty Phoenix girls, were in Medford yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Garnett and family, who have been visiting with H. C. and Ben Garnett, left yesterday for Kansas City.

J. L. McAhron left for Ayers Spur to visit his son-in-law, W. C. Wilson, who was hurt recently. Mr. Wilson is recovering rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Harmon, who recently arrived from Treka, California, left yesterday for a few days' recreation at Coletine.

Mrs. Helen Lewis of St. Paul, Minnesota, left for Oakland yesterday. She has been visiting here with her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Lambert and child, who have been in Central Point on business for the past week or so, returned yesterday.

Judge J. S. Coke of Marshfield, Oregon, who has been visiting and sightseeing in Medford for the past two days, returned home Wednesday.

G. F. McCarthy, who has been visiting here, left for Ashland yesterday and will stay there for a few days and then return to his home in Portland.

Mrs. J. A. Feeren of Ashland and Miss Ruby Hanson of Talent, who have been visiting with Mrs. G. P. Lindley, returned to their home last night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vaughn left for Ashland Wednesday, where Mr. Vaughn will take charge of the Wells-Fargo express office for a few weeks.

J. H. and J. T. Harrison of Kennewick, Washington, arrived Wednesday in Medford and are going to visit all neighboring towns and orchards.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Brown and son, Shealy, of Portland, who have been traveling over the valley and looking at the orchards, left for home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fredenburg, who have been seeing the fair at Seattle, returned Wednesday. They said that they had an enjoyable trip, but were glad to be home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rhinehart and C. W. Richer of Dayton, Ohio, are in Medford. They were out yesterday looking over the valley and at some of the orchards in the foothills.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Frapp and their daughter, Miss Emma, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stokes, started for home yesterday. Mrs. Stokes is their daughter.

Dr. C. C. Reid, J. W. Spellman and Dr. F. M. Ewing arrived Tuesday night from Lincoln, Illinois, to look over the valley. These gentlemen are old-time acquaintances of Mrs. Moulden of this city.

C. W. Perkins, W. E. Toms and W. C. Green will leave this morning for Crater Lake. The two gentlemen first named are interested in the 401 orchard, which was bought by them and their associates last fall for $110,000.

S. M. Lee, who is manager for the Siskiyou Copper & Gold Development company, arrived in Medford Wednesday on a flying business trip. He brought some very fine samples of quartz home and reported that the work was progressing finely.

E. B. Morris, who represents the Winchester Gun company, is in Medford and has been in communication with members of the local gun club in connection with the annual shoot which will take place in this city on September 9, 10 and 11.

Mrs. H. H. Swartwout and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Hall, of Spokane, Washington, arrived in Medford yesterday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Woods. Mrs. Woods is a daughter of Mrs. Swartwout. They are pleased with the valley and will likely live here.

Dr. K. J. Reader of Ashland was in the city yesterday. Dr. Reader is a member of the examining board for pensions, which is composed of three physicians, Drs. E. R. Seely, W. W. P. Holt of Eagle Point and Dr. Reader. This board met yesterday to receive and examine applicants.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Laughlin started for their home in Decatur, Illinois, Wednesday. While in California they will visit in Berkeley and San Francisco. Mr. Laughlin is a real estate man in Decatur and his trip here was in the interest of a few of his patrons. He will report favorably.

Yesterday A. L. Cusick and G. R. Baker purchased ten acres of land from Adam Emig, for which they paid $4000. The land is situated west of the J. M. Root orchard, south and west of Medford. There are seven acres of 3-year-old apple and pear trees on the place and 12 acres of alfalfa.

A. W. Pollard drove his auto into town yesterday from San Raphael, California. He said that the trip was fine and the roads were pretty good. They went on to Grants Pass and then will turn west and south for Crescent City and then on to their home. Those in the party were Mrs. A. W. Pollard and child, Thos. Pollard and A. J. Pollard.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schuler left last night for Seattle.

W. A. Taylor of Grants Pass is paying this city a short visit.

H. L. Montgomery arrived home from his trip to Seattle Thursday.

W. H. Carrol of San Francisco is staying in Medford for a day or so.

Misses Fannie Haskins and Julia Fielder are enjoying an outing at Newport.

Fred Peterson started for Klamath Lake Thursday to be absent several weeks.

R. S. Barker and family returned yesterday from a visit to Portland and Seattle.

Mrs. A. F. Brown of Pasadena, California, arrived here yesterday to see the valley.

H. H. Stevens of South Omaha, Nebraska, arrived here yesterday to spend a few days.

J. T. Curd of St. Joseph, Missouri, arrived in Medford yesterday on a short business trip.

A. E. Selby of Grand Forks, accompanied by A. G. Budge, paid Medford a visit Thursday.

Miss Iva Tucker and her brother, Emmett, of Trall, are visiting with D. T. Lawton and family.

J. C. Cutkin of Woodville, California, arrived last night "to see what Medford looks like."

Make life's walk easy by using Grube's Method for removing corns; 25c at Haskins' drug store. 64-6t

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hall of St. Louis arrived here Wednesday to spend a few days in the valley.

Miss Bessie Hoffman of Jacksonville left for Lamoine, California, where she will visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson and child of Portland stopped over in Medford for a few days yesterday.

H. P. Brunsner, Misses Lillian, Vienta and Rose, and Master Phillip of Portland are visiting in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fitzgerald of Ottawa, Kansas, arrived in Medford yesterday and will visit a few days.

F. K. Alexander of Storm Lake, Iowa, is in Medford visiting his brother, C. R. Alexander, and family.

D. Lacy of Lamoine, California, who has been stopping in Medford for a day or so, left for Seattle yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Couse of Hollywood, California, are paying a visit to Medford and the neighboring country.

Miss Mary Cole of Kinsley, Kansas, who has been visiting with S. F. Potter and family, left for Berkeley Thursday.

Mrs. E. Dyer, accompanied by Mrs. R. S. Black and daughter, went down to Ashland Thursday to spend the day with friends.

E. Hultquist of Minneapolis, Minnesota, arrived yesterday to look over orchards and orchard lands. He represents investors.

Mrs. D. S. Deering and her daughter, Eleanor, who have been visiting with Shirley Baker, left for Oakland, California, Thursday.

J. J. Storie of Red Bluff, California, is making a flying visit through the Rogue River valley. At present he is stopping in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crawford and family, accompanied by Mrs. Crawford's father, C. W. Emerson, left for the Seattle fair Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Paterson of Ashland paid Medford a visit Thursday. Mr. Paterson is superintendent of the Ashland waterworks.

The Benson Investment Co. report the sale of $2000 worth of lots this week in West Medford. Many neat bungalows will be started the coming week.

F. H. Whiting and Miss Luella Whiting left for their home in Chicago yesterday. They have been visiting with their brother, L. E. Whiting, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Knisely of Indianapolis, Indiana, arrived in this city Thursday to visit with L. B. Brown and family. Mrs. Knisely is a sister of Mr. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Broadbent, who have been living here for a few months, left on urgent business yesterday for Pasadena, California. They will return in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Woodruff of Buffalo, New York, arrived in Medford yesterday and will stay here several days to look over the city and valley with the purpose of buying.

Mrs. E. Harris of Roseburg, who has been stopping over in Medford for a day or so, continued on her way to Corning, California, yesterday. She had been visiting friends here.

Mrs. T. W. Netherland left for Winters, California, Thursday morning. She will visit a few weeks with her two sons, L. W. and James Netherland, who are in business in that town.

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church held a social Wednesday night on the main lawn. Games were played and refreshments served. A good time was had by every one.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hafer of Medford, Dr. and Mrs. Dudley, Miss Florence Kentfield of San Francisco and Howard Dudley of this city returned yesterday from their camping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Buchanan and his brother, R. Buchanan, of Des Moines, Iowa, are paying Medford a short visit. They arrived on Thursday night and will see the valley today.

J. L. Sandlin of Lamoine, California, who arrived Wednesday to look over some orchards, left yesterday for Sacramento. He will return soon and expects to invest money in the valley.

Alfred Flynn of this city and J. F. Ryan of the Western Electrical Supply company of Seattle went to Ashland Thursday, where Flynn Bros. expect to open a branch electrical supply house.

A surprise party was given by the M. E. church choir on George Lindley at his home on East Seventh street last night. The event was in honor of his birthday. A nice time was had playing games and music and refreshments ended the evening.

Mrs. Mary A. Isaacs and her daughter, Miss Agnes, left for Portland last night. They will stay there for four days and then go to Vancouver, B. C., and will see the Seattle fair on their way back.

Mrs. H. J. Sehnman and her daughter, Miss Lena, left for their home in Visalia, California, Thursday. They have been visiting with E. T. Huth and will take Mr. Huth's son, Master Norman, home with them.

Charles Isaac, L. E. Wakeman, Will Muller, L. A. Gregory and Owen Dunlap will leave next Wednesday in their automobiles for Klamath and Lake counties, where they will spend three weeks in fishing and hunting.

W. P. Halley, who is in the paper mill business at Oregon City, arrived in Medford last evening with his family on the third day out from Oakland. Mr. Halley drives a Cadillac 30. He reports good roads through California.

Mrs. Addie F. Haswell, mother of Henry Haswell, was called to the bedside of her niece, Miss Millie Winton of Fowler, California, who is very low. She received the news late in the afternoon and took the afternoon train, which was fortunately very late.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

J. W. Slinger of Lake Creek was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. R. Bell of Redding stopped through the Northwest.

J. W. Ware of Seattle is here on business for a day or so.

J. W. Baker of Eugene arrived yesterday to spend a few days.

Mrs. G. E. Pusey of Oregon City arrived yesterday on business.

O. M. Olds of Eagle Point is stopping in Medford for a few days.

Mrs. Fannie Davis and Mrs. Charlie Rose went up to Ashland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Platt are enjoying an outing at Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Helms left for Portland Friday to visit friends.

D. A. Benedict of Portland arrived yesterday to look after investments.

Miss Louise Boone went up to Ashland yesterday for a visit with friends.

Miss Josie Talent left Friday for Salem, where she will visit friends.

Harry Shippy of Chicago arrived yesterday for a few days' sightseeing trip.

J. H. Baum of Portland arrived yesterday to spend the day on business.

S. S. Pentz, the bustling attorney of Butte Falls is in town on business.

T. W. Osgood went up to Ashland Friday, where he has charge of the paving.

Mrs. J. Sheriffs and her two sons, Elsie and George, left for Portland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Talent and baby left for a few weeks' vacation at Coletine.

C. D. Atkinson of Fulton, Missouri, arrived yesterday and is registered at the Moore.

D. F. Carnes of New York City dropped off yesterday to pay Medford a visit.

Mrs. F. A. Glidden is in Ashland visiting with friends. She left Friday morning.

Miss Grace Mitchell, who has been visiting in Ashland with friends, returned Friday.

E. W. Herlen came up from Ashland yesterday to spend a few days here on business.

Mrs. F. V. Flecker of Roseburg arrived yesterday to visit with her sister, Mrs. O. V. Myers.

R. S. Benham of Chicago arrived yesterday to look over Medford, the "Chicago of the West."

Mrs. M. E. Richardson went over to Talent to visit with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Gardner, yesterday.

Welborn Beeson left last night to join his family at Newport, where his youngest child is quite ill.

Professor Romanoff will have charge of the music at the dinner every evening at the Nash Grill. 64-6t

John Bloom and Peter Bjorklund of Holdrege, Nebraska, came yesterday and may probably reside here.

Laurance H. Sunon of San Francisco arrived Thursday to see the valley while the orchards are in bearing.

Mrs. W. G. Aldenhagen enjoyed a visit yesterday with Mrs. Will Hall, out at Davis, on the Pacific & Eastern.

J. T. Johnson of Los Angeles, California arrived in Medford yesterday and will look over the valley today.

W. W. Parker was in from Butte Falls yesterday as a witness for E. E. Smith in his homestead proof case.

A. Morrison and A. J. Morrison of Cincinnati, Ohio, arrived yesterday to look over the surrounding country.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. H. A. King of Bangor, Maine, arrived yesterday to look over some of the orchards today.

Mrs. J. L. Scott and her grandson, Floyd, left for Grants Pass Friday to visit with Mrs. Scott's son, G. W. Scott.

Mrs. Elizabeth Carroll of San Francisco arrived in Medford Friday to see the valley and visit with friends.

W. W. Ewing of Los Angeles arrived here yesterday to spend a day or so looking at some of the big orchards.

H. B. Squires of San Francisco came on the late train Thursday evening to spend a few days here on business.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Lambert have returned from Central Point, where they have been living for a couple of months.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boyden came back from Portland Thursday and left yesterday for their camp at Coletine.

M. M. Scott, who has been visiting with his mother, Mrs. J. L. Scott, left for his home in Woodville, California Friday.

Mrs. M. C. Harris of San Jose, California, stopped over yesterday on his trip to the fair to see Medford and the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hanley and their son, W. P. Hanley, Jr., of Portland arrived yesterday and will stay a week or two.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jenkins of Bangor, Maine, are visiting Medford. They arrived yesterday and will visit the valley today.

"Miss Minnie Corey, one of Medford's charming young ladies, is visiting Miss Mae Roberts of this city."—Albany Democrat.

Mrs. F. B. Duncan and Miss Mabel Duncan arrived yesterday to visit Mrs. Leon Haskins. Mrs. Haskins is Mrs. Duncan's niece.

Eddie Wilkenson left for Sallinas, California, where he will spend the last few days of his vacation before returning to St. Mary's College.

F. L. Steel of the Postal View company left yesterday for Roseville, California, where they are to take a series of pictures for the town.

The Medford firemen will give another one of their popular dances on the platform opposite the fire hall tonight. There will be good music.

C. D. Jordan arrived Friday from his home in St. Louis. He expects to see several of the large orchards and look over Medford before he leaves.

J. W. Greenall of Portland, who is representing the Columbia National Life Insurance company of Boston, Massachusetts, is staying at the Moore.

A. M. Enney of Bartlett, North Dakota, arrived in the city yesterday and will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Enney, and his brother-in-law, H. S. Brumble.

E. E. Smith of Butte Falls was in the city yesterday making homestead proof. The Mail will wager dollars against doughnuts that no protest will be put in on that proof.

Word has been received in Medford of the death of Henry Fagell, who died at The Dalles, August 4. The funeral will be held at that place. Mr. Fagell was an old soldier.

Mrs. T. J. Losey left yesterday for Ashland, where she was called by sickness to the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Scott, whose little daughter is ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Olive Johnson, daughter of C. C. Johnson, left for Portland yesterday, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Mildred Hansen. Miss Olive expects to be gone for several weeks.

A. Romassen of Maryville, Missouri, arrived here to look over the valley. He was persuaded to come by friends and by the Medford Booklet. He is pleased with his first view of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sharpe left for Ashland yesterday to hold a camp meeting of the Free Methodist church. They just returned from a successful series of meetings in the Willamette valley.

C. W. Martyn, the assistant superintendent of the Southern Pacific railway, went through Medford yesterday afternoon on his way south. He had a few minutes' talk with Agent Rosenbaum.

Ben W. Whitney arrived in Medford from his home in Paddock, South Dakota. He will be here a few days and will look up investments. He is an old-time friend of H. S. Brumble of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Buchanan and son, Robert, of Des Moines, Iowa, are in Medford for a visit with friends and to see the valley. Mr. Buchanan is editor of the Daily Capital of Des Moines. These people are old-time acquaintances of Mrs. W. S. Jones.

A. E. Selby and A. G. Budge of Grand Forks, North Dakota, are visiting Medford and the surrounding country for a few days. Mr. Budge is a son of William Budge, one of Medford's nearby orchardmen.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Talent and Mr. and Mrs. John Beeson and daughter left yesterday for Salt Lake City, where the G. A. R. encampment will be held. They will be gone several weeks and on their way home will visit the Seattle fair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collins are recent arrivals in Medford from Whitehall, Illinois. Mr. Collins is a brother of ex-Recorder Collins of this city. Yesterday several of the Collins contingency visited another brother, S. S. Collins, in Sam's Valley.

W. V. Moore, who has served Hotel Moore so ably as clerk for several months, has purchased a one-third interest in the C. H. Pierce & Co. real estate firm. Mr. Moore is one of the finest, best-natured and genial gentlemen in this city and the Morning Mail wishes him success.

F. W. Walters is erecting a dancing pavilion on the corner of Seventh and Oakdale. Prof. Romanoff and his orchestra will furnish the music. The place will be fixed up in mission furniture with a parlor for the ladies. A good time and good service guaranteed.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon a small grass blaze was started in front of the residence of W. W. Eifert from a carelessly thrown cigar. The sidewalk caught fire and but for the prompt assistance of a young man until the arrival of the fire department there would have been a serious blaze. After the fire was over, the sidewalk was badly splintered by the force of the water, but as this side of the street was ordered paved it will not be much damaged.

(From Sunday's Daily)

J. W. Lozier left for Gold Hill on Saturday.

Mrs. Palmer of Ashland is visiting Medford friends.

C. E. Collins of Portland is a guest in the city.

E. H. Davis of Table Rock was in the city yesterday.

Frank Smith of Seattle is here on a short business trip.

G. A. Peterson of Wonder, Nevada, is visiting Medford.

L. L. Jacobs returned from his trip to the fair Saturday.

Miss Ruth Shoudy returned to her home in Ashland Saturday.

A. W. Pierson of Sacramento, California, arrived yesterday.

S. J. Monroe of Oakland stopped over on business Saturday.

Miss L. E. Poth of Tekoa arrived yesterday to see the country.

W. C. Walling of Minneapolis, Minnesota, arrived yesterday.

B. F. Forbes of Butte, Montana, arrived yesterday on business.

Miss Clara Allen of Phoenix spent Saturday in Medford shopping.

Virgel Menefee of Seattle arrived last night to visit with friends.

Mrs. C. H. Pierce of Ashland visited Medford friends yesterday.

E. F. Saylor of Eugene came down to Medford yesterday on business.

W. B. Hughes of Seattle arrived in Medford yesterday on business.

Mrs. John Harrington left Saturday for a trip and vacation at Coletine.

J. C. Brewer of Greeley, Colorado, arrived in Medford on business Friday night.

A. V. Dunn of Grants Pass came down last night to look at some investments.