School Children's Grand Prize Contest

Any enrolled student attending the primary, grammar or high schools of Medford, Ashland, Jacksonville, Talent, Gold Hill, Central Point and Grants Pass may enter this contest and compete for the most valuable prizes ever offered by an Oregon newspaper.

Every contestant is guaranteed a prize, and those bringing or sending in votes will get the premium that corresponds with the number of votes. The opportunity now presents itself for every student who is willing to work a few hours after school to earn one or more of the beautiful prizes. There is everything you would wish for—bicycles, gold watches Winchester repeating rifles and shotguns, phonographs, sewing machines, cameras, suits of clothes and many other attractive and value articles.

Absolutely every contestant in this great contest will win a prize. Every contestant will be liberally rewarded, whether he or she wins one of the big prizes or not, and The Tribune guarantees it. That's pretty fine, isn't it? And there is still one thing more: In addition we will pay cash besides.

The Tribune occupies the band wagon of the southern Oregon newspaper procession, it commences where others leave off. Up-to-date modernism, non-partisan, all the news all the time, we make it what we aim it at—the favorite of every household in southern Oregon.

Our object in offering these magnificent prizes is to place The Tribune in every home in southern Oregon, where it will be a welcome factor in the everyday life of the family. Within a short time it will be an eight-page paper, devoted to the interests of the Rogue River valley, and will give the local, foreign and domestic news 14 hours ahead of the Portland dailies.

You are invited to enter this contest, and so is every other school boy or girl, and you will be surprised to see how easy it is to earn a prize.

Cut on this coupon, sign your name and mail it to Contest Manager, The Tribune, Medford, Or. Bank checks taken in payment for subscriptions.
