NO MAYORALTY ELECTION THIS COMING JANUARY

A general misunderstanding exists regarding the coming city election to be held next month. Mayor Reddy holds over another year, but three councilmen are to be elected, Messrs. Owen, Bruggie, Eiler and Barkdull retiring. It is probable that all will be candidates for reelection. Attorney W. E. Phillips is a candidate for the mayoralty. But the charter provides that "the mayor shall be elected and hold office for a term of two years," so unless Mayor Reddy resigns, he can't run. A city treasurer is also to be elected. The incumbent will be a candidate for reelection.

Piety of Cash in Oregon.

PORTLAND, Dec. 9.—The statement of the national banks of Portland on December 3 proved that they had ample cash—more than the most enthusiastic skeptic had anticipated. The same is true of the banks throughout the state.

Exchange Bank Checks for Home of Your Own

There is nothing like owning your own home in these times. Then, come what may, you are fixed. No danger that imaginary financial stringencies can lose you your shelter for they can't. You are fixed. And then, how much nicer it is for your wife and family! Just think how many worry lines on your wife's dear face you save by owning the roof over her head. It means a lot to both of you, but more to her. Both of you face the world so much more confidently than as if you did not know what was coming or what would happen, with that nameless dread hanging over you constantly. Do not postpone it longer. Now is the time to build. Get a lot—they are cheap. Buy it on the installment plan, if you don't want to pay for it all at once, and then get your lumber from us and build. It will cost you no more than rent; and you will have something to show for it at the end of a year. We will take checks on any bank in Medford in exchange for our lumber, and we sell the best that is made—rough and finished, hard or soft, native or Booth-Kelly—whatever you want. Opportunity knocks but once—"If sleeping, wake—If feasting, turn away—It is the hour of fate." Opportunity is knocking at your door—Awake and build before it is too late.
