HOW REMME GOT COIN FROM OREGON'S FIRST BANK

letter from Thomas B. Merry of Los Angeles to the Journal tells of the first bank in Oregon as follows: "You are palpably in error when you state that W. J. Ladd started the first bank in Porthand. Tt is a matter of history that when the San Francisco bank failure of February 19 and 26, 1855, came, a cattleman named Louis Remme, living near Jacksonville, had $15,000 on deposit in Adams & com-pany's bank at Portland. He went to Sacramento by boat and rode all the way from that place to Portland, get-ting his money out of the bank before

HOP MEN TO ORGANIZE ASSOCIATION IN VALLEY

The future of the hop industry in being seriously discussed by the hopmohair growers is meeting strong en couragement in Rogue River valley and a meeting is to be held in Grants Page on Saturday, December 28, to consid-er the advisability of forming a hop-growers' association for this valley. From the interest taken there is certain to be a good attendance of the growers. The plan of the providers is growers. The plan of the promotors is that the association shall sell the hops direct to the brewers and thereby elim-inate the profits the middlemen take,
