Seventeen Beautiful Prizes to Seventeen Popular Young Ladies--It Is Up to You to Be Among the Lucky Ones.

In last evening's issue of the Tribune appeared the first list of names of those ladies who have been nominated as aspirants for the $2500 in prizes which will be awarded to the seventeen ladies in Jackson, Lake, Josephine, Klamath and Siskiyou counties, securing the largest number of votes, by the Medford Tribune.

Thousands of votes can be gained by having all your friends save these votes and in a very short time a few thousand can be collected from them. Clip the coupons from the paper and do not roll or fold them, but either mail or send them to the office in flat packages.

Votes to Appear Wednesday.

The number of votes credited to the different candidates will appear in Wednesday's issue of the paper, and the list will be changed daily thereafter.

The votes will be counted every day at 3:30 p. m. daily, totals to appear in the next day's issue of the paper. Commencing Thursday a ballot box will be found in the office of the Tribune into which the votes will be put by the contestants or their friends. This box will be locked, and opened only at the hour above mentioned. The votes will be counted, and any coming in after that hour will be counted the next day.

Go in to Win.

When you start in to secure votes make up your mind that at the end of the contest you are going to be among the prize-winners, if possible, the winner of the beautiful Red Roadster Automobile. Inform your friends how anxious you are to win this car and you will be surprised how readily they will come to your assistance. You will have thousands of votes before you know it, and then the rest is easy, simply make up your mind to win and go after the votes with that end in view.

Grand Capital Prize.

It has been decided by the management of the Tribune to give as a Grand Capital Prize a 1908 Red Roadster Automobile.

This beautiful car is especially adapted to conditions in this section of the state, and possesses speed, style, strength, endurance and economy to a degree that makes it one of the foremost automobiles. The Red Roadster is one of the 1908 models, a two-cylinder, 22-horsepower, four-passenger car, and is recognized as one of the leading machines on the American market today.

The lady winning this beautiful automobile will indeed be fortunate.

The second grand prize is a building lot in the beautiful Queen Anne Addition to the city of Medford, and is valued at $300. The Queen Anne Addition is but five minutes' walk from the center of the city and is being taken up as an exclusive home site. The soil is a rich loam, and the structure is one of the surrounding open lots.

Scholarships Prizes.

A prominent opportunity to obtain a college and university education is afforded by the award of these winning prizes of the annual contest. In a general sense, however, these prizes would be the same as the prizes awarded to the winners of the contest.

particularly desirous of getting, opening as it does for them the means of securing an education to take their places in the army of business women who now have remunerative positions in the largest mercantile establishments of the United States.

The Watches.

The watches to be given away in this contest are little beauties in every respect; all are equipped with the standard Waltham movement, full jeweled and stem set.

Piano Certificates.

The next prizes, which consist of the piano certificates, carry a value of $100 each. The ladies winning these prizes, should she or her family contemplate the purchase of a piano, will be entitled to a reduction of $100 on any instrument they may select at the House of Hale, Medford.

Commence Now.

Commence now to accumulate the necessary votes to win one of these valuable prizes and keep continually at it until the curtain rings down on the largest contest ever inaugurated by a newspaper in Southern Oregon. There are to be seventeen ladies winners of these prizes. Ask yourself, Will you be among the fortunate ones?

WHO WILL BID FOR HAND OF EAGLE POINT ORCHARDIST?

The Portland Speculator, that entertaining weekly, has the following description of a well-known Eagle Point orchardist in its list of eligible bachelors for lady-love proposals:

"H. B. TROSSON: too good to be allowed at large; fine qualities of head and heart; but wary, not to say devilish; a grand traveler; knows people in every town in the country, but especially those in and from Kansas City; has the all but habit; charming young woman who would like to know all about you and at the same time as quite a valuable amount should come out of your pocket; very beautiful; giving a general idea of her and her own appearance of good looks."
