MEDFORD TRIBUNE AND SOUTHERN OREGONIAN GRAND PRIZE CONTEST

ONE VOTE.

Good for TWENTY-FIVE VOTES when used as a nomination blank.

FOR DISTRICT NO.

This Coupon, cut out and mailed to the Contest Department, or deposited in the ballot box at the Tribune Office, will count as one vote for the lady whose name is filled in.

COUPONS SHOULD BE SENT FLAT, NOT ROLLED OR FOLDED

Today is published a full list of the contestants for the rich and valuable prizes that the Medford Tribune is giving away to popular ladies...

Every day at 3:30 o'clock the voting closes and the votes are taken from the ballot box at the Tribune office and counted.

The city of Medford and the surrounding country will soon be scoured all day long by the contestants and their friends, getting votes and subscriptions from every source.

Nothing but first honors will suffice for those already entered in the battle of ballots, and they are not to be satisfied until they are declared the victors.

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, so while the opportunity is yours, grasp it and make the best possible result.

Do not stop because someone refuses to take the paper and give you the votes, but instead keep right among them, and when a person says he don't want the Tribune, just stay long enough to show him why he should have it.

The time is brief and it behooves each and every contestant to do her best in the matter of securing coupons and votes right at the start.

The Reo automobile, the Grand Capital Prize in the Tribune's voting contest, has proven to be a very successful car, old enough to be free from experiment and good enough to be unqualifiedly guaranteed for one year by its makers.

The beautiful building lot which constitutes the Second Grand Capital Prize, will make a beautiful home site for the fortunate winner.

To the lady in each district having the highest number of votes after the grand prizes have been awarded will be given the business education. These scholarships will be of inestimable value in after life.

The watches which are awarded to the ladies in each district after the scholarships are decided, are certainly little beauties in every respect.

Following the awarding of the watches will be given the piano certificates, each certificate carrying a value of $100 on any piano carried at the Hale Piano House.

Seventeen Valuable Prizes. Seventeen valuable prizes to be given absolutely free to 17 popular ladies, the prizes to be awarded by popular vote.
