COMMUNICATIONS

To the Editor: I wish to congratulate you upon an item I have just read in your paper which just fills my sentiments. It is headed, "A Business Proposition." It is only just that the taxpayers know what is being done with their money.

We are being imposed upon, and have not the satisfaction of knowing what for.

I hope you will advance that idea to a finish. I have never seen anything in regard to the matter advanced before.

And I am glad we have the right man in the right place.

Stand by the taxpayer, for it is them that bear the burden. Now, Mr. Editor, I am a stranger to you, but I am coming down to Medford soon and we will have a good old pump-handle shake and smoke a Havana cigar. I am always glad to get the paper. I like to hear from neighbors and friends through its columns, also to read the items of interest in the general public.

I am a Stroughton resident, but not necessarily a lawyer.

Yours truly,

W. E. Phipps

A Sad Mistake.

Editor Tribune: I have traveled over most of the middle western states, the Pacific coast, British Columbia, and some of the Isles of the sea, looking for a location. Of all the sections I have visited the Rogue River valley seemed to distance them all as an ideal place for a future home.

Nature has endowed this valley with a combination of more diversified facilities for the enjoyment of mankind than any place I have visited. Notwithstanding I have made a sad mistake, since I have been informed how the county officials, courts and juries enforce the law, or rather lack of enforcement of justice.

It makes me think of the way they used to do in Texas—penitentiary for stealing a steer; freedom for murder.

However, I can't believe many of the people will sanction the court's ruling in your trial. I have noticed the people of this valley are the most bearing and patient I have ever come in contact with. This they have verified divers times on unjust assessment of property. Such proceedings will draw the undesirable element and drive out those that favor justice.

RAISING SUGAR BEETS AROUND KLAMATH FALLS

Remarkable results in the analysis of sugar beets grown on the Enterprise tracts, adjoining Klamath Falls, have aroused great interest in this basin for beet-raising and will result in a score of test crops of beets this year.

The beets grown consisted of a quarter acre, the yield from which was four tons, 585 pounds, or a little more than 17 tons per acre. The plant industry of the department of agriculture, the report of which was as follows: Average weight of beets, 2 pounds; sugar in the juice, per cent, 21.90; efficiency of purity, per cent, 92.50.

It will be noted that the "sugar in the juice" is given, whereas sugar factories report the "sugar in the beet." This would make the percentage about 1 per cent lower than stated above, but the result is much higher than usually attained in the best sugar beet growing districts.

Among the new arrivals in Medford are: C. P. Devereaux, from Eugene, Or.; W. M. Jones, Spokane, Wash.; D. A. Steels, Miles City, Mont.; O. C. Cox, Onubague, Ia.

SEVERAL BUSINESS CHANGES HAVE TAKEN PLACE

George H. Church, who has been connected with the Medford Steam Bakery during the past several years, has disposed of his interests to his partners, Van Hardenberg Bros., who will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Church will probably go north in a short time, although he has no definite plans for the future.

G. W. Nichols has sold the Economy meat market on C street to Delbert Terrill, who will spare no pains to furnish the public with the best of meats. Mr. Nichols will continue his residence in Medford, we are pleased to learn.

George T. Faucett, who has been looking after the interests of Wells, Fargo & Co. in Medford, so well and long, is now occupying his new quarters, located opposite the old.

Joe Taylor of North Bear creek transacted business in Medford Friday afternoon.

JACKSONVILLE ITEMS.

Attorney Gus Newbury, who has been laid up with a gripe, is able to be about again.

Sheriff D. H. Jackson has gone to Sacramento on official business.

It was a great shock to the community to hear of the death of Mrs. J. R. Neil, which occurred early Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Neil had only been confined to her bed for a few days, though she had been in ill-health for some time. She was the wife of George Henry and Ira Turgate spent a few hours in Medford Friday.

Miss Maude Byrne has returned from a week's visit with Miss Mamie Reddy of Medford.

Mrs. E. Dunnington and Miss Nellie Wulf were among those who went to Medford Friday.

Mrs. John Marsh spent the day in Medford Wednesday, the guest of Mrs. Charles Nickell.

ROSEBURG HIGH BEATS ASHLAND A. C. 30 TO 15

Roseburg High school defeated Ashland Athletic club at basketball at Roseburg, January 14, by the score of 30 to 15. The first half was closely contested, Roseburg getting 16 points and the visitors 14. In the second half, however, the locals played all around Ashland, rolling up 14 points, while a single tally was the best Ashland could do. The lineup:

Roseburg—Thornton and Fisher, forwards; French, center; Risley and Goodman, guards.

Ashland—Herndon and Boudburg, forwards; Croker, center; Martin and Robertson, guards.

The same clubs played again Wednesday night.

MRS. J. R. NEIL SUDDENLY CROSSES GREAT DIVIDE

Mrs. J. R. Neil of Jacksonville died at her home Thursday evening. She was the wife of Judge Neil, a prominent attorney of Jacksonville, and one of the pioneers of the Rogue River valley. She had not been in the best of health for some time, but her condition was not considered serious. Her demise came as a severe shock to her family and her large circle of friends.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Toft in North Medford, who has been seriously sick for several days, is at the present improving.
