LET US POPULATE OREGON.

Every property holder and every citizen of the state of Oregon is indebted to the newspapers, the commercial bodies, the schools and the business men for conducting an advertising campaign through 1907 which brought 27,215 people to this state as a result of the colonist rates in March and April, September and October.

No greater return has ever been achieved as a result of community or organized and co-operative advertising. This record of 227 people for every day for 120 days is almost without a parallel in the history of immigration effort anywhere in this country.

The colonist rates go into effect again on March 1, and continue until April 30, and if the same energetic campaign can be carried on in 1908, even this large influx of new people can be increased, and it is certainly worth while.

The colonist rates were the central figure around which the 76 bodies composing the Oregon Development League carried on their campaign, and the chief credit for this result is given to the newspapers, to whom it belongs.

The direct benefit of the colonist rate is that it brings people to every section and builds up the country around all the towns rather than increasing the population of the larger cities. And it has been conclusively proven that immigration comes to communities in direct proportion to the effort expended by them.

During the winter months, January and February particularly, the farmer in the great middle west (from whence comes our greatest immigration) does his greatest reading, and we want to be sure that he reads the story of Oregon. During the past year more than 5,000,000 copies of printed matter were circulated from this state, and in all of these the special rate has been prominent.

It has been the constant effort of the Portland Commercial club in its correspondence throughout the state to impress upon all the people of Oregon that this low fare applies to all points the same as to Portland, and in all advertising this fact has been emphasized.

Immediate organization should be commenced everywhere by the commercial bodies and through the schools. Oregon needs no one thing more than additional population.

Present rates are $20 from Kansas City, St. Paul and all the middle west; $25 from St. Louis and important points in the Mississippi valley; $38 from Chicago; $55 from New York and a proportionate rate from every portion of the United States. The rate is $2.50 less to Danville and all points east.

The rulings of Judge Hanna in the Putnam libel case have brought a great deal of adverse criticism upon the shoulders of the court, especially from the newspapers from all parts of the state. No matter with what offense a man may be charged, or against whom he may have erred, he still retains his rights to "a fair and impartial trial."

Wouldn't Hanna better resign? He seems not to adorn the bench.—Portland Journal.

SEASON'S GREAT ATTRACTION AT MEDFORD OPERA HOUSE

Charles B. Hanford, the great Shakespearean actor, will appear in Medford during the season, perhaps in the course of the next two months.

Among the members of Mr. Hanford's company who are receiving highly favorable attention at the hands of the critics are Alexander Mackenzie, who plays Cassius in Caesar, and John M. Kline, who has the role of Enearchus. Both these parts are important ones in the development of the story of Antony and Cleopatra, and the fact that Mr. Hanford entrusted them to these players with such glowing results is a vindication of his policy of permanence, as nearly as it is possible in a theatrical organization. Mr. Kline and Mr. Mackenzie are among the players to whom for many seasons he has given about personal interest, remembering perhaps the time when advice and suggestion from an authoritative source were so prized by himself. They were originally suggested because of an impression that they would fit themselves to broad and responsible work, and the results have vindicated Mr. Hanford's judgment.

CORVALLIS & EASTERN ROAD WILL GO UNDER HAMMER

ALBANY, Ore., Jan. 20.—The road property of the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad company, situated in Lincoln county, is to be sold for delinquent taxes. A majority of the stock is now owned by the Harriman interests. Sheriff Smith has begun the advertisement of the property for public sale February 17. The property advertised includes the roadbed and right of way of the company in this county, the roadhouse and machine shops at this city and some tracts of real estate adjoining Albany.

The sale will be made on account of the delinquent 1906 tax. This tax originally amounted to $2678.83, but 20 per cent penalty has already accrued and the amount due is now $3308.54.

For several weeks Sheriff Smith has been making an effort to secure the payment of this tax, but in spite of many promises the money has not been forthcoming. It is rumored that the railroad company will make an effort to enjoin the sheriff from making the advertised sale.
