MEDFORD TRIBUNE AND SOUTHERN OREGONIAN GRAND PRIZE CONTEST

*****
+ ONE VOTE. +
*****

Good for TWENTY-FIVE VOTES when used as a nomination blank.

FOR.....

DISTRICT NO.....

This Coupon, cut out and mailed to the Contest Department, or deposited in the ballot box at the Tribune Office, will count as one vote for the lady whose name is filled in.

COUPONS SHOULD BE SENT FLAT, NOT ROLLED OR FOLDED

And still the main topic of conversation among the contestants and their friends is the Medford Tribune's mammoth prize contest. The office is besieged daily by calls from friends of the different contestants desirous of knowing how the one in whom they take an interest is progressing and are anxious to find out what progress their friends have made.

The first announcement of the names of the ladies entered in the race for the valuable prizes to be given away by the Tribune was made ten days ago, and as each day passes by there is a noticeable increase in the standings of the contestants and in the interest being taken in the contest by the paper's readers.

The contest promises to develop into a very pretty race among the fair contestants entered for these prizes. Up to date the chances are about even, as no one has secured more than enough votes to hold the lead longer than a day or two. Each day shows that they (the contestants) realize the importance of starting in early. Not for one moment should time be lost, and the old adage, "The early bird, etc.," will be fully exemplified before the end of the contest.

The lady acclaimed the winner of the 1908 Auto will indeed be fortunate. This is an 1908 model, two-cylinder, 20-horsepower car, capable of carrying the winner and several of her friends.

equipped with all the latest eastern improvements.

The beautiful home site to be awarded in the Queen Anne Addition to the city of Medford will prove a valuable piece of realty to some lucky lady. This property is constantly increasing in value, and is generally looked upon as the choice residence locality of Medford.

The scholarships to be awarded are considered by some to be the most valuable of the many prizes to be given away by the Tribune. The lady who is fortunate in securing one of these business educations is to be congratulated. All realize the importance of a full and complete business education to a young lady. After the completion of one of these courses she will be fully equipped to enter the business offices of lawyers, corporations, railway companies or, in fact, any place where the services of a smart, progressive, up-to-date business woman are in demand.

The lady who has her mind set on a watch must not let this opportunity go by. This is just the chance she has been looking for—a beautiful little timepiece to each one of five energetic ladies, each watch fitted with the well-known Waltham movement and stem wind and set.

And last, but not least, the piano certificate on the House of Hale, Medford. Each certificate is worth $100 on any piano you may select from this firm.

Make Up Your Mind.

Make up your mind to win, and then go after your friends and enlist their support in your favor; show them that you are in the contest to win and are going to strain every nerve to attain that end, and to do so you must have their assistance. Demonstrate how anxious you are to be declared one of the lucky ladies, and then their support will be forthcoming and they will not only give you their subscription, but will get their friends to do the same.

Get your friends, and your friends' friends, interested in your behalf and the first thing you know you will have thousands of votes to your credit. When once the votes start to come in they roll up with remarkable rapidity.

Start in and get the votes rolling in your direction. You will have all kinds of votes coming your way before you are aware of it, and when your friends and acquaintances see that you are doing so well they will be only too willing to come to your assistance, as the majority of people believe in helping a good cause along. They will help you if you will only help yourself.
