

ALL ABOARD FOR THE FIVE THOUSAND EXTRA VOTES

Have You Secured Your Special Ballot Yet? Today Is the Day.

CUT THIS OUT.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE AND SOUTHERN OREGONIAN GRAND PRIZE CONTEST

ONE VOTE.

Good for TWENTY-FIVE VOTES when used as a nomination blank.

FOR.....
DISTRICT NO.

This Coupon, cut out and mailed to the Contest Department, or deposited in the ballot box at the Tribune Office, will count as one vote for the lady whose name is filled in.

COUPONS SHOULD BE SENT FLAT, NOT ROLLED OR FOLDED

The question is asked daily regarding the 5000 extra vote offer, relative to the number of special ballots a contestant is allowed to secure. For the information of every one interested in the contest, and more especially for the contestants themselves, it is stated that for every blue lot six six months' subscriptions turned into the Tribune office or sent by mail, there will be issued a special 5000-vote ballot, aside from the votes issued on the subscriptions, according to the regular schedule.

Today Is the Day.

There is no opportunity like the present. An opportunity passed by the next few days to secure that 5000 extra ballot will never be presented again, and while there is still plenty of time, make the most of the proposition and secure those extra ballots of 5000 votes each. Make up your mind now.

It Is Easy.

Just recreation—that's all—that gets votes and subscriptions. If you are paying a call on a friend get their subscription and get it for as long as you can. It is not much, and your friend will be glad that you asked them for it, for perhaps they did not know that you are in the contest and will be only too glad to assist you.

Just Like Finding Votes.

This chance to secure 5000 extra votes is just like finding them, because you are given those extra votes in addition to the regular number the subscription calls for.

Five thousand votes is a great big bunch to have on the last day of the contest, because by just an even 5000 votes the tide may be turned in your favor and the automobile won.

Don't Put It Off Until Tomorrow.

This is an old adage, and it is particularly so in this case. Your friend may have promised you a subscription; do not let him forget that promise; keep continually after him until you have his votes, and remember, if there is any friend whom you think would be willing to assist you, and whom you have not seen, go after him at once and secure his subscription.

You probably realize that there are other contestants in the race for these prizes, and there is always a chance of them beating you to it. It is the lady who gets there first who gets the votes.

Several

Of the candidates are already in a position to claim the extra ballot, and some of them have started in to secure the second ballot, and if possible they will try to even get the third.

Those ladies, you know, who get 12 six months' subscriptions are entitled to an extra 10,000 votes, and they are not restricted at that, for as many batches of six six months' subscriptions as they turn in they will receive the special ballots.

This offer closes Saturday, February 1, at 8 p. m., consequently it behooves you to keep continually at it and make every moment count.

People know now the value of these prizes and are fully cognizant that they are fully worth the effort on the part of the fair contestants. In this busy, humdrum world of ours it takes something out of the ordinary to make people sit up and take notice, and that is just what the big contest on the Medford Tribune has caused the people of this city to do.

They realize that prizes such as a beautiful automobile, a building lot, business education, gold watches and piano certificates are well worth striving for, and they are looking for the contest news in every issue of the paper. Show them that you can secure the lead and they will be only too pleased to swing their votes in your favor.

It Is Up to You, Contestants.

The votes are there waiting for some one to come and take them. Keep continually at it and you will always find some one who is willing to give you their support.

PUTTING GOLD HILL LIME ON THE MARKET

J. Frank Hughes and W. A. Carter of Salem are successfully engaging in the manufacture of lime at Gold Hill, with a plant that turns out 100 barrels per day of an article that is claimed to be 98 per cent pure. Mr. Carter has just returned from the limestone and the firm has secured orders from the paper mills at Oregon City and Lebanon, which use about ten carloads a month. The Southern Pacific has made a rate to Portland of 15 cents per hundred. It is expected to enlarge the plant and it may be considered an established Oregon industry.

"THE MASCOT."

An audience, large and enthusiastic, greeted "The Mascot" at the Opera House last Friday evening, with Ed Andrews in the leading role, ably supported by a large company. Andrews, as Prince Lorenzo; Mrs. Hazelrigg as Bettina, the Mascot; H. Willington, as Romeo, and Dr. Burnett as Pippo, were favorites. The idealities of Ed Andrews are inimitable, but he was ably seconded in mirth-provoking qualities by Mr. Willington, who is a born comedian, fitted to grace the stage in a permanent capacity instead of being confined to amateur effort, and has a future before him if abundant talent is given full play. Mrs. Hazelrigg proved to be the mascot par excellence, as the lady is an actress of wide experience and familiar with all the exigencies of the stage. Dr. Burnett at first appeared a trifle disconcerted, but rapidly recovered his equanimity and in the difficult role of Pippo admirably played the part of the shepherd lover. The support was good, the costumes elegant and the performance one of the most successful of the season, fully meriting the generous patronage accorded it, and proving that Medford has abundant talent in the comic opera field, when developed under the able direction of Messrs. Andrews and Hazelrigg. In addition to its appearance here, the opera was given at Central Point, and filled a return and final engagement at Medford last Saturday evening—Ashland Tidings.

"Babes in Toyland."

The garden wall scene from "The Babes in Toyland," introducing among other musical hits, the beautiful and popular waltz song, "Sweet Days," is one of the features of the Red Men's show at the Opera House Monday, February 3.

Thirty of Medford's talented school children are being rehearsed daily for the act, which is said to be one of the cleverest and most natural scenes representing child life given on the stage today.

The Florsdora Girls have among their numbers the beautiful song, "My Southern Girl," a number restricted to the general public's use and which is granted Miss Dare through professional courtesy. The entire evening is made up of a succession of pretty costumes and intricate fancy steps.

In addition to the attraction offered by our local talent, Miss Dare will give her full programme, which, according to the press, stamps her as one of the most versatile artists before the American public. Reserved seat sale opens at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at Haskin's.

The administrator of the estate of Nick Ipsolis, a Greek section hand who was killed by being run over by an engine in Douglas county in 1905, sued the Southern Pacific company for $5000, but compromised for $1300.

Colonists' Rates

March 1st to April 30, 1908

The Southern Pacific Railway announces that rates in effect March 1, 1908, will be $38 from Chicago, $35.50 from St. Louis, Mo.; from Missouri River common points, Council Bluffs to Kansas City, Mo., including also St. Paul, Minneapolis, $30; from Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, $30.

A SQUARE DEAL

The Rogue River Land Company has always contended that there is no good reason why the real estate business cannot be carried on honorably and honestly, with due regard for the rights of both purchaser and landowner. Actuated by this opinion, the company has never yet misrepresented as to the character of the soil or the quality of the fruits produced on same, with the result that all who have bought orchards through this agency so far could sell out, if desirable, at an advance of 100 to 500 per cent above the purchase price. This is a history of which we are proud, and we shall continue along the same lines in the future. Men who come into this favored valley looking for a new place of abode are entitled to fair treatment. We only ask of them that they will exercise ordinary business sagacity in investigating the resources of the valley before buying.

There are three things the average investor wants, if he buys country property in this valley. First and foremost, he wants a home where he and his family can enjoy good health and the fruits of this section. Usually he wants to get located where he is within easy reach of the leading commercial centers and close to local markets. And he always wants property which will bring in a good income and is sure to advance in value as the valley develops.

Will he be apt to find this combination in the hands of the street-corner broker or the average "butter-in" who persecutes the homeseeker about the hotel offices? When one considers that the situation is not urging many men with good holdings to sacrifice their property here, it is up to the homeseeker to apply to the regular dealer for what he wants. If he wants the
