ADVERTISING THE CITY.

The action of the Commercial club in assuming the responsibility and contracting for 30,000 pamphlets containing a write-up of city and valley, and a full page ad for the coming year in Sunset Magazine, is to be highly commended and it is hoped that every person having the welfare of Medford and the development of the Rogue River valley at heart will contribute liberally toward the fund to pay for the same.

The Southern Pacific railroad will aid in the distribution of the pamphlets with all of its complicated publicity machinery, and this region will become known as never before. As a result the stream of immigration started this way will be enlarged, the city grow, the country develop, real estate values be enhanced and prosperity will herald the dawn of plenty over one of God's fairest regions.

The new pamphlet will be similar in size to the one issued last year. New cuts will be used and the subject matter rewritten and brought down to date. The book will be a more artistic effort than the club's pioneer issue, and calculated to attract and hold the attention of the reader.

Over 100,000 copies of Sunset are issued monthly. In each number will be a page devoted to Medford and the Rogue River valley. In addition, there will appear, during the summer, an eight-page write-up in the magazine section. The half page now running in Sunset has brought good returns, and the page write-up will bring still better.

It is a duty all who live here owe to the community, particularly the business men and the property owners, who profit directly by the results, to contribute liberally to the publicity fund to pay for this advertising. The city council ought to aid financially and the $20000 taken from real estate men be turned over to this fund.

If you have not already given toward this good work, give now. Don't wait for the club's representatives to hunt you up, but hunt them up. And you, Mr. Orthodox and Farm Land Owner, ought to help out, for has not the club's past efforts increased the value of your land, and will not the future effort still more increase it? Is not your neighbor's land selling for more than you ever dreamed it worth, and are you not wishing news for your own property? Then you did a few years ago?

The current value is heightened, and the entire valley should realize the full value of Medford in their publicity effort.

LORD CALLS HENRY A LIAR IN COURT

The second hearing between Emma E. Lord and P. C. Henry Thursday afternoon in the federal court at Portland when Lord attempted to have a subpoena served on Henry detaining him in Medford as a witness in Lord's behalf when that case should come to trial. Judge Hays on the contrary refused to issue the subpoena, saying it is not within the power of the court.

At the hearing this motion as an answer to the subpoenaed Henry "I'll be a witness in this case," offering the court, "I want to move my abode from a person who, while on the witness stand in this court, confessed to fraud, that he had helped steal up a lot of money in the north and send them paid 25 cents apiece by George Harrison."

"That is a confession and impudently false," stated Lord, leaning over to ward Henry in emphatic remarks. Henry blossomed into his famous smile, going back into Lord's eyes.

"I will see you in this matter at this time," interrupted Judge Hunt.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN JULY

An official call has been issued for a national prohibition convention, to be held at Columbus, Mo., July 15, by nominating candidates for president and vice-president. The announcement was accompanied by comments on the great strides that prohibition has made and especially the triumphs for 1907, in Oklahoma, Tennessee and Alabama.

Prohibitionists of all the states and territories are invited to send in their names as candidates at the Columbus convention.

The basis of representation has been fixed by the national committee as follows:

Two delegates from each state and territory is entitled to one additional delegate for every 200,000 population over 100,000 and the first 100,000 population in each state or territory is entitled to one delegate.

The national convention will be held at Columbus, Mo., on the 15th of July, 1908.

many alternates as its number of delegates. The time and manner of electing these delegates and alternates will be determined by the Prohibitionists of the various states and territories, subject only to this provision: That in every state where the party has an organized state committee the delegates must be chosen by such congressional or state conventions as the state central committee may call for that purpose, or by the state committee in such manner as it may determine.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Editor Daily Tribune: Sir—As to the water system of Medford, will say that of all the plans and water propositions, one of two looks best to me: First, the Fish Lake ditch plan, as explained in the Oregonian of February 5, or the Bay dam proposition as given by Dr. Ray in the Tribune of February 4.

Either of these plans is feasible and safe, and the supply of sufficient water beyond a doubt and within the financial reach of the city.

The Fish Lake ditch plan looks best to me, because it is based on the gravity plan and leaves out the expense of pumping. I would be satisfied if the parties having the business in charge would carefully figure out the cost of the two and set accordingly.

Determined and prompt action is the need of the hour. Let us have water—good and plenty—along most economical lines. Yours, C. H. PERCE.

REDWOOD PARK NEAR BAY CITY

Grove of Giant Trees on Tamalpais Decided to Government Forestry Service to Be Preserved As National Park for Benefit of Posterity.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—One of the most public-spirited gifts ever made to the government has come from William Kent of Chicago, who has just deeded to the United States 295 acres of primeval redwood forest on the southern slope of Mt. Tamalpais, about six miles from the city of San Francisco. The land was deeded to the government with the approval of Forester Gifford Pinchot, chief of the United States forest service. The papers have now gone to the secretary of the interior and a proclamation declaring the canyon a national monument will be signed at an early date.

Saving Giant Trees.

This means that more of California's redwood giants will be saved for the scientific study and pleasure of the whole country, in fact the whole world, for the great sequoias are only found in the golden state. This grove given to the government by Mr. Kent is one of the only tracts of redwood forests to be found in its natural state in California today. The land is said to have cost Mr. Kent $47,000 some years ago, but its stand of redwood timber alone is now valued at more than $150,000 on the market.

The canyons of Tamalpais which drain into San Francisco Bay were cut many years ago, and the redwood obtained from them went into the construction of the old San Francisco. The giants on the tract to be known as Muir Woods escaped the ax, however, chiefly because the outlet is on the ocean side instead of the bay side, and also because the various owners of the land have for sentimental reasons jealously guarded the timber from harm or destruction. Modern methods of logging would make short work of the timber and would, besides, put a handsome profit in the hands of the owners.

Name It Muir Woods.

It is the intention to name the national monument "Muir Woods," after John Muir, the noted naturalist. The giants of Redwood canyon will now be given permanent protection by virtue of the act of June 8, 1906, which provides that objects of scientific interest may be declared national monuments if such action is deemed necessary for their preservation and protection. This 295-acre tract will be a pleasure ground as well as a place for scientific study for the people practically of the whole of California, for within a radius of 52 miles of the canyon two-thirds of the population of the entire state are centered.

MILLER AND MOORE SEEK SEATTLE'S MAYORALTY

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 6.—Indications pointed by the early returns are borne out by the final count, and John F. Miller will be the Republican candidate for mayor at the general election to be held March 3. Opposed to him will be the present incumbent, Mayor W. H. Moore, nominated on the Seattle party ticket at the primaries without opposition, and General J. B. Metcalfe, practically unanimously nominated on the Democratic ticket.

Deviled Ham and Relishes

I was at a party the other night and a lot of young girls were gazing at an old bachelor and asking him why he'd never married, etc. He sprang those old gags about "marrying in haste and repenting in South Dakota," and there being "just as good fish in the sea as have ever been caught," when one of the girls remarked: "Did it ever occur to you that the bait might get stale while you were angling for them?"
