

WHO WILL GET THE "REO" AUTOMOBILE?

The All-absorbing Topic Nowadays--Each Succeeding Day Brings The First Prize Nearer The Successful Candidates--Contestants Given Ride In Prize Auto And All of Them in Rapture Over Machine.

CUT THIS OUT.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE AND SOUTHERN OREGONIAN GRAND PRIZE CONTEST

FIVE VOTES

Good for TWENTY-FIVE VOTES when used as a nomination blank.

FOR.....

DISTRICT NO.....

This Coupon, cut out and mailed to the Contest Department, or deposited in the ballot box at the Tribune Office, will count as one vote for the lady whose name is filled in.

COUPONS SHOULD BE SENT FLAT, NOT ROLLED OR FOLDED

The last week of the contest has now started and the race is nearly over. Although today is Monday and as a general thing the votes do not come in very fast the first day of the week, the candidates are not letting any grass grow under their feet and are not letting up for a moment. Votes and subscriptions have been coming into the office all day and from appearances at the present time they will come in faster than ever from now until the close of the contest Saturday evening at 10 o'clock.

The candidates now realize more than ever the necessity of not letting one of the few remaining days go by without securing as many subscriptions as possible.

And votes mean prizewinners. But it is the contestants who get the most of these votes who will get the prizes, and the time is now very short in which to get them. Starting Saturday morning, the double-vote offer extension went into effect and the contestants will receive the same number of votes as were given the first week of the double-vote offer.

The double-vote extension will close on Thursday evening and the remaining two days of the contest will see the original schedule of votes, or, in other words, the same number of votes will be given the last two days as were given the first of the contest.

With But Five Days

Remaining before the final count of the contest and all the candidates and their friends working hard, the excitement at the close promises to be intense and this is the time that the candidates must surely make as much increase in their respective standings as they possibly can. With the double-vote offer running as it does for several days yet and the contest starting in as it does on the home stretch, it behooves every candidate to make the most of the remaining time.

Notice to Candidates.

Vote coupons will not appear in the paper again after tomorrow, Tuesday. The vote coupon in Tuesday's paper will count for five votes and thousands of votes can be accumulated in this way.

Do not forget that the vote coupon will not appear in the paper after Tuesday, and all paper-voter votes must positively be in the ballot box at the Tribune office by 5:30 p. m., Wednesday, in order to be counted, otherwise they will be void and will be thrown out.

The last official standings of the candidates to appear in the paper will be in the issue of Thursday evening, and from that time until the close of the contest the standings will be the same in the issues of Friday and Saturday. There will be no votes counted after Wednesday evening until the close of the contest, when the judges to be selected this week will make the final count.

On Wednesday night the ballot box will be opened for the last time and when locked again the keys will be turned over to one of the judges who will keep it in his possession until the box is opened for the last count.

Pay particular attention to this and do not forget that the position you will hold in the paper on Thursday evening will be the same you will have in the papers of Friday and Saturday.

And, once again, do not lose sight of the fact that the paper votes will not be accepted after Wednesday, February 19.

Now, it is up to you, and with a lead of a few thousand votes over your closest competitor does not mean that you will win in a walk, because she may have a little something up her sleeve to surprise you with, so do not think that because you have the lead the automobile is yours.

But three more days of the double-vote offer remaining, and it behooves you to get in and from now on until the end make every moment count. Interest your friends in your behalf as you never have done before. Get busy yourself, come to the office, get receipt books to give to your friends, so that they may secure subscriptions that mean double votes for you. The extension of the double-vote offer has been the means of bringing interest in the contest to fever heat, and the contestants are not losing a moment.

Have you taken advantage of the double-vote offer? If you have you are in a fair position to be acclaimed one of the winners, and if you have not you have simply demonstrated to your friends who have assisted you that you lack ability and aggressiveness.

But a Few Days

And the contest is a thing of the past. Get in now and dig as you never have before. You cannot afford to let up in your efforts now that the race is so nearly over. Get in now and make the most of every moment until the ballot box closes for once and for all.

Miss Neuber has been a hard and conscientious worker since the contest started and there are many friends of the young lady who declare that if persistent work coupled with a pleasing personality will win the auto, Miss Neuber will be the fortunate lady to take the machine home.

The Reo Automobile was on the streets all day Saturday and attracted all kinds of attention.

A large number of the candidates were out for a spin and they one and all claim that if they do not win the car it will not be because they are not working, but as to who will take the car home with them will be decided on Saturday evening.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Old Arkansaw."

The author of "Old Arkansaw" spent years of work and study in perfecting himself in the art of playwriting; the builders and scenic artists have given you the best effort of their skill; the actors have spent a lifetime in learning how to properly portray the characters; the managers have invested months of toil and thousands of dollars in bringing the play in its perfected condition to your very door; and all this is yours—yours for just the price of a ticket. Can't afford it? Why? You are getting the labor, the effort, the brains of 10 men for your sole enjoyment for an entire evening. Where can you buy so cheaply?

"Old Arkansaw" will be at the Opera House on Tuesday, February 18, it is not a fly-by-night. It's a real show.

To add variety and to relieve the tension in the strenuous life of "Old Arkansaw," several good specialties are presented to further entertain the audience during the action of the play, and no dramatic utterance or plucky thwarting of the fiendish villain on the part of the hero or heroine in the regular show brought forth more thunderous applause. The play proper runs along the usual melodramatic lines, and is in the hands of a number of good players, whose success is plainly and gratifyingly evident from the encouragement of the gallery, balcony and orchestra pit. It must be a good show—the audience says so, but it is helped a lot by those specialties.—Kansas City Journal.

A Royal Slave.

Novelists are just beginning to awaken to the possibilities in the last days of monarchial Mexico, before Emperor Maximilian, deserted by France and left to die alone, was taken out and shot, dying like a hero. Lew Wallace wrote much of the romance of the time into "The Fair God."

A SQUARE DEAL

The Rogue River Land Company has always contended that there is no good reason why the real estate business cannot be carried on honorably and honestly, with due regard for the rights of both purchaser and landowner. Actuated by this opinion, the company has never yet misrepresented as to the character of the soil or the quality of the fruits produced on same, with the result that all who have bought orchards through this agency so far could sell out, if desirable, at an advance of 100 to 500 per cent above the purchase price. This is a history of which we are proud, and we shall continue along the same lines in the future. Men who come into this favored valley looking for a new place of abode are entitled to fair treatment. We only ask of them that they will exercise ordinary business sagacity in investigating the resources of the valley before buying.

There are three things the average investor wants, if he buys country property in this valley. First and foremost, he wants a home where he and his family can enjoy good health and the fruits of this section. Usually he wants to get located where he is within easy reach of the leading commercial centers and close to local markets. And he always wants property which will bring in a good income and is sure to advance in value as the valley develops.

Will he be apt to find this combination in the hands of the street-corner broker or the average "butter-in" who persecutes the homeseeker about the hotel offices? When one considers that the situation is not urging many men with good holdings to sacrifice their property here, it is up to the homeseeker to apply to the regular dealer for what he wants. If he wants the he must apply to the Rogue River Land Company. When in Medford, do not fail to call on the
