

THIS WEEK TELLS THE TALE

How Many Votes Will Win the Reo Auto? Have You Enough? The Race Is Nearly Over--Get all You can Before The Final Count Is Made Next Saturday.

CUT THIS OUT.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE AND SOUTHERN OREGONIAN GRAND PRIZE CONTEST

FIVE VOTES.

Good for TWENTY-FIVE VOTES when used as a nomination blank.

FOR.....

DISTRICT NO.....

This Coupon, cut out and mailed to the Contest Department, or deposited in the ballot box at the Tribune Office, will count as one vote for the lady whose name is filled in.

COUPONS SHOULD BE SENT FLAT, NOT ROLLED OR FOLDED

With the contest but five days to run before the winners of the 17 prizes are announced, the contestants are making every moment count in order that they may be among those winners at the final count. They (the candidates) now realize that if they are to be among the lucky 17 ladies they must secure votes and subscriptions from new on as they never have before.

The Double Vote
Extension closes on Thursday evening, and from then until the end of the contest the regular schedule of votes will be in effect, so that the contestants who are anxious to make the most of this offer must make the remaining time of the double-vote offer count.

The Contest
Is the main topic of conversation all over the city of Medford; men, women, boys and girls are all talking about the contest and the probable chances of their favorites in being numbered among the prize-winners at the end.

Excitement
Over the close of the contest is now at fever heat and promises to be even more so before the winners are known, which will in all probability be on Saturday evening. All manner of rumors are in evidence, and in several instances the sporting element have taken hold of the contest and several wagers have gone on record as to the winner of the beautiful Reo Roadster.

And As of Who
The winner will turn out to be is certainly a guessing proposition. A candidate will take the lead and hold it for several days and her friends will think that she will win the machine in a walk, and then all at once some lady will take the lead away from her, and the lady who had previously held it will take a drop away down in the list. Taking it all in all, it is sure a hard puzzle to solve. The candidates are all working hard and all have numerous friends to support them, and these same friends are doing all in their power to have their favorite declared the winner.

Notice to Candidates.
Vote coupons will not appear in the paper again after today, Tuesday. The vote coupon in today's paper counts as five votes and thousands of votes can be accumulated in this way. Do not forget that the vote coupon will not appear after today, and all paper votes must positively be in the ballot box at the Tribune office by 5:30 p. m. tomorrow, Wednesday, in order to be counted, otherwise they will be void and will be thrown out. The last official standings of the candidates to appear in the paper will be in the issue of Thursday evening, and from that time until the close of the contest the standings of the contestants will be the same in the issues of Friday and Saturday. There will be votes counted after Wednesday evening until the close of the contest, when the judges to be selected this week will make the final count. On Wednesday night the ballot box will be opened for the last time and when locked again the keys will be turned over to one of the judges, who will keep it in his possession until the box is opened for the last count. Pay particular attention to this and do not forget that the position you will hold in the paper on Thursday evening will be the same you will have in the papers of Friday and Saturday. And once again, do not lose sight of the fact that the paper votes will not be accepted after Wednesday, February 19th.

Maude Tucker, District No. 3.

Near the Finish.
The Tribune's grand prize contest will close on Saturday evening and it is up to the contestants now. It is simply a case of hustle until the end—not the bitter end, for anyone can see that the prizes are real. They are there for someone to secure. Will it be you? That is for you to say. Comply with the rules, never say die, and the work will be rewarded by the prize. Do not forget that the Reo Auto must go to someone.

Why not you?
In this evening's issue there appears the picture of Miss Maude Tucker of District No. 3. Miss Tucker has been a hard and conscientious worker since the first of the contest and it will not be at all surprising to see her among the list of winners. Her many friends are all looking to see her win a prize and hope that it will be the auto.

Hustle
This week as never before and secure every cash subscription possible, as no doubt every month's subscription will be necessary to help you to win. Show those friends who have assisted you that you are worthy of their support, and do not make them wish that they had given their support to some one of the other candidates by laying down on the last lap yourself.
