valuable that any paper on the coast outside of the larger cities ever gave. The contest is on the square, and the competition genuine. The Tribune is here to stay. The rapidity of its growth depends upon the rapidity of Medford's and the Rogue River valley's development, and the patronage extended by the community. If enterprise and progress merit patronage, the Tribune's growth will be unsurressed in be unsurpassed in Oregon, and the Rogue River country soon boast of the newspaper in Oregon outside of Portland.

CALLAO, PERU.

Callao, where the American battle fleet is now making its fourth stop in its cruise round South America, is one of the most important ports on the Pacific side, and is the great depot for the commerce of Peru. It is second only to Valparaiso, Chile, 1500 miles to the south. Approximately one-half of the foreign trade of Peru, which amounted last year to more than $50, 000,000, passes in and out of Callao, making is to be source of the source making it a busy, active and industrious city.
