DINNER BILL

Ma says there are two things for which no one is ever prepared, and that's "twins." It's the little things in life that count. So says the poor man with a large family when he counts up his household expenses for the month. Perhaps if he rated the bill individually it wouldn't look so big; and perhaps if he traded with Miller & Ewing he wouldn't begrudge the money so much. Why? Because a fellow doesn't mind parting with the coin when he gets the full equivalent, and a good dinner means more than wealth to the average man. You'll always be able to find something good at our store to tempt your appetite. Try it if Sunday dinner problems worry you any. You're just the one we're looking for. Yours to please. MILLER & EWING
