Mr. Dresser

Mr. Dresser:
We want to sell you that New Spring Suit you wish and that Overcoat.

We say this only to those few dressers who have not dealt with us so far. Those who have been buying their clothing from us know where to come.

We would fire the first clerk who would sell a man who came into our store a suit of clothes that did not fit. But our clerks stay with us because they have no trouble in fitting the man who wants clothes from our big stock of clothing made especially for us by the Washington Co., of New and York Schloss Bros., of Baltimore.

If your purse is lean $15.00 will buy you a good Spring Suit or Overcoat. If your purse is large around the Belt pay us $25.00 or $30.00 for a Suit or Overcoat that will make you look like you own a Bank.

The clothes I make are the kind that "carry distinction," that bespeak the man, that keeps your money at home and are superior in every detail to the "sweatshop" goods of catalogue houses.
