ORCHARD SENTENCED TO DEATH

Court Recommends Mercy for Assassin and Declares that Arch Murderer Told the Truth.

IS TO DIE ON MAY 15TH

Orchard Thanks Court for Kindly Remarks and Recommendations to Board of Pardons While Tears Stream.

BOISE, Idaho, March 15.—Judge Woods today sentenced Harry Orchard to death in accordance with his plea of guilty entered by Orchard last week, but the court recommended that the sentence be remitted.

In sentencing Orchard, Judge Woods stated that he believed that Orchard, in his testimony at the trials of Haywood and Pettibone for the murder of ex-Governor Steenberg, told the exact truth and attempted to conceal nothing.

"I am more than satisfied that the defendant now at the bar of this court, awaiting final sentence, has not only acted in good faith in making the disclosures that he did and that he also testified fully and fairly to the whole truth, withholding nothing that was material and declaring nothing which had not actually taken place."

The judge formally sentenced Orchard and fixed May 15 as the date of execution. Orchard thanked the court for his review of the case and for Woods' kindly remarks regarding him. He repeated that he had told the whole truth and that no proofs of immunity or mercy had ever been made to him. Before he had concluded, tears were streaming from his eyes and all but broke down as he thanked Woods for his recommendation to the board of pardons.

EASTERN OREGON FEELS

RESULT OF TOURIST RATES

PENDLETON, Ore., March 15.—Real estate sales in Eastern Oregon and Washington have been increasing this spring, especially in the irrigated districts, where people are looking for small homes. These towns are being purchased largely in view of small means, many of whom will come from the middle west. A great many tracts have been sold in the Milton and Pasco water courses, while thousands of acres have been purchased in the Hermiston and Echo district which will be irrigated by the Canal project and other private enterprises.

So seriously are the transcontinental railroads taxed to accommodate the volume of traffic that it has been necessary to draft into service every available coach along the O. & W. and Oregon Short Line and the Union Pacific lines. The springtime rates are proving more satisfactory than at first anticipated. The officials believed the traffic would be heavy, but nothing like that which existed last fall. According to every indication the spring rate will bring as many people to Oregon as the fall rate did.

CAPTAIN RAWLINGS MEETS WAR-TIME COMRADE

While traveling upon the train from Medford to Ashland Tuesday, Captain W. Rawlings of Medford had occasion to sit down beside an old gentleman whom, upon inquiry, proved to be a member of his company in the civil war. His name was Homer Shepard. These two soldiers had not met for 41 years. Mr. Shepard resembled the services of Rawlings' capturing master, flag, which trophy still possesses. That visit was very short, but several remarkable incidents were called up.

BAR WOMEN FROM TIPPLING IN SALOONS BY NEW ORDINANCE

City Council Passes Law Shutting Off Back Door Trade, Providing Punishment for Keepers of Saloons That Sell Beer to the Fair Sex.

Women were forbidden to go into saloons and saloonkeepers prohibited from selling liquor to females under penalty of a fine of from $50 to $100 by an ordinance passed by the city council Tuesday night. This will set his been placed upon the statute books, and upon its observance depends the license of several saloonkeepers.

The council met in regular session, with all members present except Mayor Boddy and Commissioner Hafer, who are in Portland on business. The legal battle with Englehardt P. C. Kelsey was compromised by the payment of $200 instead of the $75 for which Mr. Kelsey is suing the city for services rendered on the proposed water system.

The city attorney was ordered to draft an ordinance to compel property owners to obtain a permit from the city recorder before building sidewalks or buildings outside the fire lines, and for tipping severs. The object is to keep record of the growth of the city as shown by building permits, and to keep sidewalks from being laid upon the wrong grades.

A committee consisting of Effert, O'Neil and Worthman was appointed to examine and report upon a fire-dam system to be installed in the new city hall.

UNION LABOR MEN WILL FIGHT AGAINST PROHIBITION

PORLTAND, March 15.—Fearing that if it is not combated, the prohibition sentiment in Oregon ultimately will produce results throwing about 400,000 men in the aggregate, out of positions in Multnomah county, the Oregon trade unions of Portland which are directly concerned will organize to do battle. A conference was held in Bartenders' hall on First street, at which representatives of 10 labor unions were present, and it was decided that an organization shall be formed to enter a few plebeian jolts at the Oregon Anti-Saloon League.

At another meeting to be held at Bartenders' hall next Sunday afternoon, a permanent organization will be formed and the mode of procedure settled. Statutes were drafted to show that in Multnomah County alone prohibition would leave 400,000 men without employment.

With the assistance of auxiliary in organizations, the Anti-Saloon League is circulating petitions calling for local option elections to be held in every county in which prohibition does not already prevail. No elections affecting the West Side presents will be held in Multnomah County, but, in conjunction with a view to adding a vote of the Oregonians to the total, a resolution was adopted to prohibit the sale of beer in the four cities of the division county until the legislature makes laws. The cities are 100,000 in size. Portland is not included in this call.
