SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Ella Gancher, stenography and typewriting. Room 1, Palm Block.

Theodore Engle of Phoenix was a Medford business visitor Tuesday.

Just received at Wade's Cash Store, new jardinieres, crooks and chains.

C. W. Dake returned Tuesday from Portland.

Southern Oregon scenery at Hall's Art Studio, near bridge.

Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Bennett of Jacksonville visited in Medford Tuesday.

The Economy Market has fresh fish every Friday. Fish here. 3tf

N. L. Naregon of Cape Town transacted business in Medford Wednesday.

Fresh chickens always on hand at the Economy Market. 3tf

Mrs. Nelson Bonner has been visiting in Medford, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. S. Rossdump.

Miss Frances Tozer of Ashland was the guest of Miss Grace Whitehead during the week.

Miss Flora Thompson of Jackson city, who is packing school on Bear creek, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Dr. J. F. Reddy returned Wednesday from Portland, where he has been on business for several days.

Mrs. Estella Fox of Central Point spent Tuesday in Medford at the Rawlings home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kinney of Jacksonville spent Tuesday in Ashland visiting friends.

W. M. Alexander of Central Point was a business caller in Medford Wednesday morning.

Rev. W. F. Gude returned Tuesday from Drain, where he stood several days.

Mrs. C. Arnaut will hold her Spring Millinery Opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 19, 20 and 21 at her parlors on 4 street, near 7th. 3tf Jink Evans of Phoenix has returned from Del Monte, S. Dak., bringing his mother with him. He arrived just in time to see his father breathe his last.

Do you want a first-class business location on Medford's busiest street? Easy terms. If so, call on J. C. Bierce, Palm Block.

C. M. English and wife of Niagara, N. Dak., are recent arrivals in Medford and are prospective purchasers of Rogue River valley land.

All of the latest styles in sewing machines at the lowest prices. White, $75; Singer, $30; Davis, $75; drophead, latest style, standard make, $20. New Home, $15. The Standard Sewing Machine Man, G. H. Johnson, M. Elwood's store. 3tf

Miss Esther Harpley, who has been ill at her home in Medford, has resumed her duties in the primary department of the Gold Hill schools.

The erection of a beautiful bungalow is about to be commenced on the Queen Anne addition and more will follow in a short time, which proves the popularity of the building restriction on these lots. Better not be a Spencer and put off buying one of these lots until tomorrow.

E. Perry, who has been employed in the repair of the telephone line between Gold Hill and Sam's Valley, had one of his arms fractured a few days ago.

P. A. Boling, the energetic mining man, is exhibiting some fine nuggets taken from the mine on Foots creek, which he is interested in.

Dan Murphy of Medford, Mose Ashpost of Ashland, Thomas Emery of Jacksonville and Norris Sampson of San Francisco have enrolled in the Ashland Business college.

Misses Myrtle and Jane Calloway, who have been employed in Medford, left Tuesday evening to spend the holidays at the week at their home in Phoenix.

George F. King, editorial Tuesday evening from Seattle, where he had gone on business. Mr. King left Wednesday morning for his home at Berkeley, Cal.

Mrs. T. H. Moore, wife of the hotel proprietor, who took in the Southern California excursion a month ago, returned Tuesday on her home in Medford.

An audience of more than 1000 people greeted Williams' Opera Company at the White Temple Saturday evening, and from the great applause given one was delighted. The Operaphiles, Portland, on Opera House, March 21.

Frank D. Jones, D. F. Pierce was at Gold Hill last week in order to make arrangements for the sale of the assets of the Golden Eagle mine, found in Rock Point, which Gather will soon have board.

Marion W. Pierce and wife left Tuesday for Shelbyville, Ill., where they will start across trade with Pierce Pure Food Mill and go to Nebraska to spend the summer with Mr. Pierce's father.

George D. Jennings and daughter, Miss Gertrude, from Kansas, arrived in Medford Monday. Mr. Jennings is a brother of H. V. Jennings of Medford. Mr. Jennings is a brother-in-law of H. V. Hall, who formerly conducted the Hall House in Medford. He will locate in the valley.

C. H. Sackett of Portland is the guest of his brother, Dr. Chas. Sackett. He will join the congregation in the Methodist church, among those who will be the other ones. Chas. and his family are now on exhibition and we will be glad to see them.

S. G. McPeak, who is engaged in the moving business in and around Medford, was arrested with his team Tuesday afternoon by Officer Hall, charged with driving on the sidewalk. He was released on $5 bail.

At the Christian Church.

Last Sunday morning and evening the audiences at the Christian church were above the average in size. The special music at morning service, "Hear us Oh Lord," and "Why Is Life Not a Possibility?" The text for the latter subject was: Gal. 6:7-8; I Tim. 4:7-8.

Rev. Mr. Horn said in part:

"O Lord, we are to Corinthians be more I do not wish to glory in men the cross of Christ crucified to me, the world crucified to me. Paul's stand that spirit of [illegible] Christ. [illegible] Christ and Him crucified. [illegible] Christ and in building the church." Next subject: [illegible] the Corinthians. Text: [illegible] 11.

"[illegible] the Lord. Oct. 9:15. "We are to give Christ the preeminence in every [illegible] Christ and [illegible] and [illegible] Christ [illegible] Christ [illegible] Christ