

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

Medford Daily Tribune

THE WEATHER

Light frost; south to east winds. Showers tonight and Sunday.

THIRD YEAR.

MEDFORD, OR., SATURDAY, MARCH 28, 1908.

No. 8.

WELLS IS BLOWN UP BY BOMB

Former Adjutant-General of Colorado Mititia Has Narrow Escape From Death - Bed Destroyed by Dynamite.

TELLURIDE, March 28.—Former Adjutant-General Bulkley Wells narrowly escaped death or serious injury at his home at an early hour this morning through the explosion of a dynamite bomb placed near his bed on the outer porch in which he was sleeping.

General Wells is manager of the Smuggler-Union mine and has his home, where the explosion occurred, located on that property at Pandora, several miles from town.

Wells himself telephoned the news of the explosion to the authorities and soon the neighborhood was scoured. There is no trace of the dynamite.

General Wells' predecessor as manager of the Smuggler-Union, Arthur L. Collins, an Englishman, was shot to death several years ago.

Wells was alone in the house last night. He sleeps on his porch most of the year.

YOUTH IS ARRESTED ON COMPLAINT OF HUSBAND

Paul Goodwyn of Medford was arrested last night upon complaint of H. A. Triplett, charged with misconduct with the latter's wife.

SENATOR FULTON TO SPEAK IN MEDFORD ON MONDAY EVENING

Political Issues of the Day to Be Discussed by Senator—Expected to Answer Heney and to Define Position of Statement Number One.

United States Senator Charles W. Fulton will speak on the political issues of the day at the Medford Opera House Monday evening, March 30.

There is widespread interest in the speech as Senator Fulton is expected to reply to Francis J. Heney's charges of corruption and also to define his position regarding Statement No. 1.

This will be the first speech that Mr. Fulton makes in Southern Oregon and his first public appearance since his return from Washington a few days since.

A crowded house is expected.

CALHOUN AND RUEF ARE AGAIN INDICTED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Three indictments on each of three counts against Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads; Tiry L. Ford, general counsel of the same corporation, and Abraham Ruef, political boss, were secretly voted by the grand jury Wednesday night, and filed with Presiding Judge Sturtevant today.

At Christian Church Sunday.

10 a. m., bible school, superintendent C. H. Pierce; motto of school, "Every member of the church in the bible school, and as many more." The school is in a contest with the Christian Sunday school at Grants Pass.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

L. A. Clayburgh and Bessie B. Seal, H. G. Fischer and Myrtle Stough, John H. Gouffrey and Pearl E. Grigsby.

We sell the upper crust flour, Olmstead & Hibbard.

$50 FINE IN LIEU OF LICENSE

Alfred Smith, the Real Estate Dealer Who Refused to Pay Fee, Is Found Guilty—Will Appeal to Supreme Court.

Alfred Smith, the real estate dealer, who is testing the validity of the city statute compelling realty agents to pay an annual license of $50, was tried today before Recorder Collins.

The defendant will take his case up to the circuit court upon a writ of review. The city was represented by H. Withington and the defendant was represented by Attorney Ernest C. Smith.

LATE LOCAL NEWS.

Jacob Shottwell, who left Medford for Wenatchee, Wash., a few weeks ago, returned Friday with his household effects and will settle in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norton of Portland are in Medford visiting at the home of R. N. Butler.

Dr. J. E. Shearer of Portland arrived in Medford Friday, having been called here by the serious illness of Dr. W. S. Jones.

F. T. Ryan of Prescott, Ariz., is a new arrival and is well pleased with Medford and the Rogue River valley.

Samuel L. Bennett, who recently returned from Klamath county, where he had been for several weeks looking after business interests, reports that his business is better in the Rogue River valley than in Eastern Oregon.

Oliver Jones, the farmer from near Jacksonville, has purchased a tract of land from T. W. Osgood and will set out small fruits.

Mrs. J. J. Cooke of St. Paul, Or., died Thursday at her home. She has relatives and formerly lived in Medford.

Albert Holms of Climax transacted business in Medford Saturday.

T. W. Jones of the Applegate section, spent Saturday in Medford. He reports considerable activity in the mines of the Steamboat district.

Robert St. James and L. Rippey have opened a pressing establishment in quarters in the Seattle Hotel.

Mrs. Charles Johnson of East Medford is confined to her home on account of sickness.

A. D. Singler, the energetic agent for the Singer and Wheeler & Wilson sewing machines, made a business trip to Ashland Friday.

N. C. Sorensen's new residence on A street has been completed and Mr. Sorensen and family will take up their residence at once.

Archib and Eugene Hogan, from Wagner Creek, were callers in Medford Saturday.

J. W. Hicks of the Willow Springs gravel transacted business in Medford Saturday.

Charles Wheeler, who left for Wenatchee, Wash., two weeks ago, will return to Medford Sunday and will bring along several families who will locate in Medford and the Rogue river valley.

EGGLESTON ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

Ashland Recorder Files for Republican Nomination for County Judge Against Dunn—Perkins Refuses to Become Candidate.

Captain M. P. Eggleston of Ashland today filed notice with the county clerk of becoming a candidate for the republican nomination for the office of county judge.

Captain Eggleston has become a candidate only after having received requests from republicans in all parts of the county asking him to enter the race against Judge G. W. Dunn.

The incident of the mail bags, coupled with the return of the Tacoma to La Guayra today, caused the greatest excitement in Caracas.

President Castro's organ, El Constitucional, publishes an editorial entitled, "What Does Roosevelt Want?"

The other leading candidates are H. C. McAllister of Portland; Charles F. Babcock of Oregon City, and W. P. Andrews of Hood River.

McAllister is with the firm of Allen & Lewis of Portland, and is recognized as a man of unusual ability.

Ed Andrews has been induced by Mr. J. W. Perkins and others to make the race for county commissioner and will on Monday file his petition.

Wednesday evening, March 25, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride on Fourth street, Mrs. Ella M. Burns and Ernest R. B. Croston, attended by Mr. and Mrs. Cottrell, to the wedding march played by Mrs. Green, entered the parlor and were united in marriage through the beautiful ring ceremony by Rev. Edward F. Green.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—It has practically been decided that the Atlantic fleet will make a short visit to Auckland, N. Z., before going to Sydney, Australia.

ASHLAND REALTY SALES. P. O. McWilliams of Ashland came down with other democrats to attend the county convention.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The percentage of infected rats examined by the federal health authorities for the week fell to 47 per cent.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The percentage of infected rats examined by the federal health authorities for the week fell to 47 per cent.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The percentage of infected rats examined by the federal health authorities for the week fell to 47 per cent.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The percentage of infected rats examined by the federal health authorities for the week fell to 47 per cent.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The percentage of infected rats examined by the federal health authorities for the week fell to 47 per cent.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The percentage of infected rats examined by the federal health authorities for the week fell to 47 per cent.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The percentage of infected rats examined by the federal health authorities for the week fell to 47 per cent.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The percentage of infected rats examined by the federal health authorities for the week fell to 47 per cent.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The percentage of infected rats examined by the federal health authorities for the week fell to 47 per cent.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The percentage of infected rats examined by the federal health authorities for the week fell to 47 per cent.

CLOUD OF WAR OVER CARACAS

American Mail Opened by Venezuela--Warship Returns to Port--Castro Fears Plot Against Him By Roosevelt and Root

CARACAS, March 25, via Willemstad, Curacao, March 28.—Minister Russel has advised Dr. Jose de Jesus Paul, Venezuelan foreign minister, that three pouches of official mail, brought into La Guayra for the cruiser Tacoma, had been opened at La Guayra.

The committee on resolutions consisted of W. H. Canon, S. S. Peatz and E. E. Phipps.

SALEM, Or., March 28.—Master Fish Warden H. G. Van Dusen has made a last plea to the fish commission for preservation of his official head.

There are a dozen or more candidates for Van Dusen's place, among them R. D. Hume, the salmon king of Rogue river. He is a receptive, rather than active applicant.

The other leading candidates are H. C. McAllister of Portland; Charles F. Babcock of Oregon City, and W. P. Andrews of Hood River.

McAllister is with the firm of Allen & Lewis of Portland, and is recognized as a man of unusual ability.

Ed Andrews has been induced by Mr. J. W. Perkins and others to make the race for county commissioner and will on Monday file his petition.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

DEMOCRATS SELECT DELEGATES INSTRUCTED TO VOTE FOR BRYAN

Jackson County Mass Meeting Names Those Who Will Go to State Meeting—Resolutions Indorse Nebraskan for the Presidency.

The Jackson county democrats met in mass meeting at the Medford Opera House Saturday afternoon in pursuance to the call recently issued, and selected delegates to the state convention that will name delegates to the National convention, instructed to vote for Bryan.

The meeting was called to order by J. S. Orth, in the absence of E. J. Farlow, county chairman. State Senator L. L. Mullet was elected chairman and W. H. Canon secretary.

Resolutions indorsing W. J. Bryan for president and instructing the county delegates to the state convention to be held in Portland, June 9, to instruct the national delegates to support Bryan for president.

The delegates selected were: Ashland, E. E. Phipps and E. J. Farlow; Medford, D. H. Miller and J. S. Orth; Central Point, T. M. Jones; Jacksonville, Judge Charles Prim; Gold Hill, O. Beeman.

The committee on resolutions consisted of W. H. Canon, S. S. Peatz and E. E. Phipps.

SALEM, Or., March 28.—Master Fish Warden H. G. Van Dusen has made a last plea to the fish commission for preservation of his official head.

There are a dozen or more candidates for Van Dusen's place, among them R. D. Hume, the salmon king of Rogue river. He is a receptive, rather than active applicant.

The other leading candidates are H. C. McAllister of Portland; Charles F. Babcock of Oregon City, and W. P. Andrews of Hood River.

McAllister is with the firm of Allen & Lewis of Portland, and is recognized as a man of unusual ability.

Ed Andrews has been induced by Mr. J. W. Perkins and others to make the race for county commissioner and will on Monday file his petition.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The report just issued by the railroad commission shows that in February five persons were killed and 26 injured on the railroads of the state.

BOMB IS HURLED BY ANARCHIST

Two Killed and Several Injured at Meeting of Unemployed—"I Did It Because a Cop Beat Me Up" Exclaims Assassin.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Two men were killed and a number of persons injured this afternoon when what had been a fairly peaceable meeting of the unemployed, developed into an anarchistic demonstration, and a bomb was thrown and exploded.

As the big crowd assembled, it was noticed that there were numerous red flags, and that a number of persons wore red hats.

There was a cloud of smoke, a loud report and a number of persons were seen to fall.

The police reported two killed and a number injured. The crowd, including many sightseers, were panic-stricken.

L. Silverstein, 30 years old, accused by the police of having thrown the bomb, is himself fatally injured.

The other dead man is Erwin Rasky. Many arrests followed.

Silverstein was alive when taken to the hospital, but was literally torn to pieces and it is improbable that he will survive.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Louis Lundy, a negro, who was shot by Representative Harlin of Alabama last night following an altercation on a street car, will recover.

Hefflin, who appeared on the ground floor of the house, was a trifle pale. He was surrounded by a number of colleagues and later retired to the cloakroom.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Scenes at most approaching riot were enacted today on the Broad street cars when the widely advertised mining stock was offered for sale for the first time.

Evans leaves fleet to take treatment at springs.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Admiral Evans, commanding the Atlantic fleet, is on his way from Magdalena Bay to San Francisco, on board the Connecticut.

Evans will return to Magdalena at once. This information has been received by the navy department by wireless today.

Evans will assume command of the fleet when it reaches Santiago.

ALDRICH BILL FAILS TO REACH HOUSE AS EXPECTED

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The Aldrich bill failed to reach the house today as expected, owing to the fact that the senate was not in session.

It makes more bread. It makes better bread. It makes whiter bread. The upper crust.

Ohmstead & Hibbard.

Lloyd and Louie Colver are busy getting their orchard under cultivation.

Hotel Nash Grill

MENU

- The Nash Hors d'Oeuvre
Consomme Princess
Halibut Fendousaine, Royal Potatoes
Filet Mignon Julienne, Sauce Champaign
Roast Young Capon, Chestnut Dressing.
Salad Bellevue
Green Peas Jardiniere
English Plum Pudding a la "Drury Lane"
Dessert
Coffee

MUSICAL PROGRAM

Rendered by Hazelrigg's Orchestra.

- No.
1. March "Arabia"
2. Waltzes "Symposia"
3. Intermezzo "A Garden Matinee"
4. Selection "The Royal Chef"
5. Rag "Noddles"
6. Polka "Pretty Lips"
7. Overture "Princess of Pilsen" (request)
8. Waltzes "Dream of Heaven"
9. Quickstep "Gen'l. Mixup, U. S. A."
10. Selection "Erminie"