SPORTING NOTES The first three games of the season played at San Francisco between the local (1904) and Portland were all won by the locals. In the first game Jesse Barrett of Texas pitched, and the Chronicle says of him: "The fans took kindly to Barrett. It was not his fault the runs were scored and the baseball criticism fully aware he has made good. McCreedy, as has been said, is well fortified in the box this season." Those sports who were in anticipation of witnessing another great battle between Jim Gaus and Halting Nelson, were given a shock when they learned that Nelson, through his representative and former-bitter enemy, Willie Hill, announced that he would not live up to his tentative agreement to fight Gaus 20 rounds, but that he would agree to meet the negro in a 15 round bout. Gaus' representative wired the champion asking for instructions. That Gaus will refuse to go the longer route is the belief of many. Portland is weak behind the belt. Maddox may be all right when he gets going, but his injured hand is still tender and his throwing not accurate. The five stolen bases against Walsh Sunday morning do not look well for him. McCreedy's efforts to get Burns indicate that he realizes what the team needs. The international airship race between New York and Chicago, with a $250,000 stake, may be the outcome of the challenge announced by A. P. Hilyon, the Brooklyn inventor, who claims to have solved the problem of aerial navigation. A large crowd was present and several hundred dollars changed hands when A. C. Crane's mare beat Fred Herri's horse a length in a 220-yard watch for $100 a side. The race was run in the county road six miles south of Ashland. TABLE ROCK TATTLINGS E. F. Nichols and family moved Monday to their farm in the Willow Springs section. Mrs. Mary Y. Pankey, wife of C. A. Pankey, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Vincent, passed away Friday morning at her home at Taldie Brook. She was 28 years old. A loving husband, six children, father, mother, two brothers and two sisters are left to mourn her early death. All who knew her esteemed her highly. Miss Ida Kinkead, aged 32 years, died April 4 at the home of her father, James W. E. Kinkead, and was laid to rest in the Central Point cemetery Friday. Rev. T. M. James conducting the services at the grave. The family have been here but a short time, coming from Chicago a few months ago, and purchased the E. F. Nichols ranch. Messrs. Shannon and Wyckoff, of Portland have purchased the Gallaway ranch. Miss Margaret Nealon began the spring term of school in the Black River Monday, April 6. Rev. S. C. Hordell, of Eagle Point, preached in the schoolhouse Sunday evening. A box social was given in the school house at Agate Saturday evening. A large crowd was in attendance. The program of the literary society was a good one, well rendered and showed careful training on the part of teacher and scholars. The boxes were auctioned off by James Owens, and if he would prove as much of a success as county commissioner as he did as auctioneer, the county had better elect him. He exacted $100.27 from the boys, and they were all satisfied, too. The proceeds paid the balance due on a fine organ and left some on hand. Dr. Seely of Medford made a professional visit here last week. ROGUE RIVER VALLEY From Wagner Butte to Table Rock It's good for farming, fruit or stock. From Ashland Butte to Mount Pitt No better country you can hit. "Three Jacksonville and Ross Ave. Give the best country found by man. Where rich, green meadows, wooded slopes, Yield incomes far beyond our hopes. And bright and blue and mountain streams, Surprised all our artist's dream. And though you wander far or near, This favored valley still is dear. And happy those who in it stay, 'Tis so sweet and so little hay. GUSTAVE EDLUND. Coal for Sale We say now prepared to furnish hard pit coal at the mine, five miles west of town, in any amount desired $2.50 a ton. Roy Tickets by Wire "Something which is of considerable interest to the public generally, and which is perhaps not generally known, is the system of prepaid orders now in effect between stations of the Southern Pacific company and all points in the United States. In essence of this system tickets may be purchased at Medford from any place in the United States and mailed in telegraphed order to the party wishing to come here. Passenger accommodations and such matters of such an important nature with these tickets may also be consulted at the same time." HATFIELD STUMPED BY CALIFORNIA CLIMATE STERKTON, Cal., April 10.—A sign of the fact that Hatfield, the contractor, has failed to make good on his promise to sell his property to the city of St. Joseph, Mo., has been engaged him for another year.

and April 15, 1908. Hatfield did not receive any money this season because he failed to produce the promised rain. To make good his contract he must make some five inches of rainfall between now and April 15. He says he chief do it, and offers the unusual climatic conditions of this season as an excuse for his failure. They Sell It.
