JACKSONVILLE ITEMS.

Mrs. George W. Dunn and son have returned from the Ashland sanitarium and are both getting along nicely.

G. P. Billings was down from Ashland the first of the week, doing busixess at the courthonse. Misses Lottie and Emma Reed, who were called home by the death of their father, will return to Portland and San Francisco today. Dr. Page, while coming up California street in his auto, frightened the team owned by Frank Crump, which was standing in front of Numan's store. They in turn ran into Charles Dunford's delivery wagon, upsetting it and com-pletely demolishing the same. Fortunately, no one was injured, both wag

Jacksonville has another real estate firm, W. W. Irving & Co., who hav their offices opposite Ryan's store.
