WHERE LIE THE OREGONS?

"Where Lie the Ore-gons?" is the title of a modest booklet containing verse of a very high order, written by D. H. Hawkins of Medford.

Where lie the Ore-gons are taken and plains, And sliding rivers and deep murmuring woods.

Where lie the Ore-gons the purple mountains Are partly-tinted in the morning light.

Also is heard The shal-lows music of some drifting bird, The long, deep sighing of the scowling flocks.

The landscapes are painted Soft, richly, with white and golden fleecinesses of cloud.

Where they grow from poor to rich, Where they blossom from the sides of lonely mountains.

There flows and runs lights fall on field and fern, And wood and orchard wealth, by Medford town.

Here the comice pear finds fit congenial climate; Here the berry ripens luscious to the lip.

The Ore-gons are ripe inheritance; Be strong-for soon-to reap her yet low grains.

When the Fire Bell Rings. Most people WAKE UP. Haven't you heard it ringing, ringing, ringing loud enough to wake the dead in Medford during the last year? It means that right now is the right time to get in on the ground floor in the heart of the city, before the new railroad, the water system and the coal road sets things to booming in Greater Medford. It means that such a chance as we are able to offer for the next FIFTEEN DAYS ONLY Of Twelve Choice Residence Lots in the Beautiful FAIRVIEW ADDITION. On West Seventh street, for the low price of $3500 for the entire twelve lots will not occur again in the history of Medford. The time is limited; don't let the chance pass you by. BRING YOUR WIFE TO DINE here some day soon. It will be a treat to her and a change as well. More over it will show her what good cooking and service really are. She will probably take the hint and make her home meals better thereafter. Never suspect you of anything either. Try it. It has often worked beautifully. The Nash Cafe

Catalog Houses are Not Merchant Tailors. They drain the towns of money and neither give the fit, style nor distinction to your clothes that your own city tailor can. Patronize Home Industry. The clothes I make are the kind that "carry distinction," that bespeak the man, that keeps your money at home and are superior in every detail to the "sweatshop" goods of catalogue houses.
