Harry Culbertson, general contractor and builder, cement work a specialty, Medford, Or. W. E. Finney, the miner, made a trip to Jacksonville Sunday. Don't fail to consult Reinhardt on cement work at Postal Telegraph office. Miss Maud Byrne has returned from a visit with friends living at the county seat. Do you want a first-class business location on Medford's busiest street? Easy terms. If so, call on J. C. Brown, Palm Block. Mrs. Belle Davis of St. Paul, Minn., and her daughter are paying Jacksonville a visit. Commencing with last Tuesday night, the Emerick restaurant will keep open until midnight for the benefit of the public. George H. West and George Jones from Hattie Falls transacted business in Medford Tuesday. L. J. Reinhardt, homebuilder and general contractor, Inquest at Postal Telegraph office or P. O. Box 707. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Farrar left Tuesday for a visit at Grants Pass. They will be absent about two or three days. The Medford Book Store has opened their sofa fountain and are serving the best and coolest drinks in town. Their imported drink dispenser is bound to make the fountain a winner. Don't be deceived by buying shipped-in flour at $1.50 per sack. Patronize home industry. Buy Davis best flour at $1.30 per sack. Every sack guaranteed. Try it. If you can't get it at the grocer's, come to the mill. Captain W. Rawlings, who has been confined to his bed with acute rheumatism for the past week, is slowly improving. Isaac Coffman, who has been very sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Al Sturgis, on Oakland street, is no better. Court Hall has broken ground for the erection of a double front brick building on D street. This will be a one-story building. W. E. Chamberlain of Astoria has gone to Los Angeles to look after the estate left him by his father, who died recently and may remove thither. Mrs. Josephine Russell and Miss Frances Numan, who are visiting in San Francisco, will remain until after the American fleet leaves that city. Robert Leonard, the veteran representative of the Metropolitan hotel at Astoria, spent several hours in Medford Sunday. Professor A. O. Pies, Misses Martin Thayer and Maud Rippey will teach the Gold Hill school next year. They are all experienced, popular teachers. James K. Johnson, a prominent citizen of Crescent City, Cal., during the past half century, died there recently in his 75th year. He was well known to many pioneers of southern Oregon. Samuel H. Taylor of Jacksonville, one of the earliest pioneers of the valley, is suffering from a stroke of paralysis, which affects one side of his body. If friends of Astoria, an expert physician, who recently entered the employ of the Oregon Consolidated Mines, and his family have resided in Jacksonville. There are reports that the new steel bridge under construction in Medford is the longest one that will span when completed over 1000 feet. Several will cost $100,000 to $150,000 each. P. H. Brown of Vancouver, Wash., arrived in Medford Monday evening. Mr. Brown has had outside interests from 1880 and will in all probability have permanently in Medford in the near future. A. H. Mack of Grants Pass believes he has a good catch in Oregon, at Siskiyou town. He caught 1000 of the white sucker, weighing 125 pounds, from 8 1/2 to 10 1/2 p.m., and had to haul for a mile to get these home. Clarence Mack, son of Rev. George W. Black, the well known Baptist minister, has been making this valley which was his former home, a visit, accompanied by his wife. He has been visiting a newspaper at Pullen, Nev. W. W. Caldwell of Roseburg was defeated in his race for the Republican nomination for prosecuting attorney of the second judicial district by George M. Brown, the present incumbent. H. B. Olson, who lives near the southwest of Grants Pass, came here today for his mail. He was driving toward town when a falling tree fell directly across the wagon, cutting it in two. He also had it cut that struck the occupants and threw it clear off the road in two spots.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pierce left Monday for Portland, where they will meet Mrs. Mary M. Myers, who is the mother of Mrs. Pierce. Mrs. Myers formerly resided in Medford. She left Winfield, Kan., Monday, and will make her future home with the Pierce family. Miss Nellie Mulkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Mulkey, who has been in Portland for the past five or six months, taking instrumental music, returned to her home Monday. Miss Mulkey was a student of Miss White sides, who is a well-known musical instructor, and who once held a position in the State University of Oregon at Salem. It is now stated that the Southern Pacific company's new train through the valley will be established May 1. Passenger traffic is now exceedingly heavy on the Shasta route and an immense traffic is expected to and from San Francisco on account of the fleet celebration, which it is hoped to help handle with the new train. Harry L. Andrews, who has acted as secretary of the Grants Pass Commercial club the past year, has very wisely been retained for the ensuing year at a salary of $100 per month. The Courier says that by both nature and acquisition Mr. Andrews is peculiarly adapted for the position. Original, alert, energetic and attentive, he never misses an opportunity to aid in keeping things up-to-date or to suggest needed improvements. Miss Marian Cardwell, who was recently married at Roseburg to J. H. Hanks of Canyonville, is a native of Jacksonville and a granddaughter of the late Colonel D. T. Vault and J. A. Cardwell, well known pioneers of southern Oregon. The groom is a son of J. L. Hanks, former sheriff of Lake and Klamath counties. The worthy young couple have the congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends. Miss Mignon Nevada, daughter of Emma Nevada, the popular American singer, has made her debut to the world of art in the Costanzo theater at Home. A large audience, including many diplomats and noted musicians, was present. She was repeatedly called before the curtain and received many floral tributes. Mrs. M. W. Wheeler of Phoenix precinct has been visiting relatives and friends living at Grants Pass, for her home. C. D. Vincent, a member of the Fish Lake Ditch company and Jackson County Improvement company, left for his home at Oakland, Cal., after a short business visit in this section. He is better pleased with our valley than ever.

SPORTING NEWS.

The Siskiyou County High School team beat the Astoria ball tossers at the Granite City by a score of 14 to 1. The latter were not in practice and played to accommodate the Vreka aggregation, which is a strong one. University of Oregon track men show improvement over last year and the coming meet for the championship of the state between the Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Oregon at Corvallis, May 22, promises to be one of the closest that has been held between the institutions for a number of years. The victory of the university at the Columbia meet last week does not give that institution a walk-over for the state championships by any means. Now that Dan Kelly, former Oregon sprinter, has signed application for membership in the New York Athletic club, it will bring him under the wing of Bernis Wolfers, holder of one of the records Kelly is supposed to have tied. It is no secret that Wolfers does not believe the Oregon sprinter ever ran 220 yards in 27 1/2 seconds. Portland will see the greatest number of athletes gathered together in its history on the last day of the rose festival, at Portland, June 6, when the Pacific northwest championships will be held on Multnomah field. It is believed that there will be nearly 200 athletes on attendance from all parts of California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho, including relay teams from every high school and grammar school in the state. Portland also will see the annual game with Los Angeles by a score of 1 to 1. Charlie Dargatzis pitched good ball but got the full-on sign of the Los team. Berting Nelson has signed to play in eight 45 round bouts with Ed Kelly, fighting a local club on the afternoon of May 10. The weights to be 175 pounds. SECRETARY REPORTS

750 AUTOS IN STATE

SALEM, Or., April 21.—More than 150 applications for automobile licenses have been made at the secretary of state's office since January 1, and the number of licenses granted each day is growing. From eight to ten licenses are issued daily, which would indicate that the automobile business in Oregon is good. The total number of state licenses issued up to this time is 750. A great number of motorcycle licenses have been issued from the secretary of state's office.

ATHLETIC CLUB MEET SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT

Everybody in Medford at all interested in athletics or sports is requested to turn out at the Opera House tonight to aid in the formation of an athletic club. It is planned to start with a large membership, secure a clubhouse and gymnasium and build up an institution similar to that of the Olympic club in San Francisco and the Malmstrom club in Portland.

Housewives

When you consider time-saving and labor-saving devices in cooking for the family, MOORE'S RANGES SURPASS ALL OTHERS. Ask those of your neighbors who have Moores, if this fact is not so—that a Moore Range is the biggest kitchen comfort a housewife can have. Ask BOYDEN, the man who has sold 500 Moores during the last seven years to families in this valley, what the unanimous verdict of his customers has been. Every day that you continue to use any other stove means that much additional fuel wasted, unnecessary labor, worry and disappointment.
