

MANY BOOSTS FOR MEDFORD

Campaign of Advertising Conducted by the Commercial Club Brings Many Inquiries and Letters Showing Interest Taken in this Region in the East.

Many letters are being received and answered by the Medford Commercial club showing the effect of the campaign of advertising being conducted in the east. The following is from George L. McDonough, colonization agent of the Union Pacific railroad:

Wants Some of Our Apples.
 Omaha, Neb., April 15, 1908.
 Mr. A. H. Miller, Secretary Medford Commercial club, Medford, Or.
 Dear Sir: I have your two letters of the 4th inst. and have noted them with a great deal of interest.
 I can assure you that if we had some of those Rogue River apples in this office they would not keep two years, like those mentioned in the Medford Tribune, without their being in a steel safe and the combination lost. I am very sorry that you were ignorant of our postoffice address, and so could not send us a box or two of these apples, similar to the ones you sent to me for exhibit in Chicago.
 Please have it printed in great big type and pasted upon your desk so that you will remember it when apple time comes around again.
 With kindest regards, I remain,
 Yours truly,
 GEO. L. McDONOUGH.

Predicts Dense Population.
 This letter is from the Western Oregon Orchards company's Chicago office:
 Chicago, April 15, 1908.
 Mr. A. H. Miller, secretary Medford Commercial club, Medford, Or.
 Dear Sir: We have your favor of the 9th inst., saying that you have had some correspondence with a gentleman in Chicago, who is thinking of going to Medford, and that you have referred him to us. If he comes, we shall certainly give the valley a big 'boost' and try to induce him to go out there and locate. Whenever you have any inquiries of this nature in this vicinity please refer them to us and we shall gladly give them all the information we can, as we are pretty well acquainted with the excellent resources of the Rogue River valley.
 I take this occasion to congratulate you and your club for the excellent way in which you are promoting the valley. You people certainly know how to advertise. Your letterheads are the best I ever saw and the one that gets a letter from you, written on these letterheads, will certainly think twice before he decides not to go to the valley, if he is looking for a new location. I predict that the Rogue River valley will be as thickly populated inside of ten years as the Santa Clara Valley is in California.
 Wishing you the best of success, we are, yours very truly,
 WESTERN OREGON ORCHARDS COMPANY, per J. A. W. Westlund.
 Sunset's Little Boost.

The following is from the Sunset Magazine to a Cincinnati inquirer, showing how the magazine boosts for Medford:
 April 18, 1908.
 Mr. Horace G. Horstman, Cincinnati, Ohio.
 Dear Sir: We have your valued favor of March 28, requesting information concerning fruit-raising on the western coast of Washington, with information as to markets and facilities.
 It gives us pleasure to send you under separate cover a booklet which has just been issued on Medford, Oregon, which is unquestionably one of the greatest fruit districts not only of the west, but of the entire country. We can heartily recommend the Rogue River valley and you will make no mistake by locating in that section.
 Any further information will gladly be furnished you by addressing Secretary, Medford Commercial club, Medford, Or.
 Very truly yours,
 SUNSET MAGAZINE HOMESEEKERS' BUREAU.
 By N. W., Manager.

J. THORBURN ROSS CONVICTED BY JURY

Takes One Hour and Eleven Minutes to Find Portland Bankrecker Guilty of Having Converted Money Known by Him to Belong to the State.

SALEM, Or., April 24.—J. Thorburn Ross, the Portland banker, president of the defunct Title Guarantee & Trust Co., was convicted yesterday afternoon of having converted money known by him to be school funds. The jury was out one hour and 11 minutes.
 Unable or unwilling to break the mysterious ties that bind him to the interests of J. Thorburn Ross, State Treasurer Steel couldn't remember the incidents concerning which the state wanted him to testify today in the case against the former president of the defunct Title Guarantee & Trust company. Steel told very readily of finding, when he took the office in January, 1907, that his predecessor had $35,000 on deposit in this bank, but when he was asked about his own transactions his memory failed. His chief clerk had transacted nearly all the business, he said, and he could not remember having talked with Ross about state deposits and could not recollect any conversation with Ross about the educational fund or about the law by means of which that enormous fund was turned over to the Ross bank without interest. Though he segregated the funds in the Ross bank when the new law went into effect and called one fund "educational," he did not remember ever having told the bank officials that this fund was made up of school funds.

Are You Particular About What Sort of Food You Eat?
 If so you must care how it is cooked—the right sort of a stove is not the only thing necessary to insure perfectly cooked food—but it is a very important factor. Why not have the best stove that brains and money can produce?
The Moore Range leads the world—it costs no more to buy a Moore and in the time and money saved a Moore stove actually costs a good deal less. The Moore is the only range constructed expressly to burn wood. No other stove has a daylight oven. Mrs. Royer's thermometer guide in the oven door is a great aid to perfect baking. It is exclusive with the Moore Range.
 Ask anybody who knows and you will get the same answer, that "Moore's Ranges always please."
 H. E. BOYDEN has sold 500 of them. It is to your interest to ask him to show them to you.
