

AMUSEMENTS

(BY ED ANDREWS)

The Marguerite Les company at the opera house last night appeared in the beautiful comedy, "Hearts of the Blue Ridge." The troupe is a well-balanced one and gives a very smooth and satisfactory performance.

Mr. Wallace Howe did the part of Sam Carter in a very effective manner. Mr. Howe is a good actor and we may look for good things from him in the repertoire of the week.

"America's Mission" will be the title of Captain Hobson's lecture next Monday evening at the opera house. He says in part: "Japan is heading the yellow race, and is intending to grapple with the white nations of the world for supremacy."

BUTTE FALLS ITEMS

Mrs. Frank Netherland and son are in the valley and will visit the circus, after which she will visit her kin at Talent for several days.

Wheeler & Claspill are adding to their stock and are doing a good business.

The boys on the unsurveyed are jubilant as the day approaches for the beginning of the government survey of their lands.

Charles Edmondson talks of opening up a butcher shop, which is much needed.

H. C. Mahoney has gone to his home-stead.

Dr. J. F. Reddy, accompanied by a party of eastern capitalists, passed through Butte Falls lately and extended their trip some five miles farther.

BOILER EXPLOSION

PORTSMOUTH, England, April 28.—According to wireless received here, there has been a boiler explosion on the British battleship Britannia in which several men were injured. The Britannia is expected to arrive here this evening.

Housewives

When you consider time-saving and labor-saving devices in cooking for the family, MOORE'S RANGES SURPASS ALL OTHERS.

Ask those of your neighbors who have Moores, if this fact is not so—that a Moore Range is the biggest kitchen comfort a housekeeper can have. Ask BOYDEN, the man who has sold 500 Moores during the last seven years to families in this valley, what the unanimous verdict of his customers has been.
