Merritt will represent Central Point's Deborah lodge in the convention that will be held at Salem this month. T. M. Jones is the delegate to the grand lodge of the I. O. O. F. from that town. Arthur Brown, who recently sold his place, located a few miles west of Central Point, to A. L. Atkins for $6000, will go to the Willamette valley and probably visit his former home in Kansas later. Miss Lucie George, one of Josephine county's popular young school teachers, has been selected by the Pacific Monthly Magazine to represent Grants Pass in the rose carnival that will be held at Portland June 1-6. M. Purdin and D. H. Miller, candidates for representative on Statement No. 1 platform, will soon begin a canvass of Jackson county. They will vote for whomsoever the people of Oregon decide shall be United States senator, no matter what his politics is. This is eminently proper. A former sheep hand fondly fondly this morning and shouted: "It is an infamous fraud upon the people." Up on investigation it was learned he had reference to the single tax movement which will be voted on at the June election. It is doubtful if our farmers in one hundred years for it. Louis Adams, the Elmer merchant, was down from the Blue Tadge last week. Henry Teal, the affable representative of Morris Bros., bond brokers, who returned to Portland from a visit to Eugene last week, says the college town is growing so rapidly that its growth is one of the wonders of the Willamette valley. Mr. Teal speaks as a lover of Medford. Both of these cities are making extensive public improvements and have many gilt-edged bonds to sell. North, one of the proprietors of the Economy market, is critically ill with membranous croup.

CITY OF MEDFORD
The year 1907 demonstrated beyond all question that the justly famous Rogue River valley is one of the greatest fruit sections of the world. Indeed, the records made in orchards adjacent to Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass are so wonderful as to almost surpass belief. For example, a carload of De Coince pears, shipped from Medford, grossed $4822.50. This is the best fruit car record of the world, and is equivalent to the remarkable price of 17 cents per pound for fruit at wholesale. The best previous price for a carload of fresh fruit is also held by the Rogue River valley. In 1907, 10 1/2 acres of Winter Nellis pears produced $19,900 net f. o. b. shipping point. Fifty-five trees of Yellow Newtown Pippins produced 815 boxes of fruit, which, in spite of the financial panic in London, netted $1711.50 net. These trees grew on less than one acre. The three-acre orchard from which this fruit was taken has produced an average amount of $599 net per year for the last eight years. One hundred and fifty-two Yellow Newtown Pippin trees produced in 1907 $2125 f. o. b. Medford. These trees grew on three acres. From eight acres near Ashland 6000 boxes of Newtown Pippin apples were marketed in 1907, netting $2000 an acre f. o. b. orchard. For the past seven years this orchard has netted $791 per acre average. Seven acres of Bartlett pears near Medford in 1907 grossed $2200 per acre. A young Bartlett pear orchard of 30 acres of 5-year-old trees netted $1065 per acre. Twenty Winter Nellis pear trees netted $660. These figures show the wonderful profit made in 1907 from apple and pear orchards about Medford—a profit exceeding $1000 per acre in many cases. Although the records for 1906 do not show such wonderful returns, the figures are, nevertheless, exceedingly large. Three-fourths of an acre of Spitzenbergs produced 557 boxes in 1906, which brought $1174. Four acres of Spitzenbergs brought $2112.10. Twenty-two acres of pears in 1906 produced 6441 boxes of fruit, which sold for $8884 f. o. b. cars. The significant fact of the wonderful resources and possibilities of the Rogue River valley is shown by the offer of the Medford Commercial club to pay $500 to any one who can show by authentic testimony that any city or town in the United States, outside of a 45-mile circle, including Ashland and Grants Pass, with Medford as a center, has tributary to it, within the same radius, as many diversified resources as Medford, Or., can show within the corresponding radius. Among the resources of this wonderful valley are the following: Apples, pears, cherries, apricots, grapes, berries, nectarines, radishes, tomatoes, horseradish, asparagus, prunes, figs, artichokes, potatoes, onions, carrots, sugar corn, chestnuts, almonds, hazelnuts, walnuts, peanuts, lettuce, cauliflowers, watermelons, peas, beans, butter, cheese, tobacco, rye, cattle, hogs, sheep, goats, honey, lime, marble granite, iron, talc, mica, jade, onyx, chrome, agate, garnets, tellurium, lead, platinum, diamonds, gold, silver, copper, cedar, oak, cedar pine, Douglas fir, white pine, black oak, madrone, asbestos, artemisia water, mineral springs, sand stone, water power, alfalfa, etc., etc. Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass all have progressive and enthusiastic Commercial clubs, which will gladly answer any inquiries.
Leading Freight by Cards. "I don't know whether the practice is still kept up in the far south, but I remember how tickled I was at seeing the method used in loading goods into freight cars down in Mississippi some while ago," said a railroad man of St. Louis. "A lot of strapping black fellows will be in the job under the supervision of a white man who will be loading or unloading with great volubility. 'That's about the kind of fellows I like to see,' said the white man. 'I don't know whether the practice is still kept up in the far south, but I remember how tickled I was at seeing the method used in loading goods into freight cars down in Mississippi some while ago,' said a railroad man of St. Louis.

AMUSEMENTS
The cleverest comedy produced in many years, "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," will be presented at the Medford theater for one night, next Saturday evening, May 16. This play ran for over 200 nights in New York City last season and was later produced at the Waldorf theater in London. In both cities it was received by the press and public with the greatest praise. This will be the first time that the play has been seen in the west and the company which will present the comedy has been selected with the greatest care. Every member has been engaged for his or her fitness for the part they are required to play. William Leonard, who assumes the leading part, is a young actor who for the past two seasons has been associated with the best stock organizations in San Francisco and Portland, and is considered one of the best comedians on the stage today. Edward Emery, who plays the opposite part to Mr. Underwood, is an English actor and was in the original cast of the play when presented in London. The other members of the company include Norral MacGregor, Joseph Bailey, Edward Lawrence, Francis Shanon, Eleanor Gibson, Claudia Colson and Margaret Snow, who was the "College Widow" last season. "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" is a laugh from start to finish and to miss this performance will be one of the regrets of the theatrical season. Seats for the entire engagement are now on sale at the box office of the theater. Mrs. Jennina Hathaway of Josephine county, the venerable mother of S. F. Hathaway of Central Point precinct, has been paying her son and his family a visit.

Buy Tickets by Wire. "Something which is of considerable interest to the public generally and which is perhaps not generally known is the system of prepaid orders now in effect between stations of the Southern Pacific company and all points in the United States. By means of this system tickets may be purchased at Medford from any place in the United States and mailed or telegraphed direct to the party wishing to come here. Sleeper accommodations and small amounts of cash in connection with these tickets may also be furnished at the same time."
