CARNIVAL QUEEN CONTEST WAKES UP

The carnival queen contest is not arousing the enthusiasm which its sponsors had hoped for. People are not asking for the votes that they are entitled to when they purchase at the progressive stores that give the votes away.

The girls themselves are quite enthusiastic over the prospect, and whoever the lucky ones are that are the winners will receive the congratulations of their many friends. But the poll of the votes has so far been comparatively light.

There are about two weeks remaining in which to decide it.

The contestants still in the race are as follows:

The contestants are: Hazel Tice, Miss Gaddis, Maud Allen, Estan Eifer, Prudence Angle, Lou Hartzell, Miss Hamilton, Miss Mabel Kent, Miss Casadina Pymms, Mrs. C. T. Gaddis, Mrs. Anna Danielson.

Wise Talks By the Office Boy

Pa says a rose by any other name would be just as expensive back east this time of year.

I sometimes think he pines for the piney woods in old Penobscot, Frappe County, Maine, where he was raised—but that's one thing yours truly never years for.

The good mountains and the good old ocean and nice old Oregon atmosphere are good enough for me. But it's all in how you were raised. Pa likes clam chowder and corn on the cob, and harvest apples and a lot of things that a kid who was born this side of the snow sheds hasn't had much chance to get acquainted with.

Those who have lived on both sides of this great country and lived long enough to know what's what can get all those things just as nice one place as another, if you know where to buy.

We've got clam chowder from Boston that is just as nice as any you ever ate on the sand, and lots of other things that have that "Down East" taste.
