

PROPOSED LAWS TO BE VOTED UPON

List of Measures on Ballot People Are to Pass Upon—Mark This at Home, Cut It Out and Take It to the Polls to Copy on Ballot, as It Will Save Time in Casting Votes.

Following is a complete list of the new laws to be decided by the voters of Oregon at the general election to be held on Monday, June 1st, arranged just as they will appear on the official ballot.

The liquor prohibition law for Jackson county is to be added to this list. Referred to the People by the Legislative Assembly.

For an amendment of Section 25 (evidently intended to be Section 29) of Article IV of the constitution, changing the compensation of members of the legislature to $400 for each regular session and $10 per day for each extra session, instead of $3 per day and mileage. (Section 25 provides the time when laws take effect, and the proposed amendment is, therefore, wrongly numbered.)

For an amendment of Section 7 of Article XIV of the constitution, to permit the location of state institutions elsewhere than at the seat of government by act of the legislature and vote of the people.

An amendment to Article VII of the constitution by increasing the number of judges of the supreme court from three to five, until otherwise provided by law, and authorizing the legislative assembly to provide by appropriate legislation for the exercise by the circuit courts, of the probate jurisdiction theretofore exercised by the county courts, and for the transaction of county business by and before some appropriate body or tribunal.

For amendment of Section 14 of Article II of the constitution, changing the time of holding the regular general biennial elections from the first Monday in June to the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.
