CHILDREN TO PARADE IN PROHIBITION CAUSE

Children and older members of the Sunday schools who believe in prohibition are requested to meet at their churches and march of the park, where the parade will start at 1 P. M. All should be there to start on time. All those who have flags at home bring them.

The parade will be led by drum corps. Leave the park and march down Seventh street to Nash hotel, where the line will form in a letter "S" and halt and sing the new "Marching Through Georgia," led by the cornet; then proceed to corner of C and Seventh and form in the shape of letter "S" and sing "America," led by the band, followed by a solo by Rev. Hall, and a selection by the male quartet. Then proceed to B and Seventh streets, then south to Eighth and back on C street, with the band playing.

Many banners will be displayed, and every boy and girl in Medford is invited.

TO KNOW VALUES

Do You Examine What You Buy?

To actually know values one must compare the goods. If we bought goods from one jobbing house alone and never looked at any other lines, we could not possibly know values or give you the best goods. We invite a comparison of our goods with any you buy in the city, and feel sure of getting out.
