MANCHURIAN RAILROAD

EARNED $5,000,000 LAST YEAR
TOKIO, June 1.—The reports of the South Manchurian railroads were made public today for the year ending March 31. They show that the total amount earned was 1,337,791 pounds sterling.

Mr. Meeker says his trip has been a success in every way. The people everywhere, he says, were particularly glad to see him and welcomed him with open arms. In New York city where Mr. Meeker remained two months, the aldermen passed a special ordinance allowing his ox team to appear on the streets of America's metropolis. Since he left the coast in January, 1906, Mr. Meeker has lived in the open most of the time, and visited most of the principal cities of the country. As a result, he is still "77 years young," as he puts it himself. While away one his oxen died, but the other still remains in service. The mate was taken from the stockyards at Omaha and has since traveled more than 3000 miles, dragging the prairie schooner and driver all those miles.

A son has been born to the wife of Mr. Beck. The mother and child are doing well.
Colonel Briggs, father of our postmaster, is down from his homestead.
The school commencement passed off with great credit to the patrons and Miss Prim, the teacher. Miss Fredenburg graduated to the high school.
The Roundtop mill is running and turning out some nice lumber, which is in ready demand.
A Mr. West from the Iowa camp reports about 15 men employed at the camp. Some little boxing lumber is being hauled out for the Medford box factory.
Mr. Heberley is working at the Roundtop mill in company with Mr. Hayes of Medford and reports that Mr. Wolverton is in Woodville looking after some land interests.
The Albert hall annex is finished and adds very much to the appearance and convenience of the new hall.
Attorney Pentz has been here for several days, but does not find any judicial matters requiring his present attention.
It is reported that the railroad lays claim to a large part of the unsurveyed section and that the boys will have to stand firmly upon their rights and not be deprived of their homes and their years of labor. These homesteaders are a deserving class of men, and it is the duty of the government to secure to them their legal rights and not permit the greedy, grasping railroad to deprive them of their prior claims.
There has been some pretense made to repairing our roads in places, but apart from removing some rocks from the Obenchain hill but little, and that very poorly, has been done as can be seen by travelers.

Cut Glass---June Weddings

You perhaps know of some June bride. I don't. We know that they all appreciate cut glass. No one receives too much of it in the line of presents. If you are planning a gift that will be appreciated, you can not do better than to see my line of cut glass—vases, bowls, decanters, cruet, tumblers—all useful and ornamental presents and sure to be prized by your friend. I sell the celebrated Hawkes line of cut glass—unsurpassed in quality and in design of cutting. The prices on my cut glass have always been popular ones, never too high, just such as would guarantee quality.
