

MARSHFIELD ALSO TO RELY UPON CHARTER

Case Is Similar to Medford—Local Option Law to Be Tested as Privilege Supersedes State Authority—Liquor Dealers Will Appeal to Supreme Court

MARSHFIELD, Or., June 3.—There has arisen a legal point in regard to the local option fight in this county which may mean a lawsuit after the election. It is announced that if the county should go dry the liquor interests will go to the supreme court for a decision as to how it affects Marshfield.

Since the local option law was adopted Marshfield was granted a charter in which it states that the city council has the right to license, tax and regulate the saloons. Some of the lawyers hold that this means that it is entirely up to the city council as to whether or not there shall be saloons and that, even though the county should vote dry, as a whole, it will not affect this city. At least this is the claim that is made, and it is declared that the saloons will not close until there has been a decision from the supreme court.

This applies only to the Marshfield charter, so, if the county as a whole should go dry, the other towns would be compelled to close the saloons. If the county as a whole goes wet the districts or towns which vote dry must be dry and the cities voting wet can be wet, but this does not apply if the county as a whole goes dry, unless, of course, the saloon interests can win in their claim that the Marshfield charter is not affected.

WESTERN STATES TO GET FOREST RESERVE COIN

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The fact that western states are hereafter to receive 25 per cent of the receipts of forest reserves in lieu of 10 per cent which they have received during the past two years, is due very largely to the work of Senator Fulton and Representative Hawley of Oregon. It was Mr. Fulton who proposed the amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill in the senate, and it was Mr. Hawley who persuaded the house conferees to accept the amendment, after they had held out long and announced that they would not stand for the increase. Behind this legislation is an interesting story.

The original proposition to give the states a share of the receipts from forest reserves—that is, a part of the money received from sales of timber, grazing privileges, etc., was first advanced by Mr. Fulton two years ago. He contended that the reservation of land decreased the taxable area of those counties in which reserves were located, and correspondingly made the burden the heavier on property holders. He said the counties should be compensated for the money they would ultimately receive in taxes, should the reserved land pass to private ownership, and he contended for 25 per cent of the receipts, the money to be paid by the federal government to the states and by the states pro rata to the various counties affected, to be used for school purposes and for the building of roads. At that time, however, congress would not consent to give the states 25 per cent, and reduced the amount to 10 per cent.

JACKSON COUNTY PROHIBS PLEASE TAKE WARNING

CHICAGO, June 3.—Water intoxication, induced by too copious use of water externally or internally was pointed out last night by Dr. L. D. Mason, vice-president of the American Society for the Study of Inebriety, Alcohol and Drug Neurosis, as being as dangerous as over-indulgence in alcohol.

Dr. Mason, a leading physician and philanthropist of Brooklyn, delegate to the American Medical association convention, addressed inmates of the Washington home on "Why Men Drink." He declared patent medicine drunkenness almost as prevalent as the generally recognized form.

"I have a friend who is a victim of aqua ammonia," he said. "He spends hours in a bath tub and drinks so much water that he has reduced the solids of his body and worked serious injury to himself. Many men and women drink too much water and are victims of that form of intoxication."

CONGRESS SPENDS BIGGEST SUM IN COUNTRY'S HISTORY

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Representative Tawney of Minnesota, chairman of the committee on appropriations, today presented to the house his annual review of fiscal appropriations and expenditures. The keynote of his speech was sounded in the declaration that "the insistent demands of the people and of the public service result in an increased aggregate when enacted into law;" and the "efforts of the majority to maintain a policy of greater economy were frustrated by an obstructive and recalcitrant minority." Tawney stated the total appropriations of the session to be $851,088,670. He said the total revenues of the government estimated to congress by the secretary of the treasury are placed at $878,123,011; that in addition to the authorized expenditure of $851,088,670 for the operation of the government during the next fiscal year, appropriations are also made as follows:

In deficiency acts, exclusive of $12,466,750 for public buildings authorized at this session, $44,529,223; for requirements of this session, $18,000,000; for redemption of national bank notes, $25,000,000; for construction of the Panama canal (bonds to be issued), $29,187,000; for miscellaneous and special objects, $1,000,000, including $250,000 for the relief of storm and flood sufferers in the southern states, and $403,000 for the payments of claims of the Roman Catholic church in the Philippine islands, making a grand aggregate for the next fiscal year of $1,008,804,894.

Tawney said the estimates submitted to congress by the executive as a basis for the appropriations made amounted to $1,079,449,288, or an excess of $70,440,644 over the total of the appropriations of this session, and an excess of $158,651,145 over all the appropriations made at the last session. A subtraction of the totals of estimates and appropriations, he said, showed that the present house cut down the estimates for the ordinary operating expenses of the government $124,847,172.

The grand total of appropriations made at this session exceeded those of last session by $88,006,750.

WOMEN CROSS CONTINENT IN AUTO FROM MAINE

CHICAGO, June 3.—The women transcontinental motor tourists who set out from Portland, Me., on May 12, determined to make a 4000-mile run overland to Portland, Or., have arrived in Chicago. They pulled into the city in high spirits and expect to resume their junket at noon tomorrow. Mrs. E. E. Teape and her daughter, Mrs. Vera McKelvie, are the only members of the expedition which is the first of its kind ever undertaken by women automobilists.

They left their home in Sandy Point, Ia., in April, and going to Portland, Me., made ready for their journey westward to the Pacific slope. Their machine, a 600-pound affair, is equipped with a small engine, which is capable only of developing eight horse power. From Cheyenne, the tourists will head north across Idaho to Portland.

RUSH OF LAND SEEKERS AT TWIN FALLS LOTTERY

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, June 3.—More than 4000 land seekers were on hand for the drawing for the irrigated lands under the Twin Falls-Salmon River project, registration for which closed last night. O. H. Paulsen of Colorado, drew ticket No. 1, entitling him to his choice of a quarter section of the tract.

The total registration for the drawing was 4029 and the amount of land sought ranged from 40 to 160 acres. A million and a half dollars were deposited in the form of certified check for water rights and application was made for 500,000 acres of land, more than six times as much as can be supplied.

Governor Gooding, members of the state land board and other high state officials were in the city today to participate in the opening. The drawing began during a downpour of rain, but by noon the weather had cleared.

Wise Talks By the Office Boy

Pa says a rose by any other name would be just as expensive back east this time of year.

I sometimes think he pines for the piney woods in old Peaboscot, Frappe County, Maine, where he was raised—but that's one thing yours truly never years for. The good mountains and the good old ocean are good enough for me. But it's all in how you were raised. Pa likes clam chowder and corn on the cob, and harvest apples and a lot of things that a kid who was born this side of the snow sheds hasn't had much chance to get acquainted with. Those who have lived on both sides of this great country and lived long enough to know what's what can get all these things just as nice one place as another, if you know where to buy. We've got clam chowder from Boston that is just as nice as any you ever ate on the sand, and lots of other things that have that "Bawa East" taste.
