

TO CAST VOTE FOR HER DAD

Daughter of Wm. J. Bryan Has Been Named as Delegate to Colorado State Convention.

DENVER, Col., June 5.—It is not improbable that Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt, daughter of William J. Bryan, will have the honor and supreme satisfaction of casting a vote for her father in the democratic convention at Denver.

Mrs. Leavitt had not dreamed of such distinction until she was named on Thursday as a delegate at large to the state democratic convention to be held at Glenwood Springs, June 15. She will head the delegation from Denver county in which she resides, and today prominent democrats who wield much influence in the state convention were discussing her chances for election as a delegate to the national convention.

MUCH AGITATION OVER APPOINTMENT OF ARCHBISHOP

ROME, June 5.—Because of the animosity that has entered into the discussion about the appointment of the conductor archbishop of San Francisco, no one will be delegated to the post for an indefinite time, according to a statement made to the United Press today by a high prelate of the congregation of Propaganda Fide. The informant said:

"The trouble arose over the insistence with which the numerous supporters of Dr. Hannah presented his name to the congregation of the Propaganda Fide. The archbishop of San Francisco and his clergy gave the impression at Rome that he was trying to dictate the appointment of Dr. Hannah.

The dispute about Dr. Hannah has been carried over into the college of cardinals. Cardinal Sartori is a very warm supporter of Dr. Hannah and is working for him continually, but other cardinals oppose him because of the modernism charged.

STANFORD STUDENTS ARRIVE IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 5.—The Stanford university athletes arrived here yesterday confident and in excellent condition for the try for the western championship which will be held Saturday.

The Stanford boys took up their quarters in the Del Prado hotel and were the objects of much attention by field sport enthusiasts. They held their first "limbering up practice" after their long trip in the morning and made a good showing.

Coach Stagg of Chicago university looked the lads over and said he was confident in his belief that they would carry first honors in the contest.

The Californians, however, look with some question on the assurances from Stagg. It is a well known custom of Chicago university to crack up its opponents to contests of all kinds.

WATER TESTS BURST PIPES ON FOURTH STREET

Work upon the water system, which has been rushed with all possible speed, received a slight setback yesterday morning, when an all-day test under water pressure of the pipe, which has already been laid, planned for yesterday, was abruptly terminated early in the forenoon by the bursting of several sections of the pipe which had been laid on Fourth street. The accident was not serious, and after a short delay required to replace the defective pipe, the entire first section which has now been completed, will be subjected to a high water pressure and then the open trenches at present a serious menace to public safety will be filled up.

The steam ditcher has been moved to West Seventh street and started working yesterday opposite the Hotel Moore.

GRANT CASE DISMISSED IN THE FEDERAL COURT

Upon motion of Tracey C. Becker, special assistant to Attorney-General Bonaparte, the case against the United States and the Attorney-General brought by John R. Herrin, and others against Southern Oregon and Coos Bay Wagon Road land cases has been dismissed by Judge Wolverton in the circuit court this morning, on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction.

GREEN APHIS INVADES OREGON GRAIN FIELDS

Report comes that the green aphid is invading the grain fields and orchards of portions of eastern Oregon and a great loss is the result to farmers. Even the alfalfa fields have been attacked and some of them present the appearance as though a fire had swept over them. The bugs swept over the lands in perfect clouds.

ELECTION OF CHAMBERLAIN IMPRESSES WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—The election of Chamberlain has absorbed Washington politicians. The Times and Star both comment that the popular election issue is well defined, and hence should be assumed the popular mandate to be carried out by the legislature.

The Star says: "Republicans voted for Chamberlain knowing his politics and that as a senator he would act with the democratic party. He who took this stand put his personality above party considerations. There could have been no understanding to the contrary, for Governor Chamberlain's character and popularity repels the bare suggestion. Should these instructions be obeyed, undoubtedly, illogical as the result is, it will represent the popular will, and show that ours is a government by majority. People of Oregon have spoken and with full knowledge of the matter before them. They knew Governor Chamberlain's political views of the office to which he aspired, and have expressed preference for him to represent them in the senate for the next six years."

TOMATOES AND RED PEPPER BREAK UP EXERCISES

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., June 5.—Ripe tomatoes and red pepper can be used with great success in breaking up graduation exercises, as demonstrated in the high school here, when a chorus of sneezes and coughs greeted Professor E. Percival Lewis of the University of California, the principal speaker.

Before the exercises were opened on Thursday night some mischievous person very carefully sprinkled red pepper in large quantities around the room and then stood near, armed with over-ripe tomatoes. Everything went well until the sneezing of feet began to stir up the pepper. Presently Professor Lewis mounted the platform. When he heard the sneezing and coughing he felt injured, but after he had scraped his feet in embarrassment for a few seconds the pepper began to rise and he joined the sneezing chorus.

The professor then presented the diplomas, after experiencing a hard time of it, ending the exercises, for the tomatoes began to fly thick and fast, everybody dodging the red vegetable.

PORTLAND ROSE SHOW PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

PORTLAND, Or., June 5.—Millions of roses, hundreds of miles of bright hunting, tons of serpentine, myriad flags, scores of novelties, big daily parades and special features are all doing their full share to make the reign of roses an eventful week in the history of Portland.

But the keynote of success, the feature which is giving the annual festival its unparalleled success is the responsive enthusiasm of the people. This spirit of loyal support has been manifested from the first, and with the succeeding days of the celebration there has been no falling away of loyalty. Rather it has been increasing.

BELINGHAM CANNING SEASON HAS OPENED

BELLINGHAM, Wash., June 5.—The salmon canning season was opened yesterday by the Pacific American association in South Bellingham and thousands of wheels, belt and pulleys were set in motion for the first time in many months, preparing the most commercial fish of the season into a delicious table delicacy. Not many fish were canned, but the few which were brought in from the salmon banks. The company ordered shipments of from 10 to 20 fish each day until the first of July, when a big run is looked for. When the canning season is at its best six lines of machines will be running.

CHAMBERLAIN HAS CARRIED SALEM AND MARION COUNTY

SALEM, Or., June 5.—Complete unofficial count in Marion county gives Chamberlain a plurality of 138 votes. The county stands as follows: Cato, 3145; Chamberlain, 3283.

The county is wet by a majority against prohibition of 553. One precinct, Scott's Mills, went unanimously wet. Three precincts in Salem are dry and the city of Salem is wet by the small margin of 64 votes. The university appropriation lost by a majority of 1440 and equal suffrage lost by a majority of 1266.

CONTESTS WILL, CLAIMS BROTHER USED INFLUENCE

ALBANY, Or., June 5.—Because she only received $500 from her father's $75,000 estate, Miss Alameda Caldwell accuses her brother, George W. Caldwell, an attorney of Portland, of using undue influence over their aged father. Miss Caldwell has filed contest against the will of V. H. Caldwell, who died April 8 at the age of 77 years. Caldwell left 14 children, and the will provides that seven of them receive $500 each, while the other seven are bequeathed from $1 to $4500 each.

STOCKTON SCHOOL TO ELIMINATE STUDY OF MODERN LANGUAGES

STOCKTON, Cal., June 5.—After weeks of investigation the city board of education decided today to eliminate the study of modern languages from the schools here. Greek is also included in the language under the ban, the board taking the position that they take too much time that might be spent on other studies.

Is Champion Rifle Shot.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Company C, Fourteenth infantry, made the best target record for the season of 1907, according to figures made public at the war department today. The individual figure of Troop D in the Philippines was $8.79, considerably higher than in the United States, where the individual figure of merit was 79.63.

MAN DISAPPEARS; FRIENDS FEAR FOUL PLAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 5.—Detectives who have been working on the case discovered no clue today that leads to the solution of the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Daniel B. Wyandt, the Stockton man who dropped out of sight suddenly Tuesday.

Wyandt had been staking with friends here and was last seen when he left the home Tuesday afternoon. As there is no known reason why he should have committed suicide, it is feared that he has met with foul play. He had considerable sum of money in his pockets when he left home.

RYAN GAVE MONEY TO BRYAN CAMPAIGN

LINCOLN, Neb., June 5.—William J. Bryan today confirmed the story that Thomas Fortune Ryan, the New York traction magnate, contributed $15,000 to a fund to be used by Bryan in the state campaign in 1904 and at the same time the commoner announced his determination to pay back the money to Ryan out of his own pocket.

When the report was first published Bryan denied any knowledge of the contribution, but at once made an investigation.

Returning from his northwestern Nebraska trip today, he said it was true that Ryan had given the $15,000.

The question now arises as to whether Ryan will take the money if Bryan offers to return it. The traction king is not noted for refusing ready cash but his attitude is awaited with much interest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 5.—George A. Knight, the republican orator of California, today confirmed the report that he will make a speech seconding the nomination of Secretary Taft at the Chicago convention. He said that his remarks were entirely extemporaneous.
