LAW SAYS BANKS MUST PAY INTEREST ON MONEY

WASHINGTON, June 6 .- Under the terms of the new currency law passed by congress in the closing hours of the last session, banks in which funds of the government are deposited must hereafter pay interest for the use of such funds. An exception is made in the ease of those favored banking as-sociations designated as "National de-positories," in which funds are placed strictly for the use of the government's own expenses. There is outstanding about $72,000,000 of government funds on which interest must hereafter be paid by banks, and by an odd coinci-dence the national depositories are not subject to the tax.

It was stated at the treasury depart ment yesterday that not only would the tax be charged on all deposits of government money loaned in the future, but that the government funds depos-ited in banks from the time the new law became effective must bear interest. The rate of interest chargeable is to be not less than I per cent, and as much more as the secretary of the treasury may deem proper. For the present, however, the rate will be I per cent per

In the south and west each year huge ums of money are necessary to mov the crops, and the government funds have frequently aided greatly in relieving the situation. During the recen ment funds from the banks. Hereafter the banks must pay for money lent by the government to move the crops.
