CHAMBERLAIN TO MAKE EFFORT OF HIS LIFE

SALEM, Or., June 8.—S. S. Pentz, Esq., Medford, Or.—My Dear Sir and Friend: I thank you very much for your cordial letter of congratulation. I assure you I appreciate the honor which has been done me by the people of Oregon, and I will make the effort of my life from this time on to show my appreciation by so discharging my public duties as not to disappoint those who have so implicitly trusted me. Again thanking you and all who so generously assisted me, I have the honor to remain, yours very truly, GEO. E. CHAMBERLAIN.

FIFTEEN DAYS FOR FREIGHT PITTSBURG TO MEDFORD

Fifteen days from Pittsburg, Pa., to Medford is the new freight record made by the Southern Pacific, when a car of wire fence ordered by Giddie & Dixon reached here Tuesday night. The service from Portland to Medford was routed over the Harriman lines and their eastern connections.

MRS. MACKAY SHOOKS WICKED, WICKED-RENO

RENO, Nev., June 10.—Wicked, wicked Reno was so shocked it could hardly eat breakfast today and the thrills came from the tenderest of tenderfoots that ever got within a mile of Commercial street. Mrs. Clarence Mackay, a member of the four hundred who resides in New York, London and other world capitals, last night smoked a cigarette in the presence of men at a banquet given in honor of her husband by the upper social set of the city.

Miner Enters Blazing Powder Magazine in Bowels of Earth to Save Lives of Companions.

Butte, Mont., June 10.—Bravely entering a blazing powder magazine 300 feet below the surface of the earth, Michael Dunn, foreman of the Lexington-copper and silver mine, extinguished the flames just in time to prevent an explosion of 1250 pounds of dynamite, saved the lives of 200 men and the mine from total destruction. Dunn is the hero of the camp today.

ROSEBURG WILL BE BOTH HOT AND DRY

ROSEBURG, Or., June 10.—The result of the vote on the liquor question will put 15 saloons in this city out of business on July 1. This will also close the Roseburg brewery, and from a statement made by the proprietor, Joseph Mielieb, it will also close the ice plant and Roseburg will be both hot and dry for some time to come. Mr. Mielieb says the ice plant will not pay without the saloon trade. Consequently Roseburg will have to ship in ice until the city grows to such an extent that the operation of such a plant on general principles will be a profitable business. The dry vote also cuts off a $9000 annual revenue from the city, which will cause increased taxation to make up the amount. It will close up 25 saloons in the county.

SNOW VERY DEEP AT CRATER LAKE

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., June 10.—The snow around Crater Lake station is nine feet deep, and below the station is four to five feet on the level. Lumber will be hauled to the summit for this summer's improvements, and later will be hauled up the mountain. It will be several weeks before parties can go to the lake.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE AT KLAMATH A SUCCESS

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., June 10.—The farmers' institute in this city Saturday was a grand success. The attendance was large and the land owners in this county were very enthusiastic in the matter of securing information that will help them develop the resources of the Klamath county.

YREKA ON TRIAL FOR BURGLARY AT YREKA

YREKA, Cal., June 10.—The trial of George Mings, charged with burglarizing the store of Charles Schock of Montague, a short time since, is being held in the superior court. James D. Furbush is representing the defendant, and District Attorney Luttrell the prosecution.

KAW RIVER FLOODS DELUGE KANSAS CITY

TAFT CENSURED BY CONFEDERATE VETERANS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 10.—"Untimely" and "ill-advised" are the words used by many Confederate veterans today in hearing the Memorial day speech of Secretary Taft in which reference was made to General Grant's drinking heavily. The United Confederate Veterans began their general conference here today.

BELMONT DIES OF PERITONITIS

New York Millionaire Passes Away Surrounded by Family at Country Villa After Operation.

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., June 10.—O. H. P. Belmont died of appendicitis and peritonitis at his country home at 6:40 o'clock this morning. Hope for his recovery was abandoned last night and the family remained at the bedside until the end.

UNIVERSITY APPROPRIATION GIVEN A GOOD MAJORITY

Complete official returns from all counties but Harney and Wheeler show that the University of Oregon appropriation bill has passed by a majority of 3569. The returns from the above counties will not change the result materially, for their vote is light and will probably break about even on the university question. Multnomah county has given the bill a majority of 9480, instead of 8755 as first announced.

MYSTERIOUSLY SLAIN WHILE AT DEER LICK

News has reached here from Happy Camp, of the accidental death on Klamath river, near Cottage Grove, of Albert Aubrey. It seems that he, in company with two other young men, was watching a deer lick at night. The other two left early and went to another near-by lick, leaving Aubrey alone.

COMPLETE SURVEY OF RAILROAD IN CASCADES

EUGENE, Or., June 10.—C. R. Rankin and a corps of 25 engineers in the employ of the Oregon Eastern came in from San Francisco on Sunday and left for the summit of the Cascade mountains to renew their work on the Natron extension. This is their third year in that section, and they will take up the work where they left it when snow forced them out of the mountains last fall. They expect to complete the survey this season.

18,000 YOUNG TROUT FROM GOVERNMENT HATCHERIES

A shipment of unusual interest to devotees of the fishing sport arrived yesterday in the shape of 18,000 young trout from the Oregon City hatcheries. The trout were placed in Butte creek to replenish the greatly depleted supply there. Dr. Bundy was largely instrumental in obtaining the fish, he being the one who made formal application to the government state officials.

GREAT GAP IN LEVEES

Waters Pour Over Dykes, Submerging Packing Plants--- People Flee for Lives From Torrent.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 10.—The worst flood conditions since the memorable inundation of 1903 prevailed here today. The Kaw river has flooded the west bottom and people living in that portion of the city were compelled to flee for their lives.

CHAMBERLAIN TO BE GOVERNOR AND SENATOR

SALEM, Or., June 10.—Though the senatorial term for which Governor Chamberlain has received the popular vote will begin March next, the governor will retain his present office until December and then take the oath and begin his duties as senator, in case the legislature shall elect him when it meets in January.

PIIONEERS ARRIVE TO ATTEND CANAL BANQUET

PORTLAND, Or., June 10.—Pioneers from all parts of Oregon, Washington and Idaho are arriving to attend the annual reunion and banquet of the Oregon Pioneer society, which opens tomorrow. NEW YORK, June 10.—Out of the boxes opened so far in the recounting of the votes in the disputed mayoralty election contest, Hearst has gained 135 votes that had not originally been counted for him. A total of 1675 boxes remain to be opened.

LOVEIN FLAT FOR RUBY GILMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—"Love in a flat" is good enough for little Ruby Gilman, sister of Mabel Gilman, wife of William C. Corye. "I am not marrying for an estate in France or palaces on Fifth avenue," said she as she started for San Rafael to marry a speller who is engaged at the chutes.

WOMAN WHIPS CURIO DEALER

Husband Holds Merchant While Wife Applies Lash-- Present Bill for Lost Love.

SAN JOSE, Cal., June 10.—Robert S. Field, president of the firm of Field & Walton, dealers in curios, is today nursing a much bruised face and head as the result of a severe whipping administered to him yesterday by Mrs. Meadows, wife of Dr. Lawrence L. Meadows of the Pacific Mail Steamship company. Dr. Meadows held the curio dealer while his wife applied the whip, cutting him severely about the hands. Field says today that he will have the couple arrested.

ROSEBURG WILL BE BOTH HOT AND DRY

ROSEBURG, Or., June 10.—The result of the vote on the liquor question will put 15 saloons in this city out of business on July 1. This will also close the Roseburg brewery, and from a statement made by the proprietor, Joseph Mielieb, it will also close the ice plant and Roseburg will be both hot and dry for some time to come.
