OREGON'S DELEGATION AT DENVER WILL SUPPORT BRYAN

PORTEAND, Ore., June 10 .- Ore gon's delegation of eight members to L. B. Brown, agent. the democratic national convention at time." Denver will vote for and support Wm. J. Brynn ns long as he is a candidate.
The Oregon democratic convention placed its stamp of approval on the Nebraskan's candidacy at the state convention held Thesday.

Aside from indorsing Bryan and pielging him the support of the delegation from this state, the platform adopted by the convention indorsed the mitiative and referendum by which the direct primary law was emacted; in-dered the popular election of United States senators, indersed the adminis-tration of Governor Chamberlain and recommitted the party to the estabby the direct vote of the people; de-nounced the extravagances of the postal service; urged the enactment by cor gress of an addition to the interstate ommerce law that advances in rates shall not become effective until the interstate commerce—commission—can letermine their reasonableness; recon nended postal savings banks and the same system of guaranteeing bank de-posits as provided in the state consti-tution of Oklahoma.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER OF WOMAN ENGROSSES OFFICERS

BELLINGHAM, Wash., June 1 .-With one suspect under lock and key, and posses searching today, the authorities expect that before night they will have solved the mystery of the murder of Mrs. Win. Morrison, whose throat was cut while she was walking along a railroad track with a small girl.

Shortly after the crime was reported by the girl, a posse captured a man who is suspected of having guilty knowledge of the crime, because he could not give an account of his movements for the time it was committed.

Mrs. Morrison was walking leisurely when the murderer suddenly sprang pon her and cut her throat. She died almost instantly.
