CAKE'S SOUND ADVICE.

H. M. Cake, defeated candidate for United States senator, is out with a statement to republican members of the legislature who signed Statement No. 1.

Mr. Cake, in a letter to the Portland Telegram, says: "The official count being complete and Governor Chamberlain having received the popular vote for United States senator, the question has been raised as to the duty of the legislators in the premises who have signed Statement No. 1.

While it is generally admitted that United States senators should be elected by the people, and the Constitution of the United States should be amended so as to provide for such an election, many are opposed to the present system, and the obligation involved in Statement No. 1.

Furthermore, I am firmly convinced that any political party in the state of Oregon will ultimately suffer defeat unless it fully acquiesces in the desire of the people to participate in the election of their senators and to bind the legislature to carry out their will, as expressed in the June election.

FLAG DAY SUNDAY.

Sunday, June 14, is the 131st anniversary of the adoption by congress of the American flag, the Star Spangled Banner.

Resolved, That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the Union be thirteen stars, white, on a blue field, representing a new constellation.

In the early part of the revolutionary war there was no attempt at a national flag, each colony, troop or privateer pleasing itself. The pine tree symbol and the rattlesnake were used with many other designs.

In 1777 the present form was first used, having been improvised and run up over captured British standards at Fort Stanwix on August 8, after the battle of Oriskany.

The first change was in 1794, when two stripes and two stars were added for Vermont and Kentucky. On April 4, 1818, it was ordered that 15 stripes be reduced permanently to 13 in memory of the 13 original colonies and the stars keep pace with the total number of states, on the Fourth of July after each admission.

Nearly 3,000,000 silk flags are made annually in America and many millions of wool bunting and cotton flags. Everywhere the use of flags is increasing as a symbol of patriotism.

PROSPEROUS YEAR FOR STOCKMEN IN OREGON

Indications at this time are that this will be a prosperous year for the stockmen. In all parts of the United States beef packers are complaining that they cannot get enough beef to supply their contracts, and especially in the east they are very much concerned over the apparent shortage.

The sharp rise in prices is said to be due entirely to the shortage in the supply of cattle in the market and already there is talk in the east of having to have beef which was exported to England last winter shipped back to this country in cold storage.

INCREASE IN SALARIES FOR OREGON POSTMASTERS

On the first of July the salaries of presidential postmasters throughout the country will be readjusted on the basis of receipts of their respective offices.

Portland, as heretofore stated, will get an advance of $1000, placing the postmaster in the $6000 class. Other changes take place at the beginning of the fiscal year as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Office, 1908, 1909. Lists salaries for various Oregon offices like Albany, Astoria, Baker, etc.

WIT TELLS HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

Out of the depths of his knowledge on the training of the human body Bob Stinson has dropped a few hints on that troublesome question: "How can you get rid of some of this weight?"

Man and woman alike seek the solution. Perhaps the advice of the ex-hamption is exactly what you need; it is particularly for the business man approaching middle age:

Abstain from the use of all fatty and starchy food. Eat all varieties of green vegetables, fruits and dry toast, and drink your tea without sugar.

There is the diet; now for the exercises. They are not difficult, and I will give you only two movements.

In the first, you must lie flat on your back and then raise your legs up together so they will be at right angles with your body, then slowly let them down to the floor.

In the second movement you must lie down on your stomach. When in this position place your hands on the floor near your chest, and without bending the body, push yourself slowly up to the full length of your arms.

Above all things, you must be regular, and do not look for too speedy results.

You cannot hope to stick to this diet and these exercises for two or three mornings and then jump on the scales and find that you have dropped five or ten pounds.

It will be at least two or three weeks before you commence to lose weight. Then you will drop from two to five pounds a week.

You must impress it upon your mind, however, that there must be no weakening on the tasks that you have laid down for yourself.

Some cold mornings you will get up, possibly after a hard night, feeling languid and unrefreshed. Instead of taking your cold bath, rubdown and exercises you may be tempted to say, "Oh! I'll just skip it this once, and jump into my clothes."

Such weakness is fatal. Persevered!
