CHICAGO IN CLUTCH OF HOT WAVE

Terrific Heat Rules Windy City --- Dozen Prostrations and Two Deaths Before Noon.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 22.—This city today is again in the grip of a terrific heat wave and before noon two deaths and a dozen prostrations were recorded. William Hobsons, fifty-five years of age, a waiter, dropped dead in a downtown alley. Frank Pass, thirty-five, was overcome by the heat and died in a swoon at La Grange, a suburb. The weather bureau promises no relief until tonight. In the business section the pavements and stone walls are throwing off heat waves and it is so oppressive that it is hardly possible to walk on the streets. In many of the crowded offices and in shops and similar places where women workers are employed the suffering is intense. Hot air fans seem merely to keep the hot air stirring and give little relief. The hospitals have received orders to prepare to give swift attention to heat victims and ambulances are kept in readiness. Reports from the packing house district say a number of prostrations have occurred there among the foreign workmen. The torrid atmosphere has given the city, famous for its hustling, a tropical languor.

BRYAN PREPARING TO RECEIVE NOMINATION

LINCOLN, Neb., June 22.—Confident of at least 100 more votes than the required number to nominate him for the presidency, William J. Bryan, at his private farm is already taking an active part in the preliminaries for the democratic convention. The city of Lincoln is also making preparations to appear well under the spotlight, which is already swinging this way. A spur trolley line is being hastily constructed to Mr. Bryan's front door, which will make most comfortable the three-mile trip from the city. Mr. Bryan has made arrangements for newspaper men in a little cottage which he owns and which stands directly across from his front gate. A telegraph office is to be established here and a commodious tent erected for the quarters of the correspondents. While Mr. Bryan has made no plans for the convention, it is understood he will not spend his entire time at his country home, but will campaign, as has been his wont, from the rear platform of a special train, and that much of the country will be covered in this manner.

LAKE COUNTY SHEEPMEN REFUSE TO SELL WOOL

LAKEVIEW, June 22.—Although there are a number of wool buyers in Lake county, the producers refuse to sell. The clip was exceptionally heavy this year and the wool is said to be of fine quality. The prices offered by the buyers in the field have not been made public, and no reason is given for the lack of sales. It is probable that the sheepmen are waiting for the northern counties to sell, so that they will have some idea as to the prevailing prices. Southern Oregon sheepmen have been very prosperous the past few years and most of them are so fixed that they do not need the revenue from the wool sales in order to meet the expenses of their business. It is expected that the sales will begin just as soon as some of the pools in the northern part of the state are sold and a price established.

ROBBED WEALTHY WOMEN WHILE AT PRAYER

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 22.—The police are today looking for a woman who they believe has been making a practice of robbing wealthy women while at prayer in St. Mary's cathedral here, the largest Catholic church in the west. The latest victim of the mysterious woman burglar is Miss Constance Sewell of Norfolk, Va., who lost a handsome containing $105 in gold and some valuable stones. She rose from her prayer to find that another bag had been substituted for her own. She suspects a woman who was praying near her.

TEDDY AGAIN AT OYSTER BAY

Roosevelt Begins Summer Schedule -- Taft Expected Next Week Journalist Gets Appointment

OYSTER BAY, L. I., June 22.—President Roosevelt went into his summer schedule today and took up his play with almost as much vigor as he has given his work recently in Washington. The townspeople are all full of renewed life since the arrival of the president at Sagamore Hill. The president was up early and appeared in a light summer suit. He went for a tennis game and a trip on the sound. Secretary Taft is expected to arrive next week, and he will be the first important visitor of the summer. It is not announced how long Taft will remain, but it is expected that he and the president will make formal plans for the coming campaign.

LUMBERMEN DISPLEASED OVER RATES IN THE FAR EAST

Lumbermen are not altogether satisfied with the recent rulings of the interstate commerce commission regarding the rates on lumber to the eastern terminals. While rates have not been advanced on lumber from Oregon mills to the lower crossings of the Missouri river, tariffs are higher in stations in the territory east of the river and there has been a jump of 5 cents per 100 pounds to St. Paul and common points, making the new rate 45 cents, says the Oregonian.

FILLS CHEST CAVITY WITHOUT AIR PRESSURE

NEW YORK, June 22.—A new surgical device invented by Professor Ernest Sauerbruch of the Marburg Surgical Institute of Germany, whose science is to operate without the cavity of the chest without pressure of air on the lungs, has accomplished one of the most successful achievements of surgery. Prof. Sauerbruch, who is on a visit to this country, gave a demonstration of his invention at the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research, the subject being a fox terrier. The operation was performed within a glass cabinet, the professor and his assistants working within the enclosure. Robert Shingle was badly injured in Josephine county by a bear that he had wounded, but was saved by W. R. Green, a companion, who killed the bear and carried Shingle seven miles through the young mountains to camp, and then 10 miles more to a place where he could get a convalescence broken and the side of his head was gashed deeply.

EXPELL ALL GIRLS FROM COLLEGES

Czar Nicholas Promulgates Sweeping Edict Which may Cause Riots throughout Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 22.—Czar Nicholas today promulgated one of the most sweeping measures ever issued in Russia, by which all women students are ordered expelled from Russian universities. The order affects twenty-two hundred women, many of whom were nearing graduation, and the bitterness is widespread. The czar issued the instructions to Minister Von Kauffman, chief of the bureau of public instruction. The edict also sets forth that hereafter no women shall be admitted to any of the universities. It is announced that the action is the result of activity on the part of the women in the revolutionary movements. The women have been open in their encouragement of the men students in their attacks on the government. An appeal is being made to the duma for relief from the effects of the edict. The students proclaim the czar's order to be "an effort of the government to force the nation back into the dark ages." They denounce it as stalling progress and advancement, and it is not unusual to hear the opinion expressed that the day has passed in Russia when such arbitrary oppression will be accepted unchallenged. Some of the shrewdest students of affairs fear the results of the edicts and riots would not come as a surprise.

AERONAUTS FROM NARROW ESCAPE

OAKLAND, Cal., June 22.—Joseph Randall, aeronaut at a local park, is being congratulated by his friends on a miraculous escape from death yesterday evening in a burning balloon. Randall's balloon caught on fire at a height of 400 feet and the fire quickly opened a space large enough to let out all the gas. Randall fell with the balloon smoldering on the roof of the taller building at the park. He had presence of mind enough to swing himself and parachute clear of the theater and hung swinging in the air until he was rescued by men with a ladder. He escaped without a scratch.

OLD SEA CAPTAIN IS RESCUED BY FRIENDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 22.—A number of the old-time friends of Captain Richard W. Nye, who has been arrested on the charge of selling $800 worth of machinery from the schooner Gayhead, on which he was steerman, will probably come to the rescue of the unfortunate captain today. Nye was more than 40 years a prominent navigator on this coast, but has recently been setting as steerman for Pacific Coast Whaling & Steamship company.

RICH STRIKE MADE ON ST. ALBANY GROUP

Lewis Adams, the genial Elvira storekeeper, is spending a few days in Medford on business. He states that a rich strike has been made by the St. Albany group near the Blue Lodge by W. P. Arant, superintendent of Creted Lake park, and the case has attracted a great deal of attention. In the question of the value of the calves in the question was introduced as evidence, and the defense now is planning to introduce two calves to prove to the jury that Arant is indicted for stealing his own calf. Welcome For Nominee in New York--Goes to Attend Yale Commencement and to see Teddy

NEW YORK, June 22.—William H. Taft was greeted with loud cheers when he arrived at the Pennsylvania station in Jersey City today, and was given another ovation when he landed at the 23d street ferry station. It was New York's first glimpse of Taft as the candidate, and the reception was up to the expectations of the party leaders. With Taft was Frank R. Kellogg, special counsel for the government in the suits against the Standard Oil company. They went directly to the Hotel Manhattan, where they held a conference on trust matters. Mrs. Taft and her daughter were at the Manhattan to greet the candidate. At noon Taft left for New Haven, Conn., to attend the Yale commencement. He will go to New London to witness the Yale-Harvard boat races on Thursday. From New London he will return to New York and will meet Luke E. Wright, the new secretary of war, on Friday. Then he and Wright will go to Oyster Bay to confer with President Roosevelt. Taft expects to return to Washington Saturday and wind up his business at the war department and turn over the office to Wright. The candidate today refused to discuss politics. He spoke in the highest praise of James S. Sherman, the vice presidential candidate, and greeted his interviewers with vigorous handshakes and broad smiles. He said that he expected to spend September and October at his home in Cincinnati.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 22.—News has just reached here that diamonds valued at $12,000 have been stolen from the workshop of the Diamond Drill Company of Bonland, B. C. The burglars, evidently knowing that the stones were lying loose about the shop, made their way into the building, gathered them up and disappeared with their valuable loot. When the workmen left the shop Saturday night they left to put the diamonds, which were the property of Stone & Knight, Spokane Spokane business men, to the safe. It is thought that this loot became known to persons who were watching the workmen.

TRYING TO FIND ROBBERS WHO KILLED SAILOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 22.—The police are today trying to find the robbers who killed James W. Tracy, a coal passer on the United States steamship company, and threw the body off the highest point of Telegraph hill. The position of the sailor's body and the fracture of the skull indicated that he was probably killed and thrown off the cliff. Tracy was last seen on the Barbary coast last night with a whole woman's coat in his pocket, and it is thought that he was lured to his death by thugs. But 30 cents were found in the pockets of the dead man. He was a native of Fall River, Mass., and had been in the navy but a year.

SEND DOGS TO LISTEN TO CARUSO

Boston's Smart-set From Pulpit in Baccalaureate Sermon at Eugene--De-generacy Described.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Or., June 22.—There are women in Boston who send puppies to hear Caruso. They got their dogs miffs miffed. Indeed, I have seen doggies taken to ride in coaches for their health. And a maid would go along to hold a parasol over each one. With this arrangement of Boston's smart set in baccalaureate sermons to the graduating class of the University of Oregon, the Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, pastor of the Warren Street Baptist church of Boston, has created a stir in local society circles, and those who heard the sermon are today discussing with much interest the marked difference between social conditions in the Holy city and those we live in Oregon. "Why, do you know?" he asked, "that I have a friend back east who takes city children for fresh air, and that some of them struck because the milk was yellow and rich and not blue and thin like the kind the rich children had at home? There are children 5 years of age in Boston who have never seen a blade of grass. Such as these are mere eggs and pullets in the world." The preacher then referred to Boston society leaders and their puppies. "At a ball in the home of a New Jersey belle, after wine of the east-fined kind had been served," he continued, "and after the ball had been decorated with the American flag for $12 per dozen, the fatter turned loose thousands of yellow, gaudy colored butterflies to flutter about until they fell from exhaustion under the feet of the dancers. And those butterflies cost not less than $100,000, while four blocks from that ballroom there were women cradling through the whole week only $4."

HOME TEAM LOSES GAME

Grants Pass Wins By Score of Three to Two Against Medford On Home Grounds Sunday

In a clever and evenly contested game yesterday on the Medford ball grounds, the Grants Pass team defeated the Medford boys by a score of 3 to 2. Owing to threatening weather, the Grants Pass team did not come on the morning train, but waited for the afternoon train, so the game did not commence until 3:40. However, early in the afternoon the crowd commenced to assemble, the local players doing practice stunts to keep the fans amused while waiting for the opposition. There were about 200 people in attendance. Grants Pass went first to bat and were retired in one, two, three order. Medford made two runs in the first and Grants Pass one in the third. After that for five innings, mostly good, clean playing, neither side scored. In the ninth the tide broke in favor of the Josephine county boys, and they scored twice. The locals were unable to connect successfully in their half. Bussum and Sanderson were in the points for Medford and Jarvis and Phelps for Grants Pass. Charles King pitched the game. Owing to an accident to the chest protectors, both catchers received without other protection than mask and gloves, and this considered their work was of the first order. The bright particular star of the game was Shorty Miles. His one hand catch of a high throw to second being a brilliant play.

CLACKAMAS HATCHERY GIVEN TO GOVERNMENT

On July 1 the Clackamas river, including the Clackamas hatchery station, will be turned over by the state authorities to the United States commissioner of fisheries, and these properties will be in charge of Henry O'Malley, government superintendent of fisheries for this state. This disposition of the Clackamas river hatchery business was decided upon at a recent meeting of the board of fish commissioners of this state. Master Fish Warden McAllister reported that he had talked with all of the cannerymen on the Columbia river and they had promised to pack the loads, mostly and row of the salmon, in galvanized cans, without any expense to the state, other than the cost of the cans, the same to be distributed to the different hatcheries. Mr. McAllister was directed to establish a hatchery at Bonneville, if he found conditions satisfactory, and the appointment of J. W. Herrian as superintendent of this proposed hatchery was approved as follows: E. C. Greenman, A. J. Sprague, J. W. Talbert and Bliss Thorn.

Medford water bonds amounting to $565,000 will be sold by the city council to John Nuveen & Co., bankers of Chicago, at the council meeting Wednesday evening, when the bid will be formally accepted upon the presentation of the required certified check to insure good faith on the part of the bidder. The bonds are for 30 years and draw 5 per cent. The bankers pay par, less 5 per cent, or $525,000, for "commission," which means that the city is paying on the basis of 53.8 per cent interest and will receive $340,750 for constructing the distributing system and the proposed line to Wasson Springs canyon as the distributing system will cost approximately $85,000, and the water rights at Wasson canyon $25,000, there will be approximately $236,000 for the purchase of rights of way, surveys and pipeline. Money will be furnished as the city requires it. The successful bid reads as follows: "Will take 5 per cent 30-year bonds at par, $565,000, furnish blanks and legal evidence and furnish money needed, provided city allows us a 5 per cent commission to cover cost of attorneys' fees, etc. This is on 53.8 basis interest.

MAKES COVER TO ASSAULT CHARGE

A. H. Saling, the timber locator, was fined $20 Saturday for assault and battery upon the person of A. E. Seymour, a tourist, to whom Saling was trying to sell land. Saling took Seymour out to look at some timber, which failed to please the latter. Upon their return Saling demanded that Seymour pay half the livery charges for the team, and upon the latter's refusal, said that he would take it "out of his hide," which his battered appearance indicates that he did. Seymour was represented by Attorney S. S. Pentz.

REPRESENTS THAT SEYMOUR WAS NOT INTENDING OF BUYING, BUT WAS SEEING THE COUNTRY AT HIS EXPENSE. SEYMOUR CLAIMS THAT HE WAS INDUCED TO TAKE THE TRIP BY SALING, WHO MET HIM AT THE DEPOT AS HE WAS ABOUT TO LEAVE TOWN AND THAT HE WOULD HAVE BOUGHT THE PROPERTY SIGHTED.
