

Always to the Fore

“Toggery Bill” has got the business, and there’s no gainsaying it. Reason: He always keeps his stock clean. In order to accomplish this he has introduced the System of Cleaning out the remainder of each season’s stock at a

Tremendous Sacrifice

THE TIME HAS COME

I’m going to clean out my entire spring and summer stock. When I say CLEAN OUT I mean that I have BLOWN OFF ALL PRICES WITH DYNAMITE No half-hearted methods do I employ. EVERY VESTIGE MUST GO—AND GO QUICK. Nothing reserved; you know the rest.

Sale begins Saturday Morning, June 27, 1908, at 8:00 o’clock

Last Day of Sale, Friday, July 3

SPACE FORBIDS QUOTING MORE PRICES

President Suspenders, 29c 50c Neckwear, 33c Boston Garters, 9c
 $20 Suits, $13.95 $3 World-Famous No Name Hats, $2.33 $1.50 Shirts, $1.19

“TOGGERY BILL”

The Pioneer of Medford in “GREATEST VALUE GIVING”

“Toggery Bill” in person is conducting this sale in the same straightforward characteristic manner that has established for him the largest clothing business in Southern Oregon