The wreck occurred while the heavy train, which was west-bound, was run-ning at a fair rate of speed. The timters supporting the bridge had been burned away and there was no blaze to warn the engineer. The heavy engine plunged into the dry creek and the first two or three coaches followed, piling up in a hopeless wreck of timbers and

The injured were brought to Wins low and placed in the Santa Pe hos-pital, where they are receiving every care. It is not believed that any will

TRIES TO SAVE BROTHER BY ACCUSING HIMSELP

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 29. "My reason for saying that I, and not my brother, William Evans, shot George Godfrey, was that I am a single man, with no one depending on me for support, while he is married and has two children and I did not wish him to get into serious trouble."

This is the remarkable statement made at the city prison today by Jack Evans, who last night surrendered him-self to the police as the man who did the shooting.

William Evans, who did the shoot ing, was arrested later, on the stateof Godfrey that Jack did not have anything to do with the shooting. The shooting was the result of bad blood between Godfrey and Evans, who is a contractor. Godfrey was discharged by William Evans some time ago, after quarrel, and since then both men have gone armed. They met in a sa-loon and Evans shot the other man four times and ran away.

Jack Evans walked up to the police who were ordered to remove Godfrey to the hospital, and asked to be ar-rested, declaring that he had done the
