The Pioneer of Medford in Greatest Value Giving

Social and Personal

J. E. Simmons spent several hours in Jacksonville Tuesday.
 If your digestion is impaired, drink Calcein.
 Who would be a camel? Drink Calcein Natural Mineral Water.
 Verne Cannon was a business visitor in Ashland Monday.
 Minus and Ed Perce came down from Elk Creek Tuesday on land business.
 Daniel Whitestone, who has been there several times before, was taken to the insane asylum by an attendant thereof last Monday.
 A number of the teachers of southern Oregon attended the Institute of the western division of the State Teachers' association, held at Eugene June 25-27. Albert Bushnell Hart of Harvard university, a specialist in history, and Professor Elwood P. Cubberly of Stanford, an authority on school finance, were the chief attractions. A very interesting and instructive meeting is reported. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hasley were among the many in Medford during the week.

 Marion Sowash of Talent and A. Johnston of Phoenix were recent visitors in Medford.
 Thomas G. Spangler of Trail recently transacted business in Medford one day last week.
 Thomas Riley, former county commissioner, spent several hours in Medford recently.
 Herbert Cole was in the lower valley this week in the interests of the famous Calcein mineral water.
 J. D. Pearce of Trail president, the woodman, is employed at Engstrom's sawmill, operating near Jacksonville.
 The Beavers and Seals began a two-weeks' series of 14 games at the Oakland grounds Tuesday. San Francisco won the first game by a score of 4 to 2, principally because Portland has a crippled staff of pitchers. On the same day at Los Angeles Oakland beat the Los Los by a score of 6 to 3.

 George H. Durham and Ernest Lister of Grants Pass were in Medford and Jacksonville Tuesday.
 Ed Reische, who is operating at Ayer's Spout this season, made Medford a visit Tuesday.
 Henry L. White was on the south bound train Monday en route to his home at Ashland.
 C. M. Wood came over from Siskiyou county, California, Tuesday and will be employed near Jacksonville during the coming season.
 Will Scholz and Miss Lena Hostwick, a popular young couple, will be married at Jacksonville today. They have the congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends.
 Do you use Davis' Best Flour? Don't let your grocer talk you into buying other brands shipped in. Davis' Best sells for less money and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Try a sack and be convinced.
