Three Things to Do.

O'There are three things that this convention should do. It ought to pre-sent in plain and intelligent manner the sent in plain and notificial condi-berious industrial and political condi-tions that are disturbing the peace and happiness of our country. We should then proceed to a courageous exposure of the republican policies that are co-operating with private greed in the general oppression of the people. And lastly, and most important of all, we must exhibit a readiness and an ability to grasp the problems of the hour and to effect their solution in a manner that will satisfy the sober, common sense of the multitudes whose interests are ut
