FACTS FROM PHOENIX.

Henry Shaffer is spending this week in Portland representing the local lodge Ancient Order of United Workmen, at the grand lodge, which is in session.

Messrs. Ed Shaffer and Cole, managers of the Standard mill, are putting out a fine lot of confectionery store fixtures for Rose Brothers of Ashland. They say that the gardeners shut the water off from them some times, so as to cause the mill to stop, but maybe they forget to shut it off.

J. D. Evans has let the contract for his new house to Charles W. Roberts of Medford. Mr. Roberts will commence work at once.

Paul Anderson of North Phoenix is furnishing some of our boys employment in his pear orchard.

The old Colver place on the east side of the creek is being platted off in ten-acre tracts and will be sold. A chance for someone.

The Women of Woodcraft met Thursday night and served ice cream and cake.

N. C. Parkerson and family, William Wilder and wife and Ralph Roberts left the first of the week for an extended trip to Crater lake. They went by way of Rogue river and will return by way of Pelican bay and Ashland.

Henry Carter and wife, owner of a fine Newtown Pippin orchard in the suburbs of Ashland, spent Wednesday here at the Morse ranch, guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Morse.

M. Peck of Jennings, La., arrived here Tuesday. Mr. Peck is on a trip for his health and says that he thinks he has gone far enough, for he says he eats as much for one meal as in three or four days previous to coming here.

Mrs. George Morse spent Friday morning in Medford shopping.

The Rice family are spending these hot days in the hills roustabouting.

Work is progressing nicely on the new school.

Miss Nellie Reames is at home after spending two weeks in Ashland visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Carey expect to leave soon for Newport.

The Hon. Fletcher Fish attended the Medford band concert Friday evening. So did our correspondent and others.

D. Lohmers is employed in the store in the absence of Henry Shafer.

Arthur Furry and family will leave Monday for their Dead Indian ranch to roustabout for a while.

Louie Colver and wife and Ed Robinson and wife of Talent left yesterday for Crescent City to take a look at the briny deep.

GOLD HILL GIRL WEDS MARSHFIELD MERCHANT

Friends of Jack Davis, the proprietor of the Blanco cigar stand and confectionery, were surprised today by the announcement of the marriage of his son and Miss Irene Winifred Vincent of Gold Hill. The nuptials were solemnized Saturday evening at the home of Mr. Davis' parents, in Marshfield, but only a few intimate friends and relatives were apprised of the event, it being the young couple's idea to get away on their honeymoon trip before their friends learned of the event.—Marshfield Daily Times.

Do You Realize that lumber and cement are on the bargain counter; that all building material is cheaper than it has been for years, and that the services of competent builders can be secured for wages lower than you will see again? Now, give this a few moments' thought and you will act as do the prudent business men—build now, save money and avoid the rush of coming good times.

CRATER LAKE LUMBER CO.

WHY IS IT?

That each month in all the best homes in this country, on the library table, and in every club reading room, you find the

METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE

It is because it keeps you in touch with those great public and human movements on which the American family depends. It is because its stories are the best published anywhere. It is because its illustrations in color, and black and white, set the standard. It is because its articles are the most vital and interesting. It is because there is something in each copy for every member of every American family.

It is up to You What Will You Do?

If you do a lot of thinking, if your brain is active and the strain is wearing out your nerves and breaking down your system day by day, then you may reflect for a moment, if it would not be wise to drink the strength of roasted grains, to buy at your grocery store a package of

Golden Grain Granules

No man can consume his strength and retain it at the same time; he ought to replenish an equal amount daily. GOLDEN GRAIN GRANULES is far superior to Coffee, although it looks like coffee, tastes like coffee and smells like coffee. A big package can be had in any grocery store for 25c. Order a package today. All grocery sell it.
