

CITY JAIL FULL THIS MORNING

Men from All Walks of Life Are Locked up by the Police.

All of the rooms in the jail was occupied last night and the register of that hostelry bore the names of men from all walks of life. In fact, a small community could have formed its nucleus there. In the city jail there was a doctor, a machinist, a merchant, a cook, a professor, a bartender, a lawyer and a farmer. Whether any of the men could qualify for any of the positions or not is a question—certain it is, that some of them looked the part—but each gave his trade or his profession as named. With the exception of two, the men were locked up for drunkenness. The two exceptions were Frank Johnson and Fred F. Murray, who are charged with robbing H. M. Webber on Friday last.

Outside of the city jail there was another curious collection. It was one of dogs. Of the men locked up four owned dogs and the canines sat patiently outside until such time as their masters would again be free. Of the four, one was a greyhound, one a doberman, one a setter and the fourth just a plain dog. The famous bird dog, Dewey, whose quarters are just across the street joined them, making the congregation seem all the larger.

Frank Johnson, charged with robbing H. M. Webber of Ashland, has been bound over to await the grand jury.

The police have located H. L. Stirling, the "professor," who left suddenly after starting to teach a number of young men of the city telegraphy, and bring him probably be taken to bring him back. It is said that he shipped his goods to his father-in-law before leaving Medford. It is stated by the police that he obtained over $1300 in this city before leaving.

CLOSED SEASON ON SALMON FOR FISHING

Fishermen in the Upper Rogue met with but little luck Sunday, but few good catches being reported. Now that the closed season is on and fishing has stopped for a few days at Grants Pass, a few may succeed in reaching the Upper river, though the defective fishways over the dams, with but little water flowing over them, render it a difficult task for any but the larger fish. The Rogue is said to be the lowest ever known at this season of the year, and it is expected a new low water mark will be made this fall.

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT HAS NO PARTICULAR RELIGION

CINCINNATI, O., August 4.—The Rev. A. G. Thayer of the First Unitarian church today denied that Judge William H. Taft had no particular religion, as was reported. Mr. Thayer said: "Judge Taft's mother and Judge Alphonse Taft and his wife were members of the Unitarian church and were members of the congregation of which I am the pastor. Will Taft attended my church regularly when he lived in Cincinnati. He became a member of the church when he was a young boy."

SUNDAY CLOSING LAW CAUSES A JURY TRIAL

ROSEBURG, Or., August 4.—The Sunday closing law was the cause for a jury trial in Justice Long's court yesterday. The defendants were five of Roseburg's business men, E. Rhoads & Son was the first of the alleged violators to come to trial. Mr. Rhoads runs a confectionery store near the depot. The complaint was brought by three church organizations through E. P. Engles. Only a few witnesses were called and the case was soon given to the jury, which disagreed and was dismissed. There are four other cases to be tried, but no prosecutions are expected.

SOLDIERS IN CAMP FOR SUMMER MANEUVERS

TACOMA, Wash., August 4.—Regular army and national guard troops from guard stations and army garrisons throughout Oregon and Washington are arriving with almost every train at the American Lake district, south and west of Tacoma, for participation in the joint maneuvers, which open tomorrow morning. All regular army troops and the Washington national guard are under canvas. Two regiments of infantry from Oregon arrived yesterday, the entire force assigned to the first maneuver period of ten days is ready to take the field.

Among those from here who spent Sunday at Coletia were C. L. Reames, Nell Reames, Peter Deisch, Chris Kenney and Ray Sexton.
Miss Mollie Towne, deputy county clerk, has returned from her vacation. Miss Towne visited the Yellowstone Park, returning by way of Salt Lake City and San Francisco and had a very enjoyable time.

MARRIED.

WASCHAU COLE.—At Jacksonville, August 4, Mr. Reynold Waschau and Miss Florence Cole, both residents of this city. After a short trip the two will make their home in this city. Mr. Waschau is well known in Medford, having been in business here for a number of years. Miss Cole has a large host of friends in this city. She came here about one year ago. Congratulations and best wishes are in order and will undoubtedly be extended by their many friends.

DESCRIBES EFFECT OF POISON WHILE DYING

LOS ANGELES, Cal., August 4.—Mrs. Cora Cummings is in the hospital today after drinking carbonic acid and describing on paper the awful pain she suffered before she lost consciousness. Grief over the death of her two babies and homesickness for her mother, who lives at Spokane, Wash., caused the woman to attempt suicide.
After drinking the fatal acid, the despondent woman seized a pencil and wrote:
"Oh, my dear, I feel no pain; only a bad stomach ache.
"Oh, do they, maybe? I hope when you come I'll be dead. Just think, dead. Won't it be funny?
"The pains are so bad. Don't you ever do as I did. It is awful. Don't ever do as I have done. It is awful. I can't stand it. Oh, Gay, it's worse and worse; it is killing me.
"I wish—"
At this point the pencil dropped from her fingers and she fell groaning to the floor. Her husband, who was near her, heard her cries and, rushing into the house called an ambulance. His prompt action will probably result in her life being saved.

FATHER OF 26 CHILDREN SENT TO SAN QUENTIN

OAKLAND, Cal., August 4.—Captain Richard W. Nye, master mariner and the father of 26 children, was taken to San Quentin prison today to begin a three-year term for grand larceny.
Captain Nye was formerly one of the most daring skippers that sailed from San Francisco. He has been in hard luck and last winter took a job as watchman on a vessel at anchor in the basin here.
He stole articles valued at $2500 from the vessel. When arraigned in court he admitted his guilt and said that his children needed him. The watchman's pay was not enough, he said, to enable him to support his children, and he was tempted and fell.

ATTELL AND OWEN MAY NOT FIGHT ON SEPTEMBER 9

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., August 1.—Will Ahe Attell and Owen Moran fight here on Labor day for the featherweight championship of the world? The fans of this city are really wondering today after the failure of last night's conference between Promoter Caffroth and the two fighters. The conference, which lasted several hours, was fruitless so far as results are concerned.
The little fighters agree on everything but the selection of the referee. Since Jeffries has refused to re-enter the ring they have been put out. Last night they wired the big ex-champion at Los Angeles begging him to reconsider his refusal, but his answer was another refusal.
