

TO SECURE GOOD ROADS

Commercial Club Names Delegation to State Convention

Medford will be well represented at the good roads conference at Portland next week by a good-sized delegation, whose business it will be to let the rest of the state know that Medford and Jackson county have taken the lead as usual and that the rest of the state can trail behind. The delegation named by the Commercial club to go north consists of C. R. Ray, J. D. Olwell, Ed Andrews, G. Punnam, H. T. Findley, C. A. Welch, J. F. Reddy, Dr. E. B. Pickel, Edgar Hafer and J. E. Eynart. In addition, all citizens who can spare the time are asked to become members of the delegation. A round trip fare of one and one-third has been obtained from the Southern Pacific.

County Judge Neil has named the following delegation as representing the county: A. C. Allyn, Medford; F. H. Hopkins, Central Point; E. T. Staples, Ashland, and J. W. Perkins, Medford. As Mr. Perkins is away, another appointment will be made.

The Commercial club held its monthly meeting Wednesday evening and passed its regular budget of bills. A. C. Randall, purchaser of the Pellett orchard at Talent, was unanimously elected to membership.

H. T. Findley was appointed a committee of one with full power to act for the club in securing legislation and taking steps needed to stop the sale of wormy fruit, the regular inspection of all fruit offered for sale, the establishment of a creditable fruit stand at the exhibit building and prevent the selling of culls to Southern Pacific passenger cars.

LATE LOCAL NEWS

Henry L. Pegg, formerly of Prospect, was in Medford not long since. He is engaged in mining in Hungry Creek district, California.

The trial at Grants Pass of H. C. Ackermann, charged with conducting a "blind pig," failed to develop Monday. At the hour for trial the prosecuting attorney was present and the defendant's legal adviser, but the defendant was not. Whereupon a bench warrant was issued for his return. It is believed that he has left the state.

Twenty-five of Portland's business men passed through the valley Wednesday en route to Klamath Falls to visit various points of interest in that district. Arrangements have been made for a stop at Crater Lake. Tents have been erected near the lake for the accommodation of the party. Some will return to Portland after a few days at Crater Lake, while others intend to stay in camp there several weeks.

MRS. SPIES, OLD MEDFORD RESIDENT, PASSES AWAY

BIG NUGGETS AT STERLING

Miss Gladys Heard, "The Nugget Queen," Unearths Two Large Ones

Miss Gladys Heard, "the nugget queen," Wednesday unearthed two large nuggets at the Sterling mine, Jackson county's prize producer and the largest placer mine in the world. One of these nuggets weighs 132 grams and the other 124. She now has quite a collection of nuggets, probably the largest collection in Oregon, some of them three or four inches across, which have been washed into the sluice boxes or picked up in pockets along the bed rock after the earth had been hydraulicked off.

Miss Heard, pretty, charming and still in her teens, is probably the only girl placer miner in the world. Her father, Jeff D. Heard, who is part owner and manager of the Sterling, is away a great deal of the time, and during his absence his daughter runs affairs, managing a crew of 30 or 40 men, giving directions, attending to details and overseeing the cleanups in a business-like manner that well might excite the envy of a forty-year-old. Moreover, she is lucky, and the big strikes are made and the nuggets found while she is boss of the mine.
