presented a high tribute to Bryan, declaring that he is not under obligations to unlawful combinations of capitalists, but is free to serve the people by carrying out his platform pledges.

Remove the Speaker. "The only relief from this intolerable situation proposed by the speaker himself is to remove him from his position; in other words, to disgrace and destroy one of the highest offices in the government."

Mr. Bryan's Speech. Bryan said in part: "Nowhere does the republican party show its indifference to real reform more than in its treatment of the trust question. Here is the republican platform: 'The republican party passed the Sherman anti-trust law over democratic opposition and enforced it after democratic dereliction. It has been a wholesome instrument for good in the hands of a wise and fearless administration. But experience has shown that its effectiveness can be strengthened and its real objects better attained by such amendments as will give to the federal government greater supervision and control over and secure greater publicity in the management of that class of corporations engaged in interstate commerce having power and opportunity to effect monopolies.'

The Sherman Law. "The Sherman anti-trust law was passed 18 years ago. It has a criminal clause which provides a penitentiary punishment for those who conspire together in restraint of trade. Instead of democratic dereliction the democrats have been urging, year after year, the strict enforcement of that law, but the republican party has been explaining year after year why it was impossible to enforce it. Instead of being a 'wholesome instrument for good' it has been almost useless, for the trusts have grown in number, in strength, and in a day when the republican party was boasting of its enforcement."

Trusts Never Disturbed. "Most of the trusts have never been disturbed, but those that have been prosecuted have not had their business seriously interrupted. The president has done something toward the enforcement of the law, but not nearly enough, and the republican leaders have thwarted him at every point. Finally the president became so exasperated that he sent to congress a message which shocked republican leaders by the fierceness of its denunciation of the predatory interests."

Effect on Business. "The business men of the country have felt the pressure of the trusts. The retailer has been compelled to enter into contracts which restrict his management of his own affairs; he has found the terms of sale any payment changed to his disadvantage, and he has been forced to carry more and more of the risks of trade. He is convinced that there are no good trusts and that his only safety is in the democratic plank which lays the ax at the root of the tree."

Begin September 1, the Medford Meat company will cut the extra expense of the credit business off the selling price of meats. We will sell for cash and sell for less. Miller, Ewbank & Culp.

ANOTHER Man Separated From His Wife! Who Is Responsible? We refer to a man who lives here and keeps his family in Portland because he cannot find a house for them in Medford. This is bad for him and bad for Medford. The real estate men tell us they cannot supply half the demand for houses. We will furnish the LUMBER, LATH, SHINGLES and CEMENT, if someone will get busy and build a few more houses to rent.

ASHLAND COMMERCIAL COLLEGE Ashland, Oregon. Thorough, practical training in commercial, shorthand and English branches. Our high-class training is proverbial, our facilities for placing graduates is not surpassed, and the smallness of the expense in wearing such an education here is appreciated.

All students who secure a nine months' scholarship and enter at the beginning of the term, September 7th, will be entitled to the combined course—commercial, shorthand and English—to July 1, 1909. Ten months of expert, practical, individual instruction for $60.00. Investigate and attend the ASHLAND COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

paugh. Take for instance the chairman of the republican speaker's committee, Mr. Dupont of Delaware, he is the defendant in a suit which the government brought and is now prosecuting.

Effect on Business. "The business men of the country have felt the pressure of the trusts. The retailer has been compelled to enter into contracts which restrict his management of his own affairs; he has found the terms of sale any payment changed to his disadvantage, and he has been forced to carry more and more of the risks of trade. He is convinced that there are no good trusts and that his only safety is in the democratic plank which lays the ax at the root of the tree."

Scores Mr. Taft. "Here is a confession by Mr. Taft that he regards the trusts as necessary to the nation's prosperity, or he declares that they play an important part in the maintenance of prosperity and he charges that I 'exterminate, destroy' business in exterminating and destroying the principle of private monopoly. Surely, his study of the trust question had been very superficial, if he sees danger in the restoration of a reign of competition."

I have quoted and requested Mr. Taft's language because I want to impress upon the minds of those who desire to see the absurdity the question raises to the democratic plan of extermination of monopolies. He fails to distinguish between the honest business that makes a country prosperous and brigandage practice by private monopolies. The people have been robbed by the trusts to the extent of hundreds of millions a year, and if Mr. Taft is not yet conscious of what is going on, and not yet aroused to the inquiry of these trusts, how can the country hope for relief through his election?"

One price to all, and that price will be minus the extra expense of the credit business. Beginning September 1, the Medford Meat company will sell for cash and sell for less. Miller, Ewbank & Culp.

Crater Lake Lumber Co. MEDFORD, OREGON

When we went on a... was unexperiment. We had... thoroughly disgusted with dunning business. We had lost some accounts and, like all other grocers, we figured the profits to cover these lost accounts and the expense of bookkeeping. It occurred to us that the customers would like to have this extra expense cut off their grocery bills. Our experiment has proven a great success. The store had never been as busy as it is now. Every day someone remarks on the economy of buying from us. This is pleasing for us and pleasing to them. The man with garden truck to sell likes to get cash for it. The proof of this is the fact that we now have first choice of fresh vegetables and fruit. A glance below will show a few items that are pleasing our many customers: Our leader, "Webfoot" flour, a real Eastern Oregon hard wheat flour, we sell for 10c a sack less. We save you 4c on a package of "Arm & Hammer Soda." On Carnation Cream we save you 5c on every two cans you buy. Most of our 2 for 25c canned goods we have cut to the 10c straight. A saving of 25 per cent on genuine uncolored Japan Tea is a welcome economical feature. You paid 25c for four bars of common Laundry Soap, we sell six bars for 25c in cash now. When buying a dozen jars of best Jelly you save 60c. (Credit $3.50, cash $3.00) We had a little trouble with the Medford Creamery man because we sold his butter 5c a roll cheaper than others. We can't buy from him now, but we always have fresh A 1 creamery butter from other southern Oregon creameries selling at 5c below the market price. We sell canned pineapple for 25c now, while before, to come out right, we sold them for 35c. On fancy Dried Apricots we have cut the price from 15c a lb. to 12 1/2c. On Corn Starch we have made the price 7c a package instead of 10c. "Cottolene" has come under the knife for a cut of 5c on the large cans. We have hunched a large quantity of 5c Toilet Soaps and are selling them for 40c a dozen. 10 bars of Swift's "Snap" Laundry Soap for 25c is hard to beat buying for credit. Whisk Brooms have been cut 5c each. 25 to 50 per cent saving on A 1 Macaroni is also pleasing. Chipped Beef in the regular 35 jars we now sell for 30c. Thus it goes, a big saving—from $4.00 to $10.00 on your grocery bill every month. All that is necessary is to form that most useful habit—cash buying. MILLER & EW BANK Big Grocery next 1st National Bank Oak Park Addition On railroad on the West Side, north of depot grounds and conveniently located for business men seeking homesites close in. These fine lots are offered for sale cheap, on good terms, and the owners are in position to offer building inducements to anyone wishing to make the right kind of improvements. Why go out to the faraway suburbs when such fine residence lots can be obtained at prices ranging from $200 to $350 per Lot situated where an advance in price is assured, and where the first benefit will be derived from the completion of the railroad to the timber? It pays to figure on such investments in a live town like Medford, and the present prices for these lots will look like a veritable gift to the buyer in a year or two hence.
