MEDFORD DAILY TRIBUNE, MEDFORD, OREGON, SATURDAY, AUGUST 29, 1908.

CONSULTING ENGINEER OF LARGE ELECTRICAL COMPANY INVESTIGATING LOCAL FIELD

The presence of Edward B. Sterritt, the consulting engineer of the Edison Electric company of Les Angeles, the been connected with the development of largest lighting and power company II. E. Huntington's electric lines in and of its kind in southern California and about Los Augeles. which rivals many of the eastern con-cerns of like nature, in this valley would indicate that the attention of of his own volition and not at the rethat company has been directed toward quest of his company, that his company southern Oregon. Mr. Sterritt, accompany was constantly expanding and that they panied only by his chauffeur and seepanied only by his chauffeur and see retary, arrived Friday afternoon from Crater lake, having made the trip from Klamath Falls up to the lake and then to Medford. After a short sojourn in ac eity they left for Grants Pass last evening intending to return to Med-ford within a few days. The party will then reship their machine and go to Los Angeles. Mr. Sterritt is stated yes the dangets danged in the was traveling through the country for pleasure, but amended the statement by adding that he was the statement by adding that he was always interested in engineering problems whenever natural conditions were such as to suggest a power plant. The party had their machine shipped

The party had their machine support to Red Bluff direct from Los Angeles and from there the trip was made in the machine over the Siskiyous to Weed when the machine was reshipped to Dorris, when it was again employed as meanso f transportation.

For many years Mr. Sterritt has been' and I wanted to visit it, so here I am. connected with the Edison Electric com-pany as their chief engineer, and it has every respect. It will some day be been upon his report that that come one of the drawing eards of the west pany has extended their holdings until for tourist travel."

HALF THE WRECK VICTIMS ARE STEALING RIDES

SALEM, Or., August 29 .- About half the people killed in train wrecks in Oregon in the estimation of the Oregon railroad commission, are violators of the state laws forbidding trespassers upon trains and railroad property, due to the lack of co-operation on the part of town and city anthorities with the trainmen to enforce the state laws in this respect. Furthermore, unless the state laws are more rigidly enforced ermen seem to be of the opinion that as it will be impossible to minimize the baye paid for a license which gave death rate in railroad wreeks, the com tission save.

These conclusions are reached in the the state cannot pass another law rereport of the railroad commission after an investigation of the causes of the have paid for the right.
